This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

An Overture, from the Stated Clerks of the Synods, on the subject of the reception by the Assembly, of printed instead of written Minutes of Synods was referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Order of the Day was taken up, being the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

The Report was presented and accepted. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. Geo. Hale, D.D., the Secretary of the Board of Relief, and others.

The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee, to whom was referred the Twenty-ninth Annual Report to the General Assembly of the Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers, and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, beg leave respectfully to report:

That while the subject itself is of sad and pathetic interest, the facts are such as to command our gratitude and praise.

The cause, always near the heart of the Church, rises in its affections year by year, and, as the gifts of the Church and of individuals testify, the past year has been more abundant than any one preceding it. The number of churches giving to the cause has increased, the amount of money given has increased, and the number of families cared for has increased. More requires more, and as the number of those asking for aid has increased, so has God inclined the hearts of His children and given them the means to minister to those who, in the service of the Church, have come to want.

The whole number on the roll during the year from April, 1883, to April, 1884, was 498; namely, 205 ministers, 262 widows of deceased ministers, and 31 from orphan families. These have been reached in 141 Presbyteries scattered throughout the Church. Fifty-five of the number were new applicants, including 32 ministers, 18 widows, and 5 orphan families. Of the 32 ministers, one was laid aside at 38, and another at 42; and there were three between the ages of 50 and 60, seven between 60 and 70, fourteen between 70 and 80, five between 80 and 90, and one in his 91st year.

Two ministers and three widows, after having declined to ask help for two or three years, have been constrained by necessity to apply again for assistance, and their names have been replaced on the roll.

Three ministers have regained their health by means of the aid obtained from the Relief Fund, and have within the year resumed preaching.

The receipts from all sources, including balance from last year, are $112,875.82.

The Report put into our hands contains an earnest appeal to each and every Church, to make an annual collection to this most interesting and important object. And why not? Is there a minister or ruling elder who does not recognize the privilege and the obligation of supporting in their infirmities those who have given their health and strength to the Church, and now are neither able to work for the Church nor themselves? Common humanity forbids to turn out an old horse to starve; our higher Christianity teaches us to love and to honor our fathers and brethren whose gray hairs are as a crown of righteousness.

There is a remarkable difference between the contributions and the drafts of some of the Presbyteries; they draw out far more than they pay in! It may well be that some Presbyteries, with little wealth, may have a number of disabled ministers, and require more money than they can contribute; and into some of the wealthy Presbyteries disabled ministers make their way and gain residence, for the purpose of getting larger appropriations. But this only in part explains the fact that some very able Presbyteries, pay in but little and make large drafts on the treasury of the Board. Freely ye have received, freely give. The Report shows the amount contributed and the sum received by each Presbytery, and the Report is sent to every minister, and to all others who wish to see it.

The most grateful fact mentioned in the Report, is the opening, in October last, of the Presbyterian Ministers' House, at Perth Amboy, N. J. It is the ancestral mansion of Dr. Alexander M. Bruen, of the City of New York. He gave it, with eleven acres of lawn and garden and grove, to be a Saints' Rest for the worn and weary soldiers of the Cross! It is a beautiful gift and the blessings of God's poor will rest on the donor's head. Eighteen aged gentlemen and ladies are now enjoying its hospitality. If a minister loses his health, and believes that a few months of repose is what he needs to recruit him for further service, its doors are open to him, and he finds there the tonic and the quiet he requires. It has been open only a few months, and already it has restored some of our exhausted ministers to fields of usefulness.

Your Committee bear testimony, without any drawback, to the efficiency, prudence and economy with which this trust is administered, and earnestly hope that every Church will feel it a solemn duty and a sweet privilege to support this Board. No man knows what he may come to himself, and this is a Providential opening to which every minister may gratefully look as the days come nigh, when he shall say I have no pleasure in them.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with the present Assembly:

Ministers—Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.
Laymen—John C. Farr, and William G. Moorhead.
The Committee recommend their re-election.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented also an additional Report recommending that the Special Committee on Ministerial Support appointed by the last Assembly be continued.

The Report was adopted.

A letter from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was laid before the Assembly, and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee on Elections reported the following additional names of Commissioners, who were duly enrolled:

Minister—Legh Richmond Janes, of the Presbytery of Union; Elders—Samuel D. Cleland, of the Presbytery of Rock River; Jeremiah Greene, of the Presbytery of Lyons.

Resolved, That a Committee of fifteen be appointed, to consider the advisability of establishing some plan of insurance for ministers, with instructions to report at the next General Assembly.

A Committee consisting of the Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D.D., the Rev. Hanford A. Edson, D.D., the Rev. Charles H. Little, the Hon. Cyrus L. Pershing, and Andrew Grassley, was appointed, to which was referred the subject of Sabbath Observance, to report to this Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday, at 9 o'clock A.M., and closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 19th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The discussion of the Report of the Standing Committee on Freedmen, was resumed. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee having very carefully considered the Nineteenth Annual Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, the minutes of their meetings during the past year, and all other information within our reach bearing upon this subject, are very deeply impressed with the richness and hopefulness of the field committed to the care of this Board.

In its cultivation no seas are to be crossed, no caste to be broken down, no idol temples or false religions to be displaced. A field from which more than six millions of souls are to be gathered is at our very door, waiting the reaper's sickle, and the abundance of the harvest can only be measured by the means and labor we are willing to bestow upon it.

We noticed also the very interesting fact that the whole Church seems to be waking up to a fuller realization of her duty and responsibility in this regard.

The last year has been the most prosperous one this Board has ever enjoyed. There have been 372 more contributing churches, and some thirteen thousand dollars more contributed to the general work of this Board this year, than ever before, the whole amount being $102,077.

One year ago this Board was in debt $589, now it has to its credit $3703. The number of contributing sabbath-school and missionary societies were then 167, now 218.

But what is especially interesting to us, is the fact that the colored churches and schools themselves are so nobly coming up to their own support. Their contributions this year reach the round sum of $20,335, more than seven thousand dollars above what they were a year ago; and what is still more encouraging is the fact, that nearly all their well organized churches are beginning to contribute to the other Boards of the Church, according to their ability.

All these facts are very significant and encouraging, and show most conclusively, that before long many of these churches will not only be self-sustaining, but do their part to help in the support of others.

Then again, if we look at the spiritual results attained, we see very solid ground for encouragement. No less than thirteen new stations have been occupied during the past year; eleven churches have been organized, and some fourteen hundred names added to the communion rolls in these churches, or seven to each organized Church and thirteen to each minister of the Gospel in the field; most of which additions have been from the world; making a total membership of nearly 13,000, with about an equal number in their sabbath-schools.

But the special object of interest to your Committee is the educational interests which are cared for and fostered by this Board. We must recollect that when this Board entered upon its work only a few years ago, it did not find a field ready for the harvest, but rather a desert, we had almost said a thicket without the mark of the axe, much less the plow upon it; and a people without knowledge of even the alphabet of purity and moral honesty, much less sober, heartfelt piety. The very foundations had to be laid before the superstructure could be commenced. Not only had book knowledge to be imparted, but the very elements of that practical training needed in every day life, both in relation to this world and that which is to come; and hence the necessity for schools, and schools of every grade, and with reference to each of the felt necessities of those for whom they had to be established.

These this Board has provided, and they are being carried forward with remarkable success.

Among them we find, first of all, Biddle University, at Charlotte, N. C., with its 187 pupils, 124 of whom are professedly pious, and 54 of whom are preparing for the Gospel ministry, and in which institution more than 5000 persons have, to a greater or less extent, been educated.

This institution is only open to young men, but it takes them from the very rudiments of an education up, so as to fit them for whatever position they may be called to occupy, whether as mechanics, school-teachers, catechists, or preachers of the Gospel.

In connection with this school, there is also a boarding department carried on largely by students, and in connection with which, they receive that healthful training which will tend to enable them to make the best of this world, as well as of that which is to come.

The buildings at this place are large and commodious, and well adapted to their intended purpose, some forty thousand dollars having been expended during the last year in their enlargement and completion.

Next in importance is the Scotia Seminary or girls' school, at Concord, N. C., with its 243 pupils, of whom 162 are professing Christians.

In this school, the girls are taught, not only in the ordinary branches of an English education, but in all the departments of home industry, including cooking, chamberwork, cutting, fitting and making their own dresses, under the instruction of experienced teachers—in a word, to become worthy companions in a true Christian household. The buildings here are not pretentious, but well suited to their purpose and are worth about $30,000.

Then we have the mixed day school at Charleston, S. C., called Wallingford Academy, with its 650 pupils; the Brainard Institute at Chester, S. C., with its 278 pupils; the Fairfield Institute at Winnsboro, S. C., with its 350 pupils, many of whom are professing Christians, and some 25 of whom are studying for the ministry; and the school at Franklinton, N. C., with its 366 pupils, all of which are doing a noble work for both sexes.

In all of these schools the pupils are trained to habits of industry, some in the mechanical arts, others in practical and scientific farming, gardening, etc., and others still in both the theory and practice of teaching, while all are soundly indoctrinated and taught in the great principles of our holy religion.

As a result of this training, I am sure it will be interesting to this Assembly to know, that the principals at the head of the public schools, both in Charlotte and Columbia, are graduates of Biddle University.

Then, besides these older schools, we have those just commenced at the newer stations. As for example, the one at Baxter Springs, Kansas, and others in the Indian Territory, for the former slaves among the Choctaws and Creek nations, all of which are doing well, and promising, at no distant day, good results.

Your Committee has been wonderfully impressed with the magnitude of this work, the variety of the interests involved, the manifest difficulty in their practical adjustment, and the amount of self-sacrificing zeal and energy necessary in order to carry it forward. We are guilty of no exaggeration when we tell you that there is, at this moment, not less than a quarter of a million worth of property now under the care of this Board, and you can imagine the amount of thought and effort required in locating these schools, building these houses, selecting the material to be educated, to determine the character of the education required, and then the best use to be made of this material when the training process is over. The work is simply colossal in its proportions, and the magnitude of the interests involved will only be known when the last day shall reveal them.

In view of the magnitude of the financial interests thus involved, we would have this Assembly recommend the Board, now that it is incorporated, to be exceedingly careful to secure these valuable properties to the Presbyterian Church, under good and sufficient guarantee titles, and commend the existing habit of keeping its buildings fully insured.

Your Committee would also recommend the adoption of the following Resolutions, viz.:

1. We do most heartily approve and commend the fidelity, wisdom and self-sacrificing zeal, with which this Board has looked after and cared for the complicated details of the work committed to its care, and bless God for the richness of the results already gathered.

2. That we recommend this Board to push on its work, as far and as fast as the means placed at its disposal will allow, especially in the State of Mississippi, where the need is so pressing, and from which the cry for help is so importunate.

3. We do most earnestly commend this cause, not only to all our churches, contributing and non-contributing, but to all the friends of this down-trodden race, and suggest, whether our Christian women, without multiplying their organizations, could not do much, very much, for the 3,000,000 of their less fortunate sisters, in the way of providing for their education through the endowment of scholarships, supporting teachers, etc., especially when they remember how hard they are trying to meet our expectations as Christian mothers and American citizens.

The following additional Resolution was adopted:

Whereas, There are one million and a half of colored children, most of whom are not provided with religious instruction, therefore:

Resolved, That it be recommended to the sabbath-schools of our churches to take up the work among the Freedmen, and that they be urged to contribute liberally to this cause.

In response to communications from the Rev. Drs. Nelson and Mitchell, and Elder George H. Shields, the delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, it was Resolved, That this General Assembly hereby determines to continue correspondence with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States by Delegates, and that this Resolution be telegraphed to that Assembly.

The Special Committee on the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures on the Book of Discipline, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Answers and Overtures of the Presbyteries on the Overture of the last Assembly proposing for adoption the Revised Book of Discipline, and the Revision of Chap. X of the Directory for Worship, unanimously and respectfully report:

There are in connection with this Assembly 189 Presbyteries, of which number the least majority is 95.

Your Committee have had placed in their hands the attested Answers of 167 Presbyteries, of which 131 are affirmative and 36 negative.

Albany, Allegheny, Baltimore, Buffalo, Butler, Carlisle, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Chester, Cincinnati, Clarion, Dubuque, Fort Wayne, Genesee, Genesee Valley, Hastings, Hudson, Huntingdon, Kittanning, Lehigh, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Nebraska City, Newton, New York, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Redstone, St. Lawrence, Steubenville, Transylvania, Utica, Wellsboro', Westminster, West Virginia—Total 36.

Of the 131 affirmative Answers, 100 are without exception, being a majority of the whole number of possible Presbyterial votes. The Presbyteries so voting are as follows:

Aberdeen, Alton, Austin, Benicia, Binghamton, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boston, Boulder, Brooklyn, Cairo, Champlain, Chemung, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, East Florida, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fort Dodge, Freeport, Geneva, Gunnison, Grand Rapids, Highland, Holston, Huron, Idaho, Indianapolis, Indian Territory, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Kingston, Lake Superior, Larned, Lima, Logansport, Lyons, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Monmouth, Monroe, Montana, Muncie, Nassau, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Omaha, Oregon, Osage, Osborne, Otsego, Ozark, Palmyra, Pembina, Philadelphia Central, Platte, Pueblo, Red River, Rochester, Saginaw, St. Paul, San José, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Solomon, Springfield, Steuben, Topeka, Troy, Union, Utah, Vincennes, Washington, Whitewater, Wisconsin River, Winona, Wood River, Yadkin, Zanesville—Total 100.

Athens, Atlantic, Bellefontaine, Central Dakota, Iowa, Iowa City, Lackawanna, Lansing, Mahoning, Milwaukee, Morris and Orange, New Castle, Niagara, Ottawa, Peoria, Philadelphia, Portsmouth, Puget Sound, Rock River, St. Clairsville, San Francisco, St. Louis, Shenango, Southern Dakota, Syracuse, Washington City, Waterloo, Westchester, West Jersey, Winnebago, Wooster—Total 31.

Section 48 by three Presbyteries.

Section 18 by four Presbyteries.

Section 5 by five Presbyteries.

Section 65 by sixteen Presbyteries.

Section 26 by twenty-seven Presbyteries.

It will be perceived that the greatest number of exceptions is of Section 26, namely, twenty-seven, which substracted from the whole number of affirmative votes, 131, leaves the whole number of Presbyteries voting for that Section, 104. Your Committee accordingly report that the entire Revised Book of Discipline, with the Revision of Chapter X of the Directory for Worship, have been adopted by a constitutional majority of the Presbyteries.

Your Committee further report that almost the entire opposition manifested by the returns has been to Sections 26 and 65. The former of these has been excepted by twenty-seven Presbyteries voting affirmatively, and the latter by sixteen. In addition to these exceptions, six of the Presbyteries that voted affirmatively for the adoption of the Book without exception, have recommended by Overture, in reference to each of these Sections, that should the entire Book be adopted the Assembly should take measures to secure its amendment.

The Presbyteries so recommending in reference to both Sections 26 and 65, are Chillicothe, Ebenezer, Indianapolis, Monmouth, four in all; and additional in reference to Section 26, Alton and Chippewa; and in reference to Section 65, Erie and Rochester; six in reference to each.

It should be noted that even had these Presbyteries excepted the Sections mentioned, there would still have been a majority in favor of the entire Book, even Section 26 being adopted by ninety-eight Presbyteries. But at the same time their expressed wish should be respected.

And still further: of the thirty-six Presbyteries returning a negative answer to the Overture, fifteen declare that their sole or chief objections are to the Sections indicated, one or both, and express their satisfaction, in the main, with the Revision.

The Presbyteries so declaring in reference to both Sections 26 and 65, are Allegheny, Carlisle, Cayuga, Genesee, Genesee Valley, Los Angeles, Newton, New York, Redstone, St. Lawrence, Utica, West Virginia; in reference to Section 26, Hudson; in reference to Section 65, Buffalo and Nebraska City. The Stated Clerk of Kittanning reports, without specification, "There was an expression of general approval of the new Book, and the negative was in view of a few features deemed objectionable." It is believed by your Committee, that but for the presence of these Sections in the Revision the Presbyteries just mentioned would have returned affirmative answers; some of them, possibly, making exception to other Sections.

In view of these facts, your Committee deem it to be but right that these Sections should again be submitted, directly and independently, to the judgment of the Church, and they recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the following Overtures be sent down to the Presbyteries, with the direction that they shall vote "Aye" or "No" on each of them, and return their answers to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly on or before the first day of the next meeting of the Assembly.

1. Shall Section 26 of the New Book of Discipline be amended by substituting in its place, Chapter 4, Section 21, of the old Book, the word judicatory being substituted for court, as follows:

No professional counsel shall be permitted to appear and plead in cases of process in any of our ecclesiastical judicatories. But if any accused person feel unable to represent and plead his own cause to advantage, he may request any minister or elder, belonging to the judicatory before which he appears, to prepare and exhibit his cause as he may judge proper. But the minister or elder so engaged, shall not be allowed, after pleading the cause of the accused, to sit in judgment as a member of the judicatory?

2. Shall Section 65 of the new Book of Discipline be omitted?

The Committee further add their own opinion that the Overtures, if adopted, would in no respect disturb the harmony of the provisions of the Book.

Your Committee further recommend that in view of the terms of the Overture of the last Assembly to the Presbyteries, encouraging those voting in the affirmative by Overture to recommend a further revision of the same, and in view also of the expediency and desirableness that, at the inauguration of our Revised system, so far as possible every section excepted by at least three Presbyteries, should be submitted to the direct and independent vote of all, an Overture be prepared, submitting to the independent vote of the Presbyteries each amendment excepted by at least three Presbyteries, which does not disturb the general harmony of the provisions.

In case of the approval of the last recommendation of their Report the Committee would report that in addition to Sections 26 and 65, Sections 5, 18 and 48 would come under the rule established. (The amendment of Section 18, it should be remarked, would require a slight modification of Section 46.)

In such case they would recommend the adoption of the following, in which the Overtures recommended under the former Resolution are, for the sake of unity, embodied:

Resolved, That the following Overtures, the adoption of which will not disturb the general harmony of the Book, be sent down to the Presbyteries with the direction that they shall vote "Aye" or "No" on each of them independently, and return their answers to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, on or before the first day of the next meeting of the Assembly.

1. Shall Section 5 of the new Book of Discipline be amended by substituting in its place the following, viz.:

All children born within the pale of the visible Church are members of the Church, are to be baptized, are under the care of the Church, and subject to its government and discipline, and when they have arrived at years of discretion, they are bound to perform all the duties of Church members?

2. Shall Section 18 of the new Book of Discipline be amended by the omission of the words "and acting Ruling Elders," so that the first period then shall read, "original jurisdiction, in relation to ministers, pertains to the Presbytery, in relation to others to the session; and shall Section 46 be amended so as to read: "46. In process by a session against a Ruling Elder or a Deacon, the provisions of this chapter, so far as applicable, shall be observed?"

3. Shall Section 26 of the new Book of Discipline be amended by substituting in its place Chapter 4, Section 21 of the old Book, the word "judicatory" being substituted for "court," as follows:

26. No professional counsel shall be permitted to appear and plead in cases of process in any of our ecclesiastical judicatories. But if any accused person feel unable to represent and plead his own cause to advantage, he may request any minister or elder, belonging to the judicatory before which he appears, to prepare and exhibit his cause as he may judge proper. But the minister or elder so engaged, shall not be allowed, after pleading the cause of the accused, to sit in judgment as a member of the judicatory.

4. Shall Section 48 of the new Book of Discipline be omitted?

5. Shall Section 65 of the new Book of Discipline be omitted?

And your Committee further recommend that, in case of the adoption of the preceding resolution, or any part thereof, the Board of Publication be directed not to incorporate the new Book of Discipline with any volume containing the entire Constitution, but to publish a pamphlet edition thereof sufficient for present use; and that the said Board be directed to publish in connection with such pamphlet edition a copy of the preceding Resolution, together with the Overtures; and that the said Board be also directed to send gratuitously by mail two copies of said pamphlet to every pastor and stated supply upon the roll of ministers, and one copy to every unemployed minister and vacant church. And it is also recommended that it be enjoined upon every pastor and stated supply, upon the reception of the two copies indicated, to lay one of them before his session.

And they also recommend, that it be recommended to the next Assembly, in case either Sections 48 or 65 should be omitted, or both, to order a corresponding change in the numeration of the sections following:

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee.

The Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline, asked that the Committee, having performed the task assigned it, be now discharged. The request was granted with the unanimous thanks of the Assembly.

The Moderator then made a formal declaration that the Revised Book of Discipline, with the Revision of Chap. X of the Form of Government had been adopted, and were now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

The following Overture was directed to be sent down to the Presbyteries for their action:

Shall Section 84 of the Book of Discipline be amended, by striking out the words "or by any other reputable person, or persons," so as to read, "A complaint is a written representation, made to the next superior judicatory by one or more persons, subject, and submitting to the jurisdiction of the judicatory complained of, respecting any delinquency, or any decision, by an inferior judicatory."

The Standing Committee on Correspondence reported that the credentials of the Rev. Joseph B. Stratton, D.D., a Delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to this General Assembly, had been put in their hands and found in order.

The Committee recommended that the first order for Thursday morning next, be the reception of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies, and that the time of considering the subject of Education be made half past ten o'clock, instead of ten o'clock. Also, that the letter of fraternal greeting, from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the United States, be read at that time, in connection with the hearing of the Delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

The recommendations of the Committee were adopted.

Resolved, That this Assembly has learned, with sorrow, of the death of the Hon. Cyrus H. McCormick, and recognizes the loss which the Church has sustained, in the departure of so devoted and munificent a friend of Christian and Theological education, of missions, and of every good work.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported:

Overtures 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, from the Presbyteries of Steubenville, Huntingdon, Baltimore, Kittanning and Clarion, asking the General Assembly to take action with reference to criticisms, in the press, and otherwise, upon the action of Church judicatories, while cases are in process of trial. The Committee recommends the following answer:

That the General Assembly, while appreciating the embarrassment to the Courts of the Church, arising from such criticism, and deprecating the same on the part of both ministers and people, as tending to disturb the peace and unity of the Church, respectfully refers the Presbyteries, as to their rights and immunities, to No. 38 of the General Rules for Judicatories, giving all judicatories the right to sit in private; and as to offences against the harmony and unity of the Church, to the powers given in the Book of Discipline, for the removal of offenses.

Overture No. 8, from the Presbytery of Otsego, in respect to intercollegiate contests in athletic sports. The Committee recommend the following answer:

While the Assembly recognizes the value of athletic exercises, where judiciously practiced, and deprecates the evils resulting from their abuse, and the excessive rivalry between the students of different colleges and universities, it regards the practical regulation of such exercises, as properly belonging to the authorities of our Literary Institutions, and to the parents and guardians of the students therein.

The recommendations of the Committee were adopted.

The Committee on Elections reported, recommending the enrollment of the Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; and of the Rev. George A. Howard, D.D., of the Presbytery of Columbia. The report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Finance reported as follows:

Resolved, That the office of Treasurer of the General Assembly, as a separate office, be discontinued, and the duties thereof imposed upon the Stated Clerk, who shall receive therefor the additional sum of one hundred dollars per annum, and who shall give bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be signed by himself, and two sureties to be approved by the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the action of this Assembly, in abolishing the office of Treasurer, in no way reflects upon the ability and integrity, or Christian character, of the Rev. Mr. Torrence, the late Treasurer, but is taken only to simplify the current financial transactions of the year, and this Assembly hereby declares its confidence in, and respect for, Mr. Torrence.

The report was adopted.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, submitted the following report, which was adopted.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance would call the attention of the churches and people, connected with this Assembly, to the full and explicit, and emphatic action of the Assembly of 1882, sitting at Springfield, Ill., and would recommend the following Resolutions for your adoption.

1. Resolved, That the Assembly affectionately admonishes all our people, to bear in mind, that God has, by positive, moral and perpetual law, designated one day in seven, as sacred time, that He

"hallowed" the Sabbath, "sanctified it," and set it apart from common to sacred purposes. Hence, to use it, or any part of it for things inconsistent with its sanctity, is sinful.

2. Resolved, That we urge upon all our churches, to guard against real violation of the Fourth Commandment, and to aid in disseminating sound views of the sacredness of the Sabbath, among our youth, and among the populations coming to our shores.

3. Resolved, That we urge it upon our ministers, in the pulpit, and in their pastoral labors, to present this subject in season, in all its serious importance, as related to the welfare of the whole people, and the glory of God.

4. Resolved, That, inasmuch as prominent among the forms of Sabbath desecration prevalent in our times, are those to which many railroad and steamboat companies, and publishers of Sunday newspapers are addicted; the Assembly earnestly counsel all our people, not to be, as owners, managers or employés of such companies, or as shippers, or passengers on the Sabbath, or as publishers, patrons, or writers for Sunday newspapers, partakers in the guilt of these flagrant forms of Sabbath breaking.

The following additional Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That we disapprove of the habit of taking mail matter from the Post-Office on the Sabbath.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was accepted. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. William C. Roberts, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, and by others. The Report was adopted and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions respectfully report, that they have carefully examined and considered the Fourteenth Annual Report of the Board, which, as a gratifying and stimulating exhibit of evangelical work, they commend in all its details to the study of our churches, and that they now call the particular attention of the Assembly to the following points which they deem of special importance at the present juncture.

First of all, humble and hearty praise should be rendered to the Great Head of the Church for peculiar manifestations of His Divine favor during the year. The officers and, with one notable exception, the members of the Board, have been spared to carry on their noble work on behalf of God and man. We are called upon to lament the death of George W. Lane, who, after nearly twenty years of wise and faithful work as an esteemed member of the Board, has suddenly been summoned to leave his post and be reported for promotion to the King.

Thirteen devoted missionaries have also been given their final reward. They rest from their labors, and their works do follow them. Servants of God and the Church, they, like their fellows who remain, lived generous and self-sacrificing lives, which deserve our appreciation and emulation. We reverently thank our heavenly Father for their disinterested work, and we earnestly invoke the outpouring of the Holy Ghost upon the whole Church, that we may all awaken to the needs and merits of the great army of missionary workers whom they left behind them on the battle-field, and that these living soldiers of the Cross may be far more adequately honored and sustained in their self-denying service.

Another cause for special gratitude is found in the conspicuous increase of liberality throughout the Church. The income of the Board amounted to the grand total of $620,428.22, an increase of $115,633 over the receipts of last year, and an advance of $229,743 beyond the amount received five years ago. At the beginning of the year, there was a debt of $45,000, which had increased by the first of February to the alarming sum of $190,000. At that point, the humiliating cry of retrenchment had to be raised, and this led inevitably to discouragement among the workers, and to some inevitable curtailment of the work. But at the end of the year there remained a debt of only $12,000. The necessity for announcing any such backward movement is always injurious. Even where the danger is subsequently removed, as in this case, the onward movement is somewhat arrested on the field, and the response to subsequent appeals of the Board on the part of contributing churches is likely to be somewhat less prompt and cheerful. The money eventually paid into the treasury of the Board, however, is most encouraging, not only in view of its unprecedented amount, but because it indicates so large an increase of gifts from living contributors. The sum received from legacies was $152,000, $49,000 more than the preceding year, and $100,000 more than the average amount received from bequests during the five years last past. Just this sum, $100,000, was received from the estate of the late Edwin D. Morgan, whose executors considerately paid over the bequest several months before the time required by law, in order to relieve the embarrassment of the Board. But it should move our hearts to special thankfulness that the gifts from the living amounted to $80,000 more than they were last year; and to the praise of Christian women let it be known, that nearly one-half of this advance came from their societies.

On account of this enlargement in the receipts, the work itself has been greatly enlarged and the percentage of expense reduced. The cost of administration has been about four per cent of receipts. 1458 missionaries are now in the service of the Board, an increase of 71 during the year; 135 churches were organized; 2065 adults and 3958 infants were baptized; 6216 communicants received on profession of faith, and 6566 by certificate, making the total membership 71,333; 339 sunday-schools were organized, making the entire number of sunday-schools under the care of missionaries of this Board, 1825, with a membership of 121,742; 131 churches were erected; 44 churches became self-supporting; church debts were cancelled to the aggregate amount of $141,519, raising the value of property belonging to the home missionary congregations to about $4,000,000,—the splendid fruitage of many toils and tears, prayers and self-denials. For all these abundant favors let us call upon our souls to magnify and bless the holy name of the Lord.

But at the same time we must remember that the favors of the past bind us fast to the obligations of the future. Grace must be met by duty. We may take no step backward. We dare not neglect the urgent needs of the growing work. The rustle of the white fields calls on every breeze day and night for the sickles of new hosts of harvesters.

How much owest thou unto my Lord? Can not we, who are alive, without depending upon extraordinary gifts from the dead, increase the income of the Board by 5 per cent? Then must $650,000 be raised. In view of the prevailing financial depression, the impending political excitements, the probable diminution in legacies to be received, this may seem a very large sum to raise; and the fact must fairly be faced that, to secure any absolute advance over the gifts of last year, churches and individuals will in all likelihood be required to increase their contributions from one-fifth to one-fourth. But it is a question of consecration to the Crucified Redeemer and to dying souls! It is a question of patriotism, and of fidelity to our historic Church! Shall these supreme motives challenge us in vain?

What we do ought to be done quickly. The population of our newer States and of our Territories continues to increase with astonishing rapidity. It must be rapidly assimilated if our land is to be held for Christ. Taken in connection with our blessed national policy of peace and liberty, with the exhaustless material resources of our still new country, and with the prevalence in some sections of superficial education, this unique fusion of races and beliefs in our population, demands all the resources of all the Christian teachers and preachers that we can maintain. The general tendencies towards materialism can be met and mastered only by the religion of Jesus Christ, the great Teacher.

This seems apparent in every special quarter that may be examined.

1. It is preëminently true of our large cities. Agricultural nation, though we may be, the tide of migration sets strongly towards the populous centres. It is probably true that one-fifth of our inhabitants now reside in towns and cities. This tide is chiefly made up of young men, strong, eager, active, who are to be the human masters of State and Church within twenty years. Amidst the strong temptations of city life, very many of the young men lapse into carelessness, if not into infidelity or immorality. We are bound to follow them with the Gospel of Him who is immortal as a man at the age of three and thirty. Holding these views, your Committee observe, with much gladness, that the Board is alive to this new necessity. In Portland, Oregon, where three years ago there was only one Presbyterian church, there are now five, with two more in prospect, and two of the five are self-supporting. In Kansas City, on both sides of the state river, there are six strong new mission churches; in Omaha, there are three, and if the necessary money were forthcoming, there would be two more. In Minneapolis, there are six, four of which were organized within the last three months. These are examples both of our unprecedented opportunities, and of our Board's alertness and fidelity in seizing them according to the measure of ability which the churches give it.

2. Similarly, a wide open door greets this Assembly from the South. The Presbyterian Church has never given up its national character. Her efforts are neither quickened nor retarded by the points of the compass. Opportunity is the measure of her duty, and the spur which prompts her to preach the Gospel wherever men will hear. Northward there comes to us a Macedonian cry. The small proportion of Presbyterian churches in the South, the large proportion of vacant churches in our sister Assembly, show us the great work to be done, and remind us that if it is to be done at all in the present generation, we must go down and help our brethren. In one Synod of 191 churches, for example, there are fifty-five vacancies, and out of some 400,000 church members within the bounds of one Synod, the Southern Church has 669. Since they are fired with the same kind of zeal for Christ that actuates us, the fact that they are not doing all the work demanded, shows that they cannot do it alone. Notwithstanding apparent difficulties, we ought to share with them this vast responsibility. Moreover, the multiplying fraternal deliverances of their Presbyteries, together with the fact that the majority of our adherents in that section are of Southern birth, and the fact that some of their most worthy ministers seek employment in our Presbyteries, establish a special claim on our cooperation in their great work. Besides, there are large numbers of our own Church drifting into the South. Shall they be lost to us?

But more urgent still is the little recognized fact that people out of every nation are rapidly emigrating thither. Whole counties are settled by Germans. There are large colonies of English, Welsh and Scotch Protestants, and communities composed of French, Italian and Mexican Roman Catholics. If we do not reach them with Christ's Gospel, then not to speak of the loss of foreign Presbyterians, we will be overrun with rationalism and Romanism. We therefore recommend that, following the new impetus recently given to the work in the South, it still be further pushed there as elsewhere, and all the more because that ripe field has been so much neglected by us in the past.

3. An urgent call reaches us just now from the old East. If ever our Presbyterian denomination had good reasons for discountenancing any special effort to establish churches in New England, these in our judgment are now no longer in force. There is not only open to us a great opportunity, but, others being judges as well as ourselves, there is also laid upon us a necessity which we cannot longer overlook, if we would obey the commission of Jesus Christ. A great change has taken place in the population, particularly through the cities, of New England, during the past thirty years. In nearly all the larger places, Presbyterians can be counted by the thousand, who are constantly coming from Scotland, Ireland and the Provinces of British America, as well as from sister States of the Union. As things now are, they find, with rare exceptions, that they must seek a Church home in some other denomination, or, as is too often the case, cease attending Church altogether.

We submit that this matter has an indirect but important bearing on the whole country. To our knowledge, hundreds of young men in one line of business alone, who first settled as immigrants for a few years in Boston and other Northeastern cities, are to-day eminently successful business men in almost every other city of the country. If our Church fails to welcome such as these when they arrive in a humble condition, how can we expect to see them, when prosperous, caring for our Church or for Christ?

We would not seek to antagonize sister denominations already on the field, but only to aid them by taking care of those who naturally belong to us, and by opening a suitable door to others who may prefer our settled orthodox Creed and Form of Government; especially in these times of sad departures, in some quarters, from the good old ways.

This important work can hardly be accomplished, without involving considerable cost in money, and obtaining able and consecrated men; but with faith in God and by His blessing upon the use of wise means, it is likely to be made manifest at no very distant day that this oldest settled part of our country, although now needing the assistance of our Boards, will become a power in our Church, and will regard it as a privilege to vie with other Presbyterian centres in sending the Gospel to others. We therefore heartily commend the efforts now making by our Board of Home Missions to secure a suitable missionary to supervise the field, believing that great good will result from the service of one specially adapted to the work.

4. Your Committee note with satisfaction that the Board is still intent upon using special efforts in behalf of the Germans. Pouring into our country as they are by tens of thousands, they are certain to exercise a vast influence over its future. They are industrious and frugal, and generally law-abiding citizens. They appear naturally to favor both our republican forms of national government and the ecclesiastical polity of our Presbyterian Church. Many of them would prefer our Church to any other. It is consequently incumbent upon us to use our great influence with them both in correcting their antagonism to our American Sabbath, and in displacing their forms of infidelity, by the simple faith and faithfulness of the Gospel. The Board testifies to the favor with which this people hear Gospel preaching and to the ease with which sabbath-schools and congregations may be gathered among them. Besides their poverty and their ignorance of the grace of giving, the great obstacle is the scarcity of German preachers. We need to educate ministers for them in our own country. Therefore, in the interest of Home Mission work, we wish urgently to indorse the excellent institutions for German-speaking students at Bloomfield, New Jersey, and at Dubuque, Iowa. They need both money and students. Let pastors, churches and individual Christians cordially respond to the appeals which are made for these most needful and useful seminaries.

5. Again would we call attention to the pressing demands made in the name of Christ by the exceptional populations among us, the Mormons, the Spanish-speaking Mexicans, and the Indians who are committed to this Board. In this connection your Committee would record their profound sense of the earnest, faithful and efficient service of the women of the Church during the past year through their Home Missionary Societies, and their gratification with the valuable results that have been obtained through their labors. The total number of Societies in existence at the end of the year closing March 31st, 1884, was 1435 so far as then reported. The total value of contributions made by these Societies, in cash and boxes of clothing, etc., was $149,388.05. Of this amount there was paid in cash into the treasury of the Board of Home Missions, including gifts from sunday-schools, the sum of $101,000. The estimated value of contributions of clothing, etc., forwarded to the families of home missionaries is $30,471.16, and to missionary-schools $9762.42. The number of these schools now in operation among the Indians, Mexicans and Mormons is 71, and the number of missionary-teachers employed and sustained during the year is 144.

The Committee notes with much satisfaction the evidence furnished in the Report of the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions, which has been submitted to us, of an increasing interest upon the subject of Home Missions among the women of the Church, and particularly in respect to that department of it so largely committed to their charge. New societies have been organized, zeal has been quickened, faith has been enlarged, and contributions to the good work have been increased.

The Committee gratefully and heartily commend the women of the Church who have been so earnestly engaged in this labor of love, and express the hope that the indications presented, that it will still be carried on with increasing interest and faithfulness, may, by the blessing of God, be abundantly fulfilled.

(1) The work among the Mormons is making headway. Recent failures in the attempts to cure this disease in the body politic, serve to emphasize the conviction that the only sure remedy is found in the panacea of the Gospel of Christ. The ladies, like their sister missionaries in the Zenanas of India are accomplishing a great work.

These 65 missionary teachers, working with those of four other evangelical denominations, are helping to disintegrate the vicious system. Relatively, however, the work is only just begun. Out of 46,000 children under 8 years of age, in Utah, only about 6000 are under Christian influence. Of these our own Church has 2000. New fields are there inviting us. Old fields are training Christian teachers and candidates for the ministry. Five such teachers and four such candidates, all converted Mormons, are already well advanced in their preparation. The Collegiate Institute at Salt Lake City is doing excellent work. But at least two academies are needed to prepare pupils for our own colleges and to prevent pupils of our primary schools from graduating into Mormon institutions. Eight ministers and 20 teachers are required at once to fill vacancies and to take new fields. May God graciously move His people to hasten on this great work of healing the open sore of America.

(2) The Spanish-speaking people in New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Texas, and California, constitute a most important mission field. As a mass they are ignorant and debased, but they are accessible to Christian influence through personal preaching, with Bible and tracts, and above all in school work. As they are American citizens, the welfare of the republic demands that the coming generation be educated and Christianized. There are indications of awakening among them more marked now than ever before, and similar to the awakening in Old Mexico. They are breaking loose from priestly control and are beginning to appreciate not only the advantages of education, but to some extent the power of the simple Gospel. The work among them is yet in its beginning, but it has been so marked in its effect wherever it has been fairly in operation, that it calls for an expression of gratitude for the past and present, and zealous endeavor for the future. To prepare the way for the organization of churches and the regular work of the ministry, the teacher and Bible reader should in all cases accompany, if not precede, the preacher of the Word.

The work undertaken among the Indians of Oregon, Washington Territory and Alaska, is in a generally promising condition. That in the Indian Territory needs especially to be prosecuted with prompt vigor. Besides 10,000 negroes, mostly citizens of the tribes, there are over 75,000 Indians in that Territory, many of whom are civilized and Christianized. The Cherokees, Creeks, and Choctaws, in particular, are calling for men "like the old missionaries," and for schools "like the old mission schools." The few churches which we now have among them have been blessed during the past year with the presence of the Holy Spirit. Even among the wild tribes, which have no missionaries, there are scattered persons who have been educated at Carlisle and elsewhere, some of whom are members of the Presbyterian Church. They are like sheep among wolves, with no shepherd to care for them.

continually increasing. They come as miners, herdmen, mechanics, licensed traders, and renters of land. Legally prohibited from settling there, they still persist in coming, and their influence over the Indians is sometimes of the most deleterious character. The white people cannot send their children to the Indian schools, and these grow up in ignorance and irreligion. Frequently they intermarry with Indians or half-breeds that they may obtain a legal status, and be regarded as becoming a permanent portion of the population. All these various elements are now rapidly crystallizing into a fixed form, and what we do for the Indians must be done at once. The indications of Providence seem remarkably plain and clear, that our Church ought at once to greatly increase its force of missionaries and schools. Let not the despairing wail of the Indians reach the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth, in continued testimony against our injurious treatment of them.

The increased amount of the contributions to the Sustentation Department over that given last year, indicates that the scheme has a strong hold on the hearts of the people; and in the class of churches for which it was originally designed, namely, those situated in the midst of a growing population, its operation has been attended with gratifying results. But many, if not most, of the needy churches in the older and stronger Synods, are suffering from a slow process of depletion through emigration from their bounds. In such fields, and in those of very slow growth in population, the requirements of the Sustentation Department are found, after years of trial, too rigid to be complied with.

Instead of increasing in numbers so as to be able to reach and maintain the requisite rate of support per member, these churches are gradually diminishing through force of circumstances, or in other cases, advancing so slightly as to fail to come under the provisions of the scheme.

In view of these facts, and the difficulty of devising any scheme of sufficient flexibility to meet the diversities of so wide a field as that of the whole Church, we are constrained to favor the adoption of such plans of synodical sustentation as may be found expedient and suitable to the condition of weak churches within the limits of the Synods referred to. If any plan introduced should prove deficient, it might be modified; and thus, after a few trials and modifications, we are of opinion that the best method of operation would be ascertained, if not at once, at least in due time.

The Committee most heartily commend all such attempts of Synods to solve the problem, provided their plans are so carefully guarded as not to trench on the contributions which should go into the regular channels of the Board.

The two Overtures referred to your Committee, both petitioning the General Assembly to amend the Constitution of the Board of Home Missions so that, on the recommendation of the Presbyteries, it should be lawful for the Board to appropriate funds for the support of unlicensed evangelists to labor in unsupplied fields within our mission territory among our exceptional populations, have been carefully considered, and your Committee recommends, that in view of the flexibility already guaranteed by the policy of the Board, no action is required on the matter referred to in these Overtures.

Finally, your Committee makes the further recommendations following, for adoption by the Assembly.

1. We return devout and most joyful thanksgiving to the Lord Jesus Christ for a year of unprecedented success in the great work of evangelizing our own country; and, in His name, we heartily commend and indorse the rare courage and energy, the devoted care and fidelity of our Board of Home Missions, its officers and those in its service.

2. The eager desire to take no step backward, and the growing urgency of the great work, alike demand from our Church, during the ensuing year, an outlay of $650,000, and we pledge ourselves, and earnestly call upon all our brethren, to do our utmost towards paying this amount into the treasury of the Board.

3. We cordially indorse the excellent work of the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions, and earnestly recommend that Presbyteries and Synods, which have not already appointed committees of women for Home Missionary work, appoint such committees at their next meeting; and we urge upon all Christian women in our churches the privilege of coöperating with this blessed work.

4. Gladly recognizing the skillful management which has so soon secured to The Presbyterian Home Missionary a circulation of 28,000 copies, and so certainly rendered it necessary to every one that would have an intelligent comprehension of our Home Mission work, we believe that it can now be made self-supporting. Accordingly, the Board is instructed to advance the minimum subscription price of The Presbyterian Home Missionary to fifty cents per annum.

5. We recommend the appointment of Theodore W. Dwight, LL.D., as a member of the Board, to fill the unexpired term of the lamented George W. Lane; and we recommend the reappointment, for the term of three years, of the members of the Board whose term of office expires with this Assembly, viz.:

Ministers: Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D. and Wilson Phraner, D.D.

Laymen: Robert Lenox Kennedy, John Taylor Johnston and John E. Parsons.

The Assembly adjourned and closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 20th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Report of the Committee on Judicial Commissions was made the order of the day for 4.30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported the following answer to an invitation to the Assembly to attend the unveiling of the statue of Luther.

GEO. P. HAYS, Moderator.

Also, that the Rev. Cornelius Brett is present, as a duly accredited Delegate to represent the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, in this Assembly.

The Report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, presented its report, which was accepted. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. Hervey D. Ganse, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies respectfully presents to the General Assembly the following report:

This youngest of all the Boards of the Church appears for the first time before this venerable body to render an account of its stewardship during the past ecclesiastical year. The Church at large has watched with deepest interest the organization and the incipient labors of this new and important Board. The General Assembly to-day accords to it a generous and welcome hearing upon this floor.

Of all the subjects engaging the attention of the last Assembly, none seemed to enlist more profound and general interest than that of higher Christian education. The masterly presentation of the whole subject by the able committee having the matter in charge, wherein was set forth its vital importance to our denominational life and prosperity; the imminent perils confronting us in the great and expanding fields of the West; and the imperative need of a special and definite agency to superintend and prosecute the work in the future; these facts, as set forth in that report, commanded the unanimous and hearty approval of the Assembly.

Certainly the subject has lost none of its importance during the year that has since elapsed. It may not come before us now, arousing our enthusiasm to the extent that it did twelve months ago, but its profound and vital importance is none the less appreciated by every thoughtful person who devotes to it even a partial study.

No man at all conversant with the vast and illimitable field lying in the Southwest, can question for one moment the urgency of the call now made upon the Church, to enter and occupy that inviting field with every form of evangelistic agency. Argument is not needed to convince the Presbyterian Church, that along the line of effort in higher Christian education there is the largest and most hopeful outlook. New, but rapidly growing communities, now in their formative and plastic stage, offer to us the most cogent appeal to do our part in shaping their character and destiny for all future time. The simple question is: Are we prepared to respond to these appeals? Will this great and wealthy Church show that now, as in all her past history, she is equal to this new emergency? Will she reinforce each of her other successful agencies, by planting in strategetical points the college and academy to be centres of influence and power? This is the question now submitted to the Presbyterian Church, and upon it we confidently rely for a most favorable decision.

Your Committee have with care and deepest interest considered the able report submitted to this body—The First Annual Report of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies. We heartily congratulate both the Board and this General Assembly upon the favorable exhibit of the work undertaken and accomplished by this new agency.

It will be noticed that the work of perfecting the organization of the Board, for various reasons, was not completed until about the close of the year of 1883.

The Rev. Hervey D. Ganse, D.D., who was chosen to fill the place of the Secretary of the Board, has entered upon the active discharge of his duties, and has continued to prosecute them with his well-known zeal and energy.

In response to the appeals of the new Board, the gifts of the Church began to flow into the treasury, slowly indeed, at first, but in increasing volume, as the people of God became better acquainted with the nature and needs of the work; so that while the receipts on the 1st of January, 1884, amounted to only the small sum of $278.24, by the close of the ecclesiastical year, April 30th, they aggregated the handsome amount of $28,987, of which sum $14,912 came directly to this Board, and $14,074.87 indirectly—but all, according to the purpose and wish of the donors, falling within the scope of this Board's work, and, therefore, properly included within its receipts. These, then, are the actual results of four brief months of labor. They afford us well grounded assurance that the Presbyterian Church has not erred in establishing this new agency; and we are warranted in the hope that, with an entire year of effort now opening before the Board of Aid, largely increased receipts may confidently be anticipated.

We call the special attention of the Assembly to the fact stated in this Report, that almost the entire expense of agency and administration was voluntarily borne by a few generous and devoted friends, mostly resident in Chicago and St. Louis. It followed from this provision, that only a small part of the contributions received from the churches was required to supplement the deficiency in the matter of administration.

It will be observed that by far the largest gifts bestowed by the Board were confined to four institutions, viz.: (a) "Salt Lake Collegiate Institute," located in the very centre of Salt Lake City, Utah; (b) "The College of Emporia," founded two years ago by the Synod of Kansas, and located about the centre of the eastern portion of that important State; (c) "The Presbyterian University of Southern Dakota," founded at Pierre, by the Presbytery of Southern Dakota, in the spring of 1883; and (d) "The College of Montana," belonging to the Presbytery of Montana, and located at Deer Lodge, in that Territory.

To these four institutions the Board has contributed the liberal sum of $9592, thus enabling each and all of them to attain a position of usefulness and promise that otherwise it would have taken long years to reach, if ever reached at all. Remembering that these four institutions are planted in commanding centres of influence, and that their appeals for help were fortified by the heartiest endorsements of their respective Presbyteries or Synods, this Committee is prepared to approve what we consider the wise policy of the Board, in lending the largest assistance at a time when the call seemed so imperative.

It is only to be regretted that a considerable number of other institutions, some of them, too, giving signs of largest usefulness, could not have been aided to the fullest measure of their needs. The hope is cherished that with ampler means at its command in the coming year, the Board may be able to bestow upon these worthy applicants that material aid which shall impart new vigor and efficiency in the face of their trials and discouragements.

Your Committee desire to commend and emphasize the policy of the Board, which requires all communities seeking help in the matter of higher Christian education, to first employ every effort to attain self-support before applying for help. Let the Church at large understand that the settled purpose of this Board is to help only those who first generously help themselves.

We desire further to commend the wise caution shown thus far by this Board in giving its endorsement only to institutions of unquestioned merit, that ask for special fields in which to obtain permanent endowment. Your Committee are assured, that such an endorsement can only be obtained from this Board after the most careful scrutiny, so that the Church at large will be justified in regarding these endorsements as expressing to the fullest extent the mind and wish of this Board.

In the judgment of your Committee, the special attention of individual donors should be directed to that judicious provision in the action of the last Assembly, establishing this Board, by which it is authorized "to assign to those institutions seeking endowment the special fields open to their appeals, that clashing between them may be avoided, and to discourage all independent appeals to the Church at large." If this great work is to be prosecuted systematically, economically, and with the largest measure of success, the individual members of our Church must coöperate in this respect heartily with the Board, and frankly discourage applicants that come to them, not bearing the sanction of regular and constituted authority.

In view of these facts your Committee recommend the adoption by your body of the following Resolutions:

1. That the thanks of this General Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered, to the officers and members of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, for the wisdom, fidelity and zeal with which they have organized and prosecuted the important work confided to their care.

2. That we do anew commend this vast and hopeful work of planting and fostering Christian schools and colleges, as now systematically organized by our Church, to the prayerful sympathies, confidence and generous gifts of all our churches and people.

3. That in order to obtain the highest efficiency and success in the working of this scheme, the General Assembly does hereby discourage all independent appeals made outside the bounds of that Presbytery or Synod in which a particular institution may be located.

4. That churches which have not as yet arranged to take collections for this Board be advised, as far as practicable, to take such collections in the month of February.

5. That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be directed to provide for this Board a statistical column in the Annual Minutes.

6. Two memorials on the matter of furnishing aid to female colleges having been referred to this Committee, we offer for adoption the following Resolution:

That it is desirable to make appropriations to institutions intended exclusively for the education of women, so far as may be consistent with the general necessities of the Board's work.

7. That it be recommended to the Board of Aid, to carefully consider the propriety of so securing all moneys given from its treasury or under its commendation to increase the property of an institution, that in the event of the institution's dissolution, the funds so given shall revert to the treasury of the Board.

8. The terms of office of the following members of this Board having expired, we respectfully present their names for re-election:

Ministers—John Hall, D.D., William P. Breed, D.D., S. J. Nicolls, D.D., J. H. Worcester, Jr.; Laymen—Henry W. Johnson, John S. McDonald, William O. Hughart, Dexter A. Knowlton.

The name of Elder Joseph H. Knight, of the Presbytery of Troy, was added to the roll, on the recommendation of the Committee on Elections.

The following letter was laid before the Assembly, read and ordered to be spread upon the minutes, and referred to the Committee on Correspondence for an answer:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at Saratoga Springs, New York, May, 1884:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:

2. That the Secretary of this Conference be, and is hereby instructed to furnish your honorable body with a copy of these Resolutions.

With great pleasure I forward to your honorable body, a copy of the same.

Overture, No. 1, from the Presbytery of Dayton, with reference to the growth of unsound views concerning the Sacred Scriptures, the Atonement and the Future State.

In view of the clear teaching of our standards upon these subjects (See Confession of Faith, Chaps. 1, 8, 32 and 36), and the abundant powers of the judicatories of the Church, with regard to offenses, your Committee deem it unnecessary to take further action.

Overture No. 2. From the Presbytery of Washington City, asking the Assembly to define the relative duties and authorities of the Freedmen's Board and the Presbyteries, in relation to the Freedmen churches under their care.

Your Committee recommend: That all operations of the Board, within the bounds of any Presbytery, should be originated and conducted with due recognition of the Presbytery and its agencies, according to the following specifications:

1. While appropriations of aid to churches are to be made on the recommendation of Presbyteries, the Assembly regards the Board as having the right to refuse or modify such appropriations; but in every case of refusal or modification, the Board shall promptly present to the Presbytery a written statement of the reasons for so doing.

2. In questions touching the organization of churches, or the character of ministers, the Board, in case of differences between the Presbytery and itself, should abide by the final judgment of the Presbytery.

3. In the establishment and maintenance of schools, the Board should carefully consider the recommendations of the Presbytery; but should act finally on its own judgment.

The recommendations of the Committee were adopted.

The Committee on Ministerial Relief, reported—

Overture No. 1. From the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Central, asking the Assembly to alter and amend Rule 1 of the "Rules of the Board of Ministerial Relief," to read as follows:

All appropriations must be made on the recommendation of that Presbytery, or its Committee on Ministerial Relief, to which the applicant, if a minister, belongs, and so long as received, be charged to the credit of said Presbytery; if the widow, or children of a deceased minister, on the recommendation of that Presbytery, or its Standing Committee, of which the minister was a member at the time of his death, and so long as received, continue credited to said Presbytery. Only members of Presbyteries, in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the families of those who were at their death in such connection, are entitled to aid.

The Committee recommend that the Overture be referred to the Board with authority so to amend the Rule, if in its judgment the change is desirable.

A Communication from the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions, was referred to the Standing Committees on Freedmen and on Home Missions.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection, made its Report, which was received. The Assembly was then addressed, at the request of Rev. Henry R. Wilson, D.D., Secretary of the Board, by the Rev. John Gillespie, D.D., a member of the Board, and others. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection respectfully submit the following Report:

The Committee, first of all, take pleasure in congratulating the General Assembly, and the entire Church, upon the gratifying progress in every department of the Board's work, which has marked the year just closed.

The receipts, the grants, the number of congregations contributing, and the number aided, have all been larger than in any preceding year in the history of the Board.

The amount of money received from the churches, during the year, exceeded that of the preceding year by $4533; and in the number of contributing congregations there has been a gain of 404.

During the year 3424 congregations remembered their Board, and the sum realized from the offerings of all of them was $53,131.

This comparatively meagre amount, however, was much more than doubled by individual contributions, legacies, sales of churches, grants returned, interest, and from various other sources of income, so that the entire working capital for the year has been $138,285.

The number of churches aided, during the year, is 236, in thirty-seven States and Territories, and under the care of ninety-three Presbyteries. By the helping hand of this beneficent agency, at least so many feeble and widely scattered flocks have been sheltered, and that too without the embarrassment of debt.

In all this we thankfully recognize the gracious spirit of our God, kindling the interest and enlarging the liberality of our people in behalf of this Board, and its important work.

And yet, our congratulations in view of the expanding work of the Board, must be qualified by the somewhat humbling confession, that 2600 of our congregations have, during the last year, sent nothing to this Board.

Many of these delinquent congregations are small, weak and without pastors, that they should be forgetful is not remarkable. But not a few of them are large, wealthy and prosperous, that these should be delinquent is somewhat remarkable. Some of the largest congregations under the care of the Assembly have given nothing, during the past year, to this Board, others next to nothing, and others still far less than might reasonably be expected of them.

The Committee feel called upon to note with regret, that some of our older Presbyteries in wealthy and populous sections of the Church, have, during the year, drawn from the Board more than they have given to it. Some Presbyteries also, it appears, are working, in whole or in large part, upon an independent plan, the plan of each Presbytery doing its own Church Erection work, and turning its contributions, not into the Assembly's Board to be distributed according to the Assembly's plan, but into the treasury of the Presbytery itself, to be used exclusively within the limit of its own field. In the judgment of your Committee, this is a mistake, at once in principle and in policy. It is to ignore the unity of the Church, to disregard the Apostolic injunction that the strong are to bear the burdens of the weak, and practically to discredit the wisdom of the methods approved by successive General Assemblies for many years, and by the general experience of the Church. Surely this cause, if it can get a fair hearing, can vindicate its claims to a place scarcely second in interest and importance to any other that lies near the heart of the Church.

Those who are at all acquainted with the condition of things, in the interior and western portions of our country especially, do not need to be convinced that the grand work being done by our Board of Home Missions, is practically dependent for permanent results on the accompanying or swiftly following work of our Board of Church Erection.

The little flock gathered on the prairie or in the mountain, needs a place of shelter, and needs it at once. The newly organized congregation has ordinarily no guarantee of stability, until the church edifice is provided. Commonly, at the time of greatest need and the heaviest strain, the people are unable to provide for themselves even the plainest sanctuary without encouragement and assistance. The promise of this Board—the promise which it may be said, with pardonable pride, never fails of prompt fulfillment, nerves and braces hundreds of feeble flocks to do what, without that promise, they would not have the heart to undertake. The substantial growth of our beloved Church, on all that magnificent domain towards the Mississippi, and beyond may be measured quite as accurately by the ability of this Board to encourage and aid feeble congregations in securing houses of worship, as by any other criterion.

If the aggressive and rapidly expanding work of our noble Home Mission Board is to be followed up, and if large and enduring results are to be realized from it, it is of prime importance that this Board be vigorously administered and liberally supplied with means.

An Overture regarding Home Mission Manses was by the last General Assembly referred to this Board. The Board, in its Report, while expressing hearty sympathy with the purpose of the Overture, confesses its inability to do much, with its present means, towards furthering that purpose. Your Committee can see but two methods of accomplishing this object. One is, to place manses and church buildings on the same level before the Board, and require the Board to use its funds for both alike, and upon the same terms and conditions. This appears to be entirely impracticable, and for obvious reasons.

The alternative is to call for a separate collection, and create a separate fund, out of which congregations shall be aided in providing manses. This, also, your Committee judge to be, at the present time, inadvisable. We would, moreover, take leave to recommend that in the newer settlements, especially where land is easily obtained by gift and purchase, it would be well for congregations, as far as practicable, to secure suitable ground, on which, in the future, a house for the minister may be erected. We are not without hope, that the day is not remote, when our great Church may be ready to undertake this work also.

The great care taken by the Board in respect of titles and insurance, in order to guard against the alienation or loss of property secured by the benefactions of the Church, cannot be too highly commended.

The same is to be said of the policy of the Board, in declining to make appropriations out of its treasury, to aid in the erection of expensive buildings.

The following recommendations are respectfully submitted:

1. That this Board is entitled to the thanks and commendation of the General Assembly for the diligence, fidelity and sound judgment, which have marked its administration of the trust confided to it.

2. That in view of the great and pressing claims upon this Board —claims far in excess of the means in hand to satisfy them—the General Assembly calls upon the Church for the sum of $200,000 for this year, to be placed in the treasury of this Board.

3. That all Presbyteries and congregations under the care of the General Assembly, be affectionately exhorted to coöperate, heartily and loyally, in the work of this Board, as by the Assembly established, and, after long trial, approved.

4. The term of office of the following members expires at this time: John Hall, D.D., Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., Erskine N. White, D.D., John Gillespie, D.D., Ministers; Stephen H. Thayer, Benjamin F. Dunning, Wm. W. Crane, Elders.

The Committee recommends their re-election.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries made its Report, which was accepted, and, after discussion, adopted.

The General Assembly has under its care, in all, thirteen Theological Seminaries and Schools, viz.: Princeton, Western, Auburn, Union, Lane, Northwest, San Francisco, Blackburn, Danville, German Theological School of Newark, German Theological School of the Northwest, Lincoln and Biddle Theological Departments. We have received full and satisfactory reports from twelve. Blackburn University, alone, has failed to report.

An examination of these reports reveals the following general statements:

So far as reported, we present the probable or determined destination and immediate work of this noble company of young men, given to the Church, and to the ministry, by our Seminaries during the past year. Princeton reports eight men for the work in foreign lands; Auburn, two; Western, five; Union, two. These seventeen encourage us to believe that the missionary spirit is strong in our Seminaries. Doubtless others are going from Seminaries which have not reported. When the world is so made ready, and the call of our Foreign Board is so pressing, it is to be hoped that the coming year will reveal a large increase of the missionary spirit. Many students are reported ready for work in the new and remote fields under the care of our Board of Home Missions. The Board has work ready for many more than the Seminaries can supply. It is gratifying to learn that our older vacant churches eagerly lay hold of our young men, and press them into pastoral work and preaching. But it is to be regretted that the demand of the more settled parts of the Church is so great, that our young men are deprived of the advantage of an experience in missionary work, and our mission fields are deprived of the service of those who could so well meet the demands of our Home Mission Board. Let it be sounded loud, and through all the Church, that the kingdom of Christ is in great need of consecrated ministers.

A comparison of the reports of the past year, with those presented to the General Assembly of 1883, reveals many encouragements. But it is to be regretted that the reports from the Seminaries do not show a larger increase of candidates for the ministry. The tide seems to have turned. The encouragement is indicated. The dreaded depletion, it is hoped, will not prevail. There are some good signs of a forward move. The whole number of students reported is sixteen less than the number reported last year. But we discover an increased number of new students. Allowing for Union, which did not report the students matriculated last year, it is probable that there has been an increase in the number of new students of not less than fifty. The whole number of new students reported is 223. The Seminaries have given 130 men to the ministry—four less than last year. The figures seem unfavorable. But a close study of facts encourages good hopes.

The San Francisco Seminary, sustained by the zeal and faithfulness and self-sacrifice of a few, still labors to give the Church, on the Pacific coast, a ministry to meet the pressing demands of the remote locality which it represents. When we remember at what a great cost students would be sent East for a theological education, and consider the teaching ability available at home, it becomes us to acknowledge the services already given, and to recommend this Institution to the liberality of the Church.

In view of the fact that the condition and relations of Danville Seminary, have been referred to a Special Committee to report to this Assembly, we do not feel called upon to make any suggestions in this report.

We deem it unnecessary to present the details of the reports of our Theological Seminaries. The several reports will be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Union Seminary is to be congratulated. By the gifts of generous friends, it is to be provided with a new home. The elegant buildings, which are to crown Lenox Hill, will be at once a great blessing to the Seminary, and the monument of many faithful and generous men.

The Seminary of the Northwest has inaugurated its new Professors, Drs. Johnston and Marquis, and, sustained by increasing endowments, has assurance of prosperity.

Lane Seminary reports no changes. The Faculty is full, and the good work done the past year, is the promise of better work for the year to come.

Auburn has enriched its teaching power by the election of Rev. James S. Riggs as adjunct Professor of Biblical Greek, and new strength has been given to the Seminary by the gifts of generous friends.

Princeton has inaugurated Dr. Paxton, whose election has been already announced. He has taken hold upon his work, and brought a large pastoral experience as a gift to Princeton.

Western Seminary secured the service of Dr. S. J. Niccolls, who brought from his pulpit and pastoral work, a course of lectures which were most helpful to the Seminary in its time of distress. The vacancy in the Chair of Pastoral Theology and Church Government has been filled by the election of Dr. Thomas H. Robinson, for many years a pastor at Harrisburg, Pa., and the service of Rev. Robert D. Wilson has been secured, as an Instructor in Church History.

These appointments all indicate a healthy sentiment in our Seminaries. The choice of men, who have had experience as preachers and pastors, is to be commended. While special scholarship is desirable, and while its attainment should be, in every proper way, encouraged, the making of preachers should be the conspicuous purpose of our Seminaries. Young men should be impressed more with the need of the world, with the power of the Gospel, and be encouraged to attain preaching gifts. They should be made to feel that the conversion and care of souls are more important than criticism. They should, with the learned Apostle, count it their greatest privilege, and their best distinction to know Christ and Him Crucified, and to use, with effect, the sword of the Spirit, and preach with prevailing power the Gospel which is the power and wisdom of God. We therefore rejoice in the spirit, so manifest; and hope for blessed results, when the students in our Seminaries begin to draw strength from these men, fresh from the pulpit and pastoral work.

Your Committee would call special attention to the endeavor of the Church to reach our large and increasing German population with the Gospel, to impress them with the doctrines and life of Presbyterianism. We have under our care two Seminaries, having this special object in view. In the East, the German Theological School, of Newark; in the West, the German Theological School of the Northwest, located at Dubuque, Iowa. These Institutions have both made full and encouraging reports. It is manifest that they deserve the confidence, sympathy and support of the Church. The following report has been prepared by the Chairman of the Sub-Committee on German work, the Rev. Dr. S. M. Hammill.

The German Theological School, of Newark, N. J., reports 24 students, of these, six (6) are in the Theological Department, two graduate this year.

The income for the year amounted to the sum of, . .	$7,589 22
The expenses were, ...	7,989 30
Leaving a deficiency of, ...	400 08

This Seminary is doing a very important work, and there is a constant demand for the men who are trained by it. The growing German population in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and other great cities, call loudly for more ministers who can preach the pure Gospel in the German language.

The German Theological Seminary of the Northwest, located at Dubuque, Iowa, reports 19 students, eight of these are in the Theological Department, three graduate this year.

The receipts for the year are, ...	$5,567 12
The expenditures are, ...	4,785 57
Leaving a balance in hand of, ...	781 55

The examinations are reported as being very satisfactory, and the students as characterized by marked excellence and industry.

These Institutions for the training of young men for the work of the ministry, among our rapidly increasing German population, demand (or should have) the liberal aid and warm sympathy of the whole Church. There is an interesting class of German youth who are members of our American churches, and who, brought up under these happier American auspices, are more likely to be free from the mixed influences of the Church life of continental Europe. Then there are those who are Germans in respect to language, mental, social, and domestic habits, and yet who, deeply sensible of the religious necessities of their countrymen, will be specially adapted to successful labor among the Germans. These should be sought out and have their attention directed to the importance of this work.

We earnestly call upon the pastors and churches within our bounds to give this recommendation the consideration it demands.

Last, but not least, we submit the special claims of Lincoln and Biddle, the two noble Universities, which, in their Theological Departments, are educating ministers to labor for the spiritual elevation of the Freedmen. Both are needed. The one is the supplement of the other. This race, so long oppressed and neglected, does not belong to a section. This race has both a North and a South. It will press us in every part of the land. We must impress it with discrimination. Lincoln meets a demand that Biddle cannot supply. Biddle meets a demand that Lincoln cannot supply. Both cannot meet the urgent demands of this needy and rising race. We owe it to the Freedmen to do what we can to satisfy their thirst for knowledge. We should strive to redeem for Christ the race we so long enslaved for ourselves.

The facts which appear in the reports of these two Institutions are most encouraging. They express the zeal and faithfulness of those who have special charge, as also of the self-sacrificing men who are devoting themselves to the work of instruction. Seventy-five students are looking forward to the ministry in Lincoln University, who are still in the Collegiate Department. These, together with those who are already engaged in theological studies, make the total number of ministers, likely to be given to the race, one hundred and twelve (112). The Theological Department of Lincoln very urgently needs the endowment of a Chair of Hebrew. To mention the want suggests the necessity. These ministers will meet objections which they should be trained to answer.

Another great need is the endowment of Scholarships for the aid of Theological students. These men are generally very poor and none more need such assistance. The time is short. We have wasted much. Let us not compel them to work their own way into the service of a Church that owes them a debt. Almost everything said concerning the needs and claims of Lincoln, can be said concerning the needs and claims of Biddle. Biddle has a new and substantial building. At a cost of $40,000 comfortable quarters have been provided. This excellent workshop will turn out better work. Biddle represents this great work in the very heart of the great field.

It is a fact to be noted that the latter Institution has the respect, the confidence, and, to an extent, the support of Southern Presbyterians. The people of the South are not blind to this blessing which we have sent as an olive branch. The Freedmen, who once separated us, seem to promise, in the Providence of God, to be the link to unite us. We can, with this spade, dig the deepest grave for our differences and prejudices. Working together for Christ we will meet in Christ, and make His glory our common cause, by bringing a race to His service and towards His likeness. Even Scotland reaches a helping hand across the sea, and sends Biddle $6000 to educate men as missionaries for Africa.

In view of the new and adequate buildings now provided for Biddle University, and also because this institution was originally organized for the special purpose of preparing young men to preach the Gospel, we recommend to the Assembly to instruct the Freedmen's Board to give greater prominence to the Theological Department, with a view to its greater enlargement and efficiency.

The attention of your Committee has been called to a special report, adopted by the Assembly of 1879, and to the instructions which were suggested to our Theological Seminaries. The report regards the use of scholarships, the amount of aid to be given to students, and the assistance to be expected from the Board of Education. (See Minutes of 1879, page 562.)

We think it sufficient to recommend to this General Assembly to repeat the suggestions and requests which were then made to our Seminaries regarding these matters, viz.:

1. "That the Theological Seminaries be earnestly requested to continue their diligent attention to the whole subject of appropriations to students; that special care be taken that no one shall receive more than is requisite for necessary expenses; that the sum to be appropriated to the several students shall be determined by a separate vote of the Faculty on each case; and that a record of the appropriations thus voted be made by the Faculty and reported at the end of each term to the Board of Trustees."

2. "That each Theological Seminary be respectfully requested to report annually to the General Assembly, how many students have been aided by scholarship funds; how many of these have also received aid from the Board; and what is the maximum that has been given to any one student."

It is to be hoped that our Seminaries will heed these instructions, make full and explicit reports, and thus contribute to the harmony and good feeling among our Seminaries, which are so ardently desired.

Presenting these facts and submitting these suggestions, we would give praise to God, for the great generosity that sustains all our Seminaries, for the blessings He has bestowed throughout the years that have passed, for the continued hope of a consecrated ministry, and lastly, for the peace that is within our walls, for, upon the reports which we have carefully searched, we cannot find even the shadow of a danger that should disturb the Church.

IN MEMORIAM.

Death has deprived our Seminaries of two devoted Professors, and ten Directors. It is fitting to record the faithfulness of these worthy men, to strive to imitate their example, and to bear in grateful remembrance their fidelity in their sacred trusts, and in sustaining, by their labors and liberality, the institutions which they served.

The blow has fallen most heavily upon the Western Seminary in the loss of Professors Rev. Wm. H. Hornblower, D.D., Rev. Samuel J. Wilson, D.D., LL.D., and of Mr. Theodore H. Nevin, for many years a faithful treasurer.

The Northwestern Seminary mourns the loss of its friend and benefactor, Mr. Cyrus H. McCormick.

Lane Seminary, the loss of two faithful friends, Mr. A. H. Hinkle and Mr. Ezekiel Ross.

Union has had a triple blow, Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., Mr. Norman White, and Mr. George W. Lane.

Princeton, with the whole Church, which they adorned, laments the loss of Rev. John C. Backus, D.D., LL.D., and Rev. Samuel Miller, D.D.

Lincoln has lost a faithful friend, Rev. Samuel Dickey.

"These all died in faith." "Their works do follow them."

It was made the first order for this evening to hear the Report of the Special Committee on the Missionary Publications of the Boards of the Church.

The Assembly adjourned, and closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 22d, 7.30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Chairman of the mileage Fund made a partial report, asking permission to pay the Mileage account of the Commissioners in full. The request was granted.

The Special Committee on the Missionary Periodicals of the Church presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

In response to an Overture from the Synod of the Pacific, the last General Assembly appointed this Committee to take into consideration the whole subject of the Missionary Periodicals published by the Boards, to report to this Assembly. The broad terms of the appointment, and the grave bearing of the subject upon the efficient working of the Boards, suggest a brief reference, at the outset, to two or three rudimental considerations. 1st. The work of the Church is one, however many its working departments. As a consequence, all of the Boards, whatever the relative place and function of each, are of equal importance and value to the harmonious and successful working of the body. 2d. As the work is one, so the constituency of the Boards is one and identical. Hence the work of each Board rightly claims the interest and helpful care of the entire body of the Church membership. In plainer words, responsibility for coöperation in the support of every one of the Boards rests upon each individual of the great constituency of organically allied churches. 3d. One of the vital and therefore imperative conditions of personal interest and coöperation in the work of the Boards, is the furnishing, in attractive and readable form, of incident and information, as well as of suggestive quickening thought, bearing directly upon the work of each. Until this essential condition is measurably met and this reasonable demand is supplied, the Boards, especially those of limited scope, and least appreciated results, will continue to be feebly supported and their work imperfectly done.

These simple considerations sufficiently indicate both the need and the true uses of publications respecting the work of the Church in its various departments. The practical questions next arise: How is the vital condition referred to now met? Are the existing arrangements sufficient to supply the reasonable and imperative demand of thoughtful Church members who desire to be active Christian workers?

Apart from the three or more organs of the Women's Auxiliary Societies, we have two admirably edited monthlies, furnished respectively by the Home and Foreign Boards, the former of recent creation, the latter of long standing; magazines that have grown out of the absolute necessity of a thoughtful and impressive hearing by the supporting constituency. Beside these, there is a monthly journal, bearing the comprehensive title, The Presbyterian Monthly Record. Of the former two magazines, the Home Missionary issues about 25,000 copies, with an expenditure in excess of receipts of $1700, and the Foreign Missionary issues about 18,000 copies with a like expenditure of $1245. The monthly issue of the Record is 8600 copies, of which only 600 are paid for. The deficiency in the cost of the Record amounts to $3326, which is paid pro rata by all of the Boards. The entire deficiency upon the three monthlies reaches the sum of $6271; a costly advertisement of which the Boards do not complain, but are thankful for even the small returns.

The fair inference from these facts, in a broad view of the matter, is that practically there is little or no reading of the existing journals by the constituent membership, and but little sifting of their contents by ministers in the interest of that membership. Many pastors, indeed, when besought to use effort for the wider circulation of these valuable magazines, frankly reply, "We cannot ask our people to subscribe for three or more monthlies; they will neither pay for them nor read them." And some pastors add, "We cannot undertake to sift so many periodicals. Give us one compact monthly journal, covering one whole grand work, with fresh thoughts as well as facts bearing upon every department, and we can use and circulate it." Furthermore, the officers and members of six Boards, in their hearts, are of opinion that the causes they represent have an inadequate presentation in the scant pages of the Record. In this connection, it seems proper to add that your Committee, as a help to its deliberations, sought the judgment of the several Boards with reference to a single magazine, with a responsible editor, to be issued either weekly, bi-monthly or monthly; and that replies were received from the Boards of Church Erection, Freedmen, Ministerial Relief, Education, and Aid for Colleges, approving a single monthly magazine as the organ of all the Boards.

If your Committee deemed it wise to propose any measure for the present Assembly's adoption, we would recommend the establishment of a Presbyterian monthly of about 80 pages, under charge of a salaried editor, which, besides the matter furnished from the rooms of the several Boards, should be supplied with the best procurable thought and incident in condensed form, but strictly limited to the work of the Church; and should also include such prominent facts in the current history of Synods, Presbyteries and churches, as calls for and are worthy of permanent record. We believe such a magazine would be welcomed, read and recommended by pastors and the large body of thoughtful working church members, and would meet its own expenses.

But in the view of your Committee, any present action seems to be premature. The subject matter has too vital a bearing upon the future of our growing Church work to be hastily decided in favor of any proposed plan. We believe the existing arrangements can be greatly improved. But we are of opinion that whatever change of method is to be attempted should be determined, as far as practicable, by the deliberate judgment of the whole body of presbyters. And we believe that a general and thorough discussion of the subject would lead to the eventual adoption of some plan, in which all interests might be harmonized and provided for. Such wide discussion, too, must have a greatly beneficial effect meanwhile upon the existing periodicals, while it would lead to the discovery, on the part of many ministers and church members, of a grave personal obligation to acquaint themselves with the whole great work in which Christ has made them actual participants.

In conformity with these views, your Committee present a single recommendation. It is that the Committee be continued and instructed to bring this subject before the Presbyteries, through their Stated Clerks, with request for some definite judgment in the matter; and that report be made to the next General Assembly, and, if deemed advisable, the details of a plan be submitted for its consideration.

The Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., was, on request, excused from further service on the Committee.

A Resolution was offered that the Assembly memorialize Congress to take up, out of its order, a Bill now pending, for the relief of Chaplain Charles M. Blake. After full discussion the Resolution was laid on the table.

The Assembly adjourned, and closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 23d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent half an hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Rev. Geo. P. Hays, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The Baptist National Societies, holding their Anniversary at Detroit, Michigan, and assembled to the number of more than six hundred, from all parts of the Union, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, holding its sessions at Saratoga Springs, New York, send Christian salutations, in the language of Ephesians i: 3–12, inclusive.

(Signed) E. H. SAWYER, G. W. LASHER, } Committee.

The telegram was referred to the Committee on Correspondence, to prepare a suitable reply.

The Special Committee on the Reduction of Representation, presented its Report, which was received, and made the order of the day for Saturday, at 11.30 A.M.

The Standing Committees on Freedmen and on Home Missions, to whom was referred a communication from the Woman's Executive Committee, presented their joint Report, which was received and adopted, and is as follows:

Whereas, The last Assembly commended the work among the Freedmen to the sympathy and aid of the women of the Church, and urged them to take hold of it with the same spirit with which they have taken hold of other departments of Church work, but suggested no plan of operation; and

Whereas, There are those within the knowledge of your Committee who are willing and anxious to do what they can to carry out the wishes of the Assembly, but are in doubt as to the best mode of procedure under existing circumstances, and desire this Assembly to devise some plan of action; and

Whereas, It is thought undesirable either to interfere with what is now being done in other departments of Church work, or to add to existing organizations, therefore Resolved, 1. That this Assembly recommends the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions to permit such societies, under its care, as may desire to do so, to contribute according to their pleasure to the cause of the Freedmen, and send the results to the Woman's Executive Committee, to be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Missions for Freedmen be directed to provide means by which the necessary information as to the needs of the Board, methods of operation, etc., can be furnished to these societies when desired, keep a separate account of what is thus accomplished, and report the same to each General Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented its Report, which was received. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. Kneeland P. Ketcham, D.D., and others. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

In introducing to the Assembly the Report of your Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence, your Standing Committee desire, first of all, to urge upon the members of the Assembly a thoughtful study of that Report, and to bear in mind, meanwhile, the far reaching import of its facts and recommendations as affecting the deepest interests of the Church.

It is evident, that the entire interest and hope of all the great Boards and benevolent organizations of the Church are centred in, and founded upon, the personal contributions which form, primarily, the concern of this Committee.

A splendid and various mechanism, for our own health and for the "healing of the nations," we have in our Boards and Societies, but this will be operated in all vanity of result and waste of vital forces, unless the original sources, the springs of individual liberality, are reached, developed, utilized. A stately beacon tower, costly in erection, elaborate in construction, but shedding dim and fitful light, from neglect of oil in its vessels with its lamps, would be but a fitting picture of any and all organizations of our Church, without supreme regard for the vital supply of personal contributions. And it is the province, the high, sacred province of this Permanent Committee to stand between these organizations of the Church, in their possibilities of efficacy, and actualities of necessity, between these and the sources of vital supply in personal gifts, and urge for the life of the one, the development of the other.

Your Committee takes peculiar pleasure in calling the attention of the Assembly to the gratifying increase in the contributions of the past year.

It is believed that the record indicates, not only larger contributions in the aggregate, than during any one year of the Church's previous history, but a larger advance beyond the previous year than ever before, the increase being 18 per cent, against 11 per cent of last year. As will be seen, the increase to the Board of Home Missions is $114,249; Foreign Missions $44,819; Education $4194; Publication $5046; Church Erection $29,222; Relief Fund $16,337; Freedmen $19,844; Sustentation $1104; Aid for Colleges $28,987; Total gain $259,908.

The gain of the old Boards is the more remarkable because of the contributions to the new Board for Colleges. In 1881 the increase was $85,662. In 1882 $125,775. In 1883 $171,167. In 1884 $253,508, and there is no reason to doubt that this steady and at last remarkable increase, is in no small measure due to the wise and faithful efforts of your Permanent Committee. And to quote from the report of that Committee:

"We would be ungrateful to God to complain or murmur concerning the record of the year. To have raised nearly $2,000,000, for our benevolent work in a year not specially prosperous—to have seen the large desires of our two great Boards, expressed to the last Assembly, realized—to have received over $600,000 for the home, and nearly $700,000 for the foreign work—to have made an increase in collections for every cause—to record that the Women's societies gave to the Foreign Board last year $203,754, and the year before, $192,729—to have found that these societies gave the Home Board $97,167, as against $78,520—to have seen a new Board collecting $28,000 from the churches without decreasing the gifts to others—these are strong reasons for praise. Who are we that we should be able to offer after this sort? Of Thine own have we given Thee. We are not our own. May we show our gratitude to our Redeemer by abounding more and more in this and every grace!"

And yet, when we remember that, after all, these apparently large sums represent but $3.06 as the annual offering of each member of our Communion, when we reflect how little of true earnestness of purpose, true self-sacrifice, true consecration are represented to an average American Christian in $3.06 a year, we are filled with a sense of humiliation and regret, relieved only by the vast possibilities in Christian giving, which these facts after all indicate. If so much is done by so little as $3.06 a year per member, what a matchless vision of glorious results is before us, when the disciple of Christ everywhere in the Church shall be brought to give "according as the Lord hath prospered him!" Ah, if all the individuals of the Church, to honor Christ and extend the Gospel, gave with the same entire, New Testament consecration with which a few individuals give, the world would soon be won for Christ! Sixteen hundred and twenty-two churches gave nothing to Home Missions, and 2451 (388 more than last year) nothing to Foreign Missions!

In view of all this your Committee cannot forbear to urge upon the members of the Assembly, and through them the members of the Church at large, the importance of intelligent purpose in giving on the part of every Church member; and that special sermons be preached, and religious literature bearing upon this subject be disseminated, that in the family and the sabbath-school, our children should be educated to systematic and liberal giving. And in this connection your Committee would call attention to the publications mentioned in the Permanent Committee's Report, as also to their suggestions regarding proportionate giving.

We recommend no one plan of systematic contributions, but earnestly hope that each church and each member will adopt some definite plan of contributions, in which and by which the spirit, the desires, the obligations of a true consecration may find a fitting, a full expression.

The Overture from the Presbytery of Cleveland, as to an amendment to the Directory for Worship, which shall provide for giving, as a distinct act of public worship, has been referred, by order of the Assembly, to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Committee recommend the following as members of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence for the ensuing year: Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Chairman, Rev. I. Williams Cochran, Rev. Francis A. Horton, Rev. Edward C. Ray, Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Rev. Edward P. Whallon, Rev. Rollo Ogden, Rev. Anson Smyth, D.D., Corresponding Member and Acting Secretary; Elders—Dan. P. Eells, Secretary, Thomas Kane, Walter Carter, Archibald McClure, William Bakewell, Thomas Lord, Reuben F. Smith.

It will be proper here to state, that the name of Rev. Arthur Mitchell, D.D., who has hitherto rendered such invaluable service as Chairman of the Permanent Committee, does not appear here for the reason that he has peremptorily resigned, in consequence of his contemplated removal to another field and position in the Church.

As to the whole Permanent Committee of the past year, your Standing Committee cannot too warmly express their sense of the obligation of this Assembly, and of the whole Church, to them, for their constant, unselfish fidelity in the discharge of their duties.

Finally, your Committee recommend that the bill of the Permanent Committee for printing and clerk hire, amounting to $140, be paid.

The Rev. Joseph B. Stratton, D.D., Delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, appeared in the Assembly and took leave with tender and affectionate words, which were responded to by the Moderator. After which the Assembly was led in prayer by Dr. Stratton.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence reported an answer to the telegram from the Baptist National Societies, which was directed to be forwarded, and is as follows:

To the Baptist Associations, in session at Detroit, Michigan:

In reply to your telegram of congratulation this Assembly sends congratulations and salutations of grace, mercy and peace, and refers you to I Thessalonians ii: 3, 4.

GEO. P. HAYS,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
Stated Clerk.

The Committee appointed by the last Assembly on Coöperation with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States (see Minutes, p. 591), made its report, which was unanimously adopted by the following Resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this General Assembly does hereby heartily approve of the action of the Committee on Coöperation as presented in its report; and it also adopts the concurrent Resolutions presented therein.

2. Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed to inform the other Assembly of this action.

The Report is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to confer with a similar Committee from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in regard to plans and methods of coöperation, would respectfully report the result of their deliberations to this Assembly.

The Committee met on the 1st day of November, 1883, in the city of Louisville, Ky., all its members being present.

At the request of Dr. Niccolls, Dr. Humphrey, who had been originally appointed Chairman of the Committee by the General Assembly, but declined on the ground of ill health, was again, by vote of the Committee, placed in the position to which he was originally appointed by the Assembly.

The Committee from the Southern Church being present, the two Committees met together in joint session, and Rev. Dr. Humphrey, on motion of Dr. Smoot, was elected Chairman.

The meetings of the Committees, save such as were necessary for special conference, were held in joint session. And it is but proper to say, that there was, during all our conference, the manifestation of the spirit of brotherly regard, and of an earnest desire to secure coöperation between the churches. The intercourse of the brethren with each other, was characterized by frankness, and by a spirit of fraternal affection. The measures, also, which were agreed upon to be proposed to the two General Assemblies, were adopted by the well-nigh unanimous consent of both Committees.

Among the subjects referred to the consideration of the Joint Committee by the Assembly, was the following:

Resolved, That should a Committee be appointed by the Southern Assembly at Lexington, Ky., to confer with the Committee already appointed by this body in regard to coöperative work, by the two branches of the Church, the question of the joint occupancy of the Danville Seminary should be made a matter of consideration by the Committees in conference. And this Assembly would express its earnest hope that an adjustment may be made, which, while securing every legal right, shall have high regard to those fraternal relations which have been so happily established.

In accordance with this Resolution your Committee suggested, as a basis of adjustment of the question of the Danville Theological Seminary, the following:

1. An equal joint use and occupancy of the Seminary by the two branches of the Church (Northern and Southern), by the appointment of an equal number of Directors and Trustees from each branch, and giving to the Southern branch at least an equal number of Professors.

2. Should additional funds be raised for the further endowment of the Institution, each body shall have absolute control of the funds raised by itself, using only the income from such funds for the support of the Seminary. Should this basis of adjustment be acceptable to our brethren of the Committee of the Southern Assembly, it will open the way for considering the details of the means by which the object may be effected.

To this the following reply was presented by the Committee from the Southern Church:

"The Committee of the Southern Assembly, in response to the proposition from the Committee of the Northern Assembly touching Danville Theological Seminary, respectfully report, that we are willing to recommend to our Assembly the acceptance of their offer of joint use and occupancy of Danville Seminary, according to the terms of that offer, and on condition that this occupancy be in perpetuity, and that the Seminary be removed to Louisville, Ky. The Committee, however, are of the opinion that the prosperity of the Seminary would be more certainly secured and more largely advanced by being in full control of the Southern Church."

To this action, Dr. Smoot, Chairman of the Southern Committee, dissented, and his dissent was placed upon record on the minutes of the Joint Committee.

Your Committee replied to this communication as follows:

In relation to the proposition touching the joint occupancy of Danville Seminary—we approve of the two conditions in the report from the other Committee, viz.: That the occupancy be in perpetuity, and that the Seminary be removed to Louisville; and furthermore, we agree to recommend the proposition as thus amended to our General Assembly for its adoption.

After approving the terms for the joint occupancy of the Seminary, the Joint Committee adopted the following, in answer to the dissent of Dr. Smoot, which objected to the proposed occupancy on the terms mentioned, on the ground, "that it would involve the becoming a mere tenant at will, in the occupancy of the property, as the property of another;"

Resolved, That it is the sense and meaning of this Joint Committee, that in the proposition as to that Seminary, it is not a tenancy at will, that was offered and accepted, but a permanent joint-tenancy as to the occupancy, as set forth in the resolutions.

The Joint Committee also discussed various measures with reference to coöperation in the work of Home Missions, and the adjustment of such difficulties as might arise with reference to the occupation of fields occupied by both churches.

The following Resolution was agreed upon to be recommended to the several Assemblies for adoption:

As to coöperation in Home Missions, your Committees, recognizing that no specific direction can be made to cover every case that may arise, would recommend the adoption of the following concurrent resolutions:

This Assembly, while asserting its right to labor in every part of our common country, would most earnestly enjoin those charged with the direction of Home Mission work, that they see that nothing be done through strife or vain glory; that in prosecuting this work the interests of the other Assembly already in occupancy, either with an organized church, or missionary labor, shall be most carefully respected; and that the matter of consolidating feeble churches, and cases of disagreement, threatening the disturbance of fraternal relations, shall be referred to a Joint Commission of the Presbyteries having jurisdiction.

The paper on the subject of Comity in the matter of discipline referred by the Southern General Assembly to the Committee of Conference, was considered, and the following concurrent Resolution was unanimously recommended by the Committee for adoption:

Resolved, That this General Assembly, as a matter of Comity between our own Church and the Southern Presbyterian Church, growing out of the fraternal relations so recently established, enjoins upon our Church Sessions, Presbyteries and Synods, that they have due regard for the discipline of all the Sessions, Presbyteries and Synods of that Church, (and mutatis mutandis).

Other points with reference to coöperation in the work of Foreign Missions, and also that of the Board of Publication, were suggested by your Committee, to the Joint Committee, but no definite conclusions were reached, nor did the Committee from the Southern Church feel prepared to take any action in these directions.

After a careful consideration of all the difficulties in the way of coöperation, which was participated in by the brethren of the other Committee in a most frank and fraternal manner, your Committee proposed to them the following:

The undersigned, representing the Northern Church in this Committee, after considering the many difficulties in the way of cooperation, deem it proper to say to the Joint Committee, that we feel constrained to report to our Assembly, that in our judgment, the only effectual method of removing these difficulties is through organic union between these two branches of the Presbyterian Church. We would, therefore, respectfully ask our brethren representing the Southern Church in this Joint Committee to make a similar representation to their General Assembly. We do this with the hope that both Assemblies may take such action as will lead to organic union.

Signed, O. Beatty, E. P. Humphrey, T. J. Lamar, S. M. Moore, W. B. Negley, Samuel J. Niccolls, Edward B. Wright.

To this the Committee of the Southern Church made the following reply:

"By the action of Assembly as stated on page 57, of minutes of Assembly of 1883, we feel constrained to say, that we are estopped from making any recommendation, and from considering the matter of organic union.

Signed, R. K. Smoot, Robert P. Farris, Rutherford Douglass, William Henry Dodge, Patrick Joyes, Theo. H. Roe.

Such, in brief, is the result of the conference of the Committees, which we respectfully submit for the consideration of this Assembly. There is, also, accompanying this report, a certified copy of the minutes of the Joint Committee, which we desire to place before the Assembly.

The order of the day was taken up, being the Report of the Committee on Judicial Commissions. The Report was received. A minority Report of the same Committee was also presented and received.

Pending discussion the Assembly adjourned, and closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 23d, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

It was made the order of the day for Saturday, at 3 o'clock P.M., to take up the Report of the Committee on Judicial Commissions.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was received. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. Wm. Y. Brown, D.D., Chairman of the Permanent Committee. The Report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance submits the following report:

Your Committee have had under consideration the Third Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on Temperance. The report shows that this Committee, with limited means at their disposal, have done a large amount of work during the past year, and their diligence and faithfulness are worthy of high commendation.

They have during the year issued and distributed among the Synods, Presbyteries and churches four important documents. The first, Tract No. 6, is a Summary of the Deliverances of the General Assembly on the subject of Temperance from 1812 to 1883, a valuable document for reference, showing that for more than seventy years the General Assembly has borne repeated and emphatic testimony against the sin of intemperance and the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

The second is a circular letter to the Synods and Presbyteries, prepared by Rev. Dr. Aikman, calling their attention to the importance of appointing in each of these bodies a Permanent Committee on Temperance, as in other departments of Church work. This tract is re-published in the annual report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee, and the attention of Synods and Presbyteries is hereby called to its recommendations, and they are urged to act in accordance with them.

The third is a plan for organizing the temperance work in sabbath-schools. This paper is also re-published in the annual report. It contains valuable suggestions and should receive attentive consideration. At a time when the State is beginning to turn its attention to giving special instruction to the youth on the subject of temperance, the Church must not lag behind in the work. The importance of instilling into the minds of our young people right views and principles on this subject cannot be overrated.

The fourth is a circular concerning the Temperance Narrative, designed to secure from each Presbytery a statement of facts concerning the temperance work in churches and communities. A comparatively small number of Presbyteries have forwarded temperance narratives, and many that have done so have sent them too late to be of use in preparing the annual report. The narratives which have been received generally indicate interest and activity in the temperance cause. It is earnestly hoped that hereafter every Presbytery will forward a carefully prepared narrative on this subject. In order that these narratives may be digested, and the facts contained in them be embodied in the annual report of the Permanent Committee, they should be sent immediately after the Spring meetings of Presbyteries.

The Permanent Committee have shown commendable diligence in corresponding with other ecclesiastical bodies. The results of this correspondence are embodied in the annual report, and are deserving of special attention. The cheering fact is brought out that most of the leading evangelical Churches of our country, have taken decided ground against the sale and use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and in favor of the most vigorous measures for the complete suppression of the traffic. It is as certain as anything in the future can be that the Churches of America, including our own, will never go back from the advanced position which they have taken on this subject. They have reached this position after mature deliberation, thorough discussion, devout study of the Word of God and the indications of Divine Providence, and earnest prayer for the guidance of the Holy Spirit. They are now prepared to say of the traffic in intoxicating liquors, as Abraham Lincoln said of another evil, if this traffic be not wrong, nothing is wrong.

We cannot believe that this attitude of the Churches of our country is the result of fanaticism. We cannot believe that the Spirit of God has given over His people to a delusion upon this subject. We are compelled to believe, that in coming up to the high plane of total abstinence from all intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and of determined and irreconcilable hostility to the drinking-saloon, as the sworn foe of all that is best and purest in our civilization, the Church of Christ is simply following the standard of her Divine Leader. She can take no step backward. She hears in the Word and in Divine Providence, the command, "Speak to the Children of Israel, that they go forward;" and with unwavering courage and inflexible determination, she will go forward to glorious victories over the great foe of God and man.

The Permanent Committee has also done good service in gathering statistics concerning the evils resulting from the sale and use of intoxicating drinks, and the progress of the temperance cause. It is a prime maxim in war not to underestimate the strength of the enemy. The statistics gathered by the Permanent Committee, give some idea of the power in money and influence of the baleful traffic in strong drink. The overthrow of this giant foe is not to be the work of an hour or a day, but of a long-continued and persistent effort. It is not to be accomplished by a feeble, half-hearted or divided exertion of the temperance forces, but by an earnest, united and determined movement, all along the line of all the friends of temperance and humanity. The demon of intemperance that has so long held possession goeth not out but by prayer and fasting, and it need not be thought surprising that as he goes out he should seek to rend and destroy.

The statistics, further, give unmistakable indications of the most effective methods of dealing with this monster iniquity. In Maine, where the policy of prohibition has had the longest and fairest trial, the statistics show that a smaller government revenue, in proportion to the population, is collected from the sale of distilled and fermented liquors than in any other State in the Union. The average revenue from this source for each member of the population of the Union, is $1.71; the average in Maine is four cents. The statistics of other prohibitory States point in the same direction. No form of crime is wholly suppressed by law. It is not to be expected that all drinking and drunkenness will be entirely suppressed by the most stringent laws. Nevertheless, the statistics show that where the temperance sentiment is strong enough, to secure the enactment of statutory or constitutional prohibition, this form of legislation is the most effective ever devised for dealing with the evil of intemperance. So far, therefore, as the evil is to be dealt with by law, we should keep steadily before us the ultimate end of securing, as speedily as possible, such legislation as will aim at the annihilation of the traffic. The best methods of attaining this consummation, most devoutly to be wished, may be safely left to the good judgment of those whose hearts are enlisted in the work.

The statistics gathered and the narratives of the Presbyteries show that the cause is making encouraging progress. So far as the prevailing sentiment and practice of the ministers and members of our Church are concerned, the narratives show that they are overwhelmingly in favor of total abstinence, from the use as a beverage of intoxicating liquors, and of suppressing the traffic by law. In every part of our country the temperance sentiment is growing in strength. The adoption and enforcement of constitutional prohibition in Kansas, the adoption of statutory prohibition in Iowa, more than three hundred and twenty thousand counted votes in Ohio for constitutional prohibition, the large vote in the Legislature of New York in favor of submitting to the people a prohibition amendment to the State Constitution, the adoption by New York, New Hampshire, Vermont and Michigan, of a law providing for the education of the youth in all the public schools as to the nature of alcohol and its effects upon the human system, the overwhelming defeat in Congress of the bonded whisky bill, all show that public opinion against intemperance and the traffic that leads to it is gaining in force every day, and awaken the hope that the day may not be far distant, when the great curse of strong drink shall be placed under the ban of public opinion, and of laws intended to secure its complete suppression. May the Lord hasten the day.

Many of the narratives speak in the highest terms, of the thorough organization and efficient work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Many of the noble women of our Church are doing effective work in connection with this organization. No other organization devoted to the cause of temperance, is doing more to create a wholesome public sentiment, and to secure the enactment of needed legislation against intemperance than the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and we bid it God speed in its good work.

Your Committee recommend the following Resolutions for adoption:

1. That this Assembly re-affirm the uniform testimony of past Assemblies, from the year 1812 down to the present time, against intemperance and the liquor traffic, emphasizing and adopting, as its own, the deliverance of last year, that, "in view of the evils wrought by this scourge of our race, this Assembly would hail, with acclamations of joy and thanksgiving, the utter extermination of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, by the power of Christian conscience, public opinion, and the strong arm of the civil law."

2. That it be recommended to all our Synods and Presbyteries to appoint Standing Committees on Temperance; that Presbyterial Committees be recommended to arrange for the holding of temperance conventions and institutes, and to prepare and forward promptly to the Permanent Committee, distinct temperance narratives, giving the facts pertaining to the state of the cause in their respective localities.

3. That ministers be urged to preach on the subject of Temperance, and in all suitable ways to endeavor to rouse the consciences of the people, and to create and foster such a public sentiment as will discountenance drinking customs, and lead to the enactment and enforcement of laws for the complete suppression of the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

4. That this Assembly rejoices to learn that in four States of our Union, laws have been enacted, requiring that, in all schools sustained by public funds, instructions be given on the nature of alcohol and its effects upon the human system, and recommends the people under its care to coöperate with other friends of temperance, in the effort to secure such legislation in all the States.

5. That the Assembly commends the diligence and fidelity of its Permanent Committee in doing the work assigned to it; that cordial thanks are due, and are hereby tendered to Rev. William Y. Brown, D.D., for his admirable and comprehensive report of the work of the Committee, and of the state of the temperance cause, in its financial, legal, moral and spiritual aspects.

6. That the Assembly gratefully recognizes the power of the press, both religious and secular, in moulding public opinion and stimulating to right action on this subject, and recommends the increased use of this agency in meeting local issues, and in the dissemination of facts and principles which are suited to advance the cause.

7. That Rev. William Y. Brown, D.D., Rev. Jeremiah Petrie, and Messrs. Walter Carter, William N. Crane and Andrew Blair, whose term of service expired at this meeting, be re-appointed to serve for three years; and that Rev. Robert D. Harper, D.D., and Elder Daniel W. Fish be appointed to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignation of Rev. Nelson Millard, D.D., and Hon. Jonathan Ogden, to serve for two years.

8. That this Assembly re-affirms the action of the last Assembly, recommending the Permanent Committee to appeal to the churches for funds to defray its expenses.

The Chairman of the Mileage Committee was directed to pay the Entertainment Fund to the Treasurer of the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church, reported:

Overture, No. 1, from the Synod of Minnesota, asking that certain of its Presbyteries be set off, and erected into a new Synod; also, No. 2, on the same subject, from the Presbytery of Southern Dakota.

The Committee recommends that these requests be complied with, and that the Synod of Dakota be hereby constituted, to include all that part of the Territory of Dakota lying south of the 46th parallel of north latitude, and to consist of the Presbyteries of Aberdeen, Central Dakota, Dakota (including all the ministers and churches among the Dakota Indians), and Southern Dakota, now in connection with the Synod of Minnesota; and that the said Synod of Dakota convene at Huron, on Thursday, the ninth day of October, next, at half-past seven o'clock P.M., and be opened with a sermon by the Rev. Walter S. Peterson, or, in case of his absence, by the senior minister present, who shall preside until a Moderator be chosen.

Overture, No. 3, from the Northern Pacific Presbytery, and No. 4, from the Presbytery of Pembina, asking for the erection of a new Synod, to be called the Synod of North Dakota.

While fully appreciating the reasons assigned for the creation of such a Synod, the Committee recommends that it be judged inexpedient to take any action in the premises at the present time, for the following reasons: that the proposition has not been submitted to the Synod of Minnesota, to which these Presbyteries belong; that the erection of the new Synod would involve the formation of another Presbytery, which could be done to better advantage by the Synod of Minnesota; and that no serious embarrassment is likely to result from delaying the proposed action for another year.

Overture, No. 5, from the Synod of Iowa, requesting permission to keep its records hereafter in printed, instead of written form; and No. 6, from the Stated Clerks of several of the Synods, presenting a similar request, and asking that some uniform plan be adopted for the guidance of the Synods in this matter.

The Committee recommends that any Synod, which shall so elect, be authorized to keep its minutes in printed form, and to dispense with written records, provided:

(1) That such printed minutes be complete and accurate in all details.

(2) That they be uniform as to size of page with the Minutes of the Assembly.

(3) That the copy submitted by each Synod to the Assembly for review, be attested by the certificate of the Stated Clerk of the Synod in writing; and that blank pages be left at the end for recording any exceptions that may be taken.

(4) That at least two additional copies of each and every issue be transmitted to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, and two deposited in the Library of the Presbyterian Historical Society.

Overture, No 7, from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking the repeal of the Standing Rule in the Minutes of the Assembly for 1870, p. 90, which limits the right of petition or overture to the Presbyteries and Synods, and thus "deprives the Church at large of the inalienable right of petition."

The Committee recommends, that as the rule referred to does not deny the right of petition, but only prescribes an orderly method of action, and saves the Assembly from unnecessary demands upon its time, the Overture be answered in the negative.

Overture, No. 8, from the Synod of Michigan, asking that the Presbytery of Lake Superior be transferred to its care, from the Synod of Wisconsin; No. 9, from the Officers of the Synod of Wisconsin, No. 10, from the Presbytery of Winnebago, and No. 11, from the Presbytery of Lake Superior, severally opposing the proposed transfer.

After conferring with persons interested on both sides of this question, and having assurance of their willingness that the subject be postponed for the consideration of another Assembly, and to give farther time for fraternal conference, the Committee recommends that no action be taken.

Overture, No. 12, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, relating to ministers of this Church who are pastors in other denominations. The Committee recommends the following answer:

1. The General Assembly hereby directs the Presbyteries under its care to require all ministers whose names may be on their rolls, but who have identified themselves with other denominations as communicants, or as pastors, or as stated supplies for three years, to take letters of dismission to the denomination with which the particular churches to which they minister may be connected; or, if they neglect to do so, then, on sufficient evidence of such identification, their names shall be dropped from our rolls. (See Digest, p. 169.)

2. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly is hereby directed to omit, hereafter, the letters P. C. after the names of ministers in the statistical tables in the Minutes of the Assembly.

Overture, No. 13, from the Presbytery of Washington City, asking that an Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries for an amendment of the Confession of Faith, by striking out from Chap. XXIV, Sec. 6, the words, "or such willful desertion as can in no way be remedied by the Church or civil courts."

As there is no evidence of a general desire for the proposed change, and as a compliance with the request would practically be for the Assembly to assume the initiative in this matter, the Committee recommends that no action be taken, in the direction suggested by the Overture; but that the Assembly, at the same time, express its profound conviction that the Church should, by every means at its disposal, resist the growing laxity of legislative and judicial action in respect to divorce.

Overture, No. 14, from a minister of our Church in India, inquiring whether, in a supposed case, a Church member would be justified in carrying his grievances before a civil tribunal, whose judge is a Mohammedan; and asking for an interpretation of I Cor. vi: 1.

The Committee recommends that as no actual case is presented, and as it is not customary for the Assembly to judge of questions presented in thesi, it is inexpedient to return any answer.

Overture, No. 15, from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking the Assembly to submit to the Presbyteries an amendment to the Form of Government, Chap. X, Sec. 8, adding the words, "and ruling elders" after the word, "ministers," and making the required verbal changes in Chap. XIII, in order to give to the Presbytery the same oversight and jurisdiction in the examination, ordination, installation, and trial of ruling elders as in the case of ministers.

The Committee recommends that this Assembly judge it inexpedient to take such action.

Overture, No. 16, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, requesting that the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries be directed to add to all letters of dismission given to ministers, the dates of birth and ordination of the ministers so dismissed; and requiring the Board of Publication to provide for this in future issues of their blanks.

The Committee recommends that the Assembly judge it inexpedient to require the proposed action.

Overture, No. 17, proposing the following question: Does Chap. X, Sec. 8, of the Form of Government, defining the powers of the Presbytery, give the Presbytery the right to exercise control over the location of church buildings within its bounds, both in the case of new organizations expecting to build, and of old congregations proposing a change of location.

The Committee recommends that the question be answered in the affirmative.

Overture, No. 18, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia Central, and No. 19, from the Presbytery of Carlisle, asking the Assembly to divide the Synod of Pennsylvania into several Synods.

The Committee recommends the following answer: Inasmuch as the Assembly has but lately consolidated the Synods, and this change in the constitution has not fully been tested by experience; and as the Synod of Pennsylvania has not been consulted in regard to the proposed division, the Overtures be answered in the negative.

Overture, No. 20, from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, asking the Assembly "to enjoin upon candidates for the Ministry to retain their connection with the Presbyteries to which they naturally belong by residence and Church membership; also to enjoin Presbyteries not to receive such candidates unless they have received dismission from the Presbyteries to which they naturally belong, as above specified; also to enjoin the Board of Education carefully to examine into any such cases, and only in extreme instances to allow the funds of the Board to be paid to candidates who do not receive such funds through the Presbyteries to which they naturally belong.

The Committee recommends the Assembly to call the attention of the Presbyteries to the Constitution of the Church and to the action of the Assembly of 1872, and to urge them to a more careful observance of the principles then laid down, in order, as far as possible, to secure the ends contemplated in the Overture.

Overture, No. 21, from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, asking that the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries be instructed, in making out their rolls for the General Assembly, to designate, by suitable initials, the Chairmen of the Committee on Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers.

The Committee recommends that the Assembly judge the proposed action to be inexpedient.

Overture, No. 22, from the Presbytery of Kittanning, asking this Assembly to appoint a Committee with instructions to prepare an outline of topics, with appropriate questions or suggestions, to serve as a basis for Church Narratives; the same to be printed in proper form by the Board of Publication, and furnished to the Presbyteries and churches with other official forms and blanks. The object of the proposal is to secure fullness and uniformity to the Narratives, and to facilitate the labors of Committees in collating them.

The Committee recommends that the Overture be answered in the affirmative, and that a Committee of three ministers and two elders be appointed by the Moderator, to report on this subject to the next Assembly.

Overture, No. 23, from the Presbytery of Lansing, asking the Assembly to provide a plan for the more convenient change of place for the meeting of a Synod, when it proves to be impracticable for it to meet at the place to which it stands adjourned.

The Committee recommends the following answer:

Whenever, from any cause, it shall be necessary to change the place of the regularly appointed meeting of a Synod, its Stated Clerk shall, at the request of the Stated Clerks of at least three-fourths of its Presbyteries, be authorized to secure another place of meeting, and to issue his official call for the meeting of the Synod, accordingly.

Overture, No. 24, from the Synod of Pennsylvania, requesting that the foreign Presbytery of Zacatecas, in the Republic of Mexico, be attached to that Synod.

The Committee recommends that the General Assembly hereby recognize the Presbytery of Zacatecas, and place it under the care of the Synod of Pennsylvania.

Overture, No. 25, from certain persons connected with the Presbyterian Church in Chippewa county, Michigan, requesting action with a view of determining the Synodical relations of churches now existing, or hereafter to be formed, in several counties of the State of Michigan.

In view of the action before proposed in the matter of the transfer of the Presbytery of Lake Superior, the Committee recommends that it be considered inexpedient at present to grant the request.

The recommendations of the Committee were severally adopted.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 24th, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and spent the first half hour in devotional exercises.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance would respectfully report that the following named papers have been placed in their hands, to which they have given careful attention.

1. The Annual Report of the late Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the General Assembly, made up to October 27th, 1883, showing a balance to the credit of the Treasurer of $579.70. The account, with vouchers accompanying the same for all the expenditures, has been examined and found correct.

2. A Report received from Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk and Treasurer pro tem., covering the period from October 27th, 1883, to May 15th, 1884, showing a balance to be paid to the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, newly elected, of $331.32. The account, with vouchers accompanying it, has been examined and found correct.

3. The Annual Account for the year ending May 9th, 1884, of the Treasurer of the Presbyterian House as follows:

Balance on hand May 1st, 1883, $623.90; amount received from various sources, $15,266.91; total receipts, $15,890.81.

Of this sum, $6233.16 has been paid to various trusts; $9000 has been reinvested; leaving a balance in hand of $657.65.

The invested funds of the House now amount to $113,083, an increase of $5300 over last year.

The Account of the Treasurer is accompanied by the report of an Auditing Committee, consisting of John C. Farr and Charles A. Dickey, verifying the same, and stating that they have seen the securities in the hands of the Treasurer, and that they are all registered in the name of the corporation. No details are given as to the nature of the securities in which these funds are invested.

4. A Report from the Trustees of the Presbyterian House stating that they have accepted the trust of five thousand dollars ($5000), bequeathed by Charles Macalester, late of Philadelphia, deceased, to the Macalester Memorial Church, Torresdale, under the care of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North, the principal to be invested, and the net income thereof to be paid over towards the support of the pastor for the time being of said Church and congregation forever.

They also call the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that the term of office (2 years) of the following Trustees expires during the present sessions of the Assembly, namely:

Charles M. Lukens, Treasurer, Alexander Whilldin, T. Charlton Henry, Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., and Charles A. Dickey, D.D.

The Committee nominate these persons for re-election.

5. The Annual Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, in a somewhat condensed form, giving a tabular statement of the total present investments of the Trustees to March 31st, 1884, aggregating $319,007.47, an increase from last year of $1765.

The cash receipts for the year have been as follows:

Income from Investments	16,096 84
Received from sale of United States Bonds and Camden and Amboy Bonds	19,895 00
Mortgage paid up	9,400 00
Legacies	2,045 00
Total Receipts	$39,046 22

The payments were as follows:

Reinvestment of Permanent Funds	$10,500 00
Paid to Sundry Trusts	16,347 35
Leaving a Cash Balance carried forward to next year	12,198 87

The correctness of the above statement is certified to by the Finance Committee and the Committee on Accounts of the Board of Trustees. The defalcation of Mr. Woodward, late Treasurer, has been made up by his friends.

Your Committee recommend the approval of these Financial Reports and Accounts herein referred to, and that they be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of this General Assembly.

We recommend that Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., be paid the usual compensation for performing the duties of Stated Clerk and Treasurer, from the death of Rev. Dr. Hatfield to the opening of the present Session of the General Assembly.

We also recommend, that, hereafter, no transfer be made from the Entertainment Fund to any other fund, until all bills for entertainment are paid, and that the Stated and Permanent Clerks be an Auditing Committee, to audit the entertainment bills of the Committee of Arrangements.

In conclusion, the Finance Committee regret to announce that the following bills of the last General Assembly remain unpaid:

Bills for Entertainment	$1,010 02
Bills for Printing, &c.	1,648 91
Bills of Sundry Committees	708 45
Bills of Committees yet to be presented, estimated at	250 00
	$3,617 38
To meet which, there is now in the Treasury	911 02
Leaving a debt amounting to	$2,706 36

The Committee understand, however, that in consequence of the great saving in railroad fares to members of this Assembly, a reduction of about $2200 has been effected, leaving $500 yet to be raised, to meet, in full, the above bills, and we trust that the Assembly will promptly raise this sum.

A Resolution on the Nez Percé Indians was made the order of the day for 7.30 o'clock this evening.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported.—

Overture, No. 10.—Concerning a proposed alteration of Sections 3 and 4 of the Revised Book of Discipline. The Committee recommend, that in the judgment of the Assembly, it is not expedient to recommend the alterations requested. Adopted.

The same Committee submitted the following recommendations:

The Committee would request that all Presbyteries, Synods and Individuals, sending Overtures to the General Assembly be directed to have them legibly written with ink, on full sheets of paper, and that not more than one Overture be written on one sheet. Adopted.

Whereas, The Assembly through its Board of Church Erection, and Committee on Freedmen, has expended large amounts of money in the purchase of Real Estate, and the erection of churches and school buildings, for the work of Missions among the Freedmen, previous to the chartering of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, therefore,

Resolved, That this Board be directed to investigate, and trace the titles to all properties for which any of these funds have been used, that they be required to keep an abstract of all titles to such property already secured, or that may be secured, in the office of the Board. And, that the Board be required to report the results of their investigations to the next General Assembly, and that the Rev. Samuel C. Logan, D.D., be added to the Board of Freedmen, for this purpose. Adopted.

The same Committee, also, recommended the adoption of Standing Rule, No. 7, viz.:—All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session. Adopted.

Resolved, That a Special Committee of four be appointed, consisting of the Moderator, Stated Clerk, Permanent Clerk, and the Rev. David C. Marquis, D.D., of Chicago, to report to the next General Assembly, such additions, and amendments to the "Rules for Judicatories," as they may deem needful.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance reported the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly calls the attention of the United States Government, to the violation of the Sabbath, by the Postal Department, in forwarding, and distributing the mails on that day; and also to the fact that such violation of the Sabbath, is also a violation of the personal rights guaranteed to every citizen by our Constitution, inasmuch as it compels employees of this Department to either violate the Sabbath, or relinquish their position under Government.

Resolved, 2. That inasmuch as soldiers at various military posts, in the United States, are compelled to parade, on the Sabbath, to the violation of conscience and the degradation resulting therefrom, and, also, the demoralization of the communities where such posts are stationed, and to the great distress of conscience, and the convictions of both soldiers and citizens, and the violation of their guaranteed constitutional rights; and inasmuch as it is not necessary thus to parade and drill on the Sabbath in time of peace; therefore, we, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, respectfully ask, that steps be taken by our Government to forbid such parade and drill, on the Sabbath, except at times when it may be imperatively demanded by military necessity.

Resolved, 3. That the Hon. William Strong and Commodore John W. Easby, of Washington, be requested to transmit these Resolutions to the United States Postmaster General, and the Secretary of War, respectively.

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was adopted, with special thanks to Elder Louis Chapin, for his faithful discharge of the duties of his trust. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage would respectfully report the following as the result of their labors:

Received on Mileage Assessments		$27,703 00
" " Entertainment		10,091 28
Disbursements		$37,794 28
Paid on Mileage claims	$23,236 87
" Entertainment to Treasurer	10,091 28
" Clerk hire	50 00	33,378 15
Balance to Treasurer		$4416 13

Our roll of Presbyteries has been increased eight in the past Assembly year, not including Alaska and North Laos, which have not reported. The Presbytery of Grand Forks has been disbanded, making our present number 188.

Payments have been made in full by one hundred and forty-nine Presbyteries for their apportionments to both funds. The Presbyteries following neither paid to nor drew from either fund:

	For Mileage.	Entertainment.
Bellefontaine	$137 25	$54 90
Nassau	122 90	49 16
Logansport	153 15	61 26

The Presbytery of Huron has paid $38.40 to the Entertainment Fund, but nothing on the $98.80 assessed for Mileage.

Eight Presbyteries, Columbus, Erie, Kalamazoo, Lehigh, Marion, Shenango, West Jersey and Wooster paid their assessment for Mileage in full, but nothing on Entertainment, which amounted to $676.52.

Twenty-one Presbyteries are exempt from assessment. Sixteen of these are in foreign countries. Corisco paid $15.30 to the Mileage Fund. Six of these are represented by one minister each who have drawn for Mileage $136.47.

The five Freedmen Presbyteries are represented by six ministers and six elders. They contributed $202.11 to, and drew from the Mileage Fund, $545.40.

Eight Presbyteries, after deducting their own expenses, have paid as follows, on account of the Mileage Fund:

	Assessed.	Paid.
Chester	$277 10	$151 00
Cincinnati	376 75	249 45
Freeport	261 94	62 81
Fort Wayne	144 45	40 60
Lima	129 55	63 65
Lyons	130 70	110 08
New Castle	268 60	50 00
Zanesville	288 58	58 00

The whole amount of assessments unpaid is $1491.48 for Mileage, and $1498.46 for Entertainment, amounting in all to $2989.94.

A comparative view of our financial affairs shows that we have collected this year, $1056.19 more on Mileage, and $464.49 on Entertainment than was realized in 1883, and that our Mileage expenses are $4885.36 less this year than last, thus bettering our financial affairs, $6406.04.

The Committee feel constrained to call the attention of the Assembly to the fourth rule on page 821 of Minutes of 1883, that Commissioners shall as early as the fourth day of the session of the Assembly, pay in the the apportionment of each Presbytery to the Standing Committee on Mileage, and furnish a bill of their necessary traveling expenses, rules which, if observed, might have lessened the time consumed, at least two days.

We have 572 Commissioners present, six more than in 1883. As an evidence of the conviction among our Presbyteries that our Assembly is unnecessarily large and expensive, we are informed that four Presbyteries have each sent two Commissioners, and others one Commissioner less than their quota.

Your Committee have further to report, that Elder William G. Case, a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, was stricken down by death at Kansas City on the 11th inst., while on his way to attend the meeting of this Assembly, that it was estimated that his expenditures had been about $150, which they did not pay. They therefore recommend that our Stated Clerk be authorized to settle with his estate when an administrator or duly authorized person shall present the claim.

We offer the following:

Resolved, That the apportionment for the ensuing year of the present per capita rate of apportionment shall be four cents for Mileage, one and one-half cents for Contingent, and one and one-half cents for Entertainment expenses.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Mileage Committee is hereby directed to pay to William H. Roberts, D.D., Treasurer of this Assembly, the balance of $4416.13 money in his hands.

The Standing Committee on Education presented their Report, which was received. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. Daniel W. Poor, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Education, and others. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Education respectfully report:

Our Church is to be congratulated upon manifest increase of interest in her work of Education. The Board reports an encouraging advance in contributions from our Churches and a very gratifying increase in the number of candidates for the ministry. These results are attributed to the unusual interest excited at the last Assembly by the discussions attending the establishment of the new Board of Aid for Colleges. The enthusiasm of that Assembly was carried like a spreading fire throughout the Church, illustrating the fact so often insisted upon that lack of interest in any of our Church work, is due to lack of information among the people more than to anything else; and that in proportion as our ministers become interested in any cause, and so qualify themselves to speak to the people, in that proportion the resources of our Boards are increased, and their work facilitated and enlarged. We are constrained to believe that the utmost needs of this Board, both of men and money would be supplied by our Churches, if our pastors were habitually as enthusiastic in disseminating information and dwelling upon its importance as they are at times. For a number of years there had been a steady decline in the number of candidates for the ministry in our colleges, and in the number receiving aid from this Board. This state of things was dwelt upon at the last Assembly, and this year the Board reports an increase of 91 in the number of candidates entered upon their list. This increase is so large as to have been entirely unexpected, and consequently the contributions of our churches, though larger than ever before, have not been sufficient to meet the expense incurred by this great influx of students. The Board has therefore been compelled to incur a debt of $10,912.30.

Your Committee believe that our Church is more than willing to enable the Board to balance its accounts, without obliging it to turn any of these applicants away, or to reduce the value of the scholarships the coming year, and would recommend the following:

Resolved, That the General Assembly learns, with gratitude to God, of the large number of young men presenting themselves to our Board as candidates for the ministry, and earnestly requests our churches to make special efforts during the coming year to increase their contributions to this cause, and especially desires every church to make some contribution however small.

The total receipts of the Board for the past year are $67,100.41, an advance of $3,600.85. The number of churches contributing was larger by 109 than ever before in the history of the Church. And this in spite of the fact, that many churches divided their contribution to education between this Board and the new Board of Aid for Colleges.

During the year, 577 students have been under the care of the Board; in theological seminaries, 216; in colleges, 262; in the preparatory stage, 99. Sixty-eight complete their studies this year. The recent increase of candidates will of course have no effect upon the number of graduates this year. It gives promise for future years, and encourages the hope that better days are before us. But while all this should be acknowledged with thanksgiving, we must not flatter ourselves that we are meeting the demands which are pressing upon us. By referring to the report of the Board, it will be seen that we have now 1859 more churches than ministers. Making every possible allowance for churches which have only a nominal existence, and for churches combined so as to be served by one minister, and counting all of our ministers who can by any probability be supposed to be available for active service, and still there is an excess of 532 churches.

The aggregate of students as presented in the catalogues of our Theological Seminaries for the past year has increased, yet the prospect for supply of ministers from this source for the next three years is only 144 per year. These (if even all of them enter our ministry), are insufficient to supply our vacant churches, our home missions and foreign missions, and to replenish the ranks thinned by death and dismissal. We hear sometimes, expressions of alarm at the great number of ministers coming into our Church from sister denominations. The Board calls attention to the fact that but for these sources of supply, the net increase of our ministry last year would have been only 11 against an increase in churches of 99. What should we have done for the supply of these new churches but for the 64 borrowed ministers!

But even if we could be satisfied with the supply from these sources it is not sufficient. Plainly a crisis is before us, and the Board may well say, "there is no subject which demands of our Church more earnest consideration and more determined action." The supply of ministers must be increased or disaster is near at hand. From whence is this supply to come? The standard of educational requirement must not be lowered. It should rather be elevated. Half educated ministers are no match for our times. The demands of the age are imperious. The general diffusion of intelligence, the high standard of education maintained even for the masses, render it absolutely necessary that ministers should be well armed and equipped, with the weapons of learning and culture, as well as with the gifts and influences of the Spirit. An adequate supply of such ministers cannot be expected from the ranks of those who are rich in this world's goods, and able to provide for their own education. The Church must lay her hand upon the multitude of poor young men, who are otherwise qualified and called and ready to respond to the call, but for the lack of means.

It is often urged that the ministry should be put upon a level with other professions, and men compelled to struggle into it as they do into the professions of law and medicine. The sufficient answer is that there are multitudes of young men who would be lawyers and physicians, but are deterred for want of means to secure the requisite education. These secular professions can spare such; but the ministry cannot spare them as our statistics year by year demonstrate. It is not true that all men of spirit who desire to enter other professions succeed in gaining an adequate education. Poverty is an insuperable barrier to many; but the Church should leave no obstacle, which she can remove, in the way of young men who desire to enter her ministry. The ministry can never tempt men with the hope of worldly gain. It is well that it cannot, for it would become corrupt if it did. The great majority of those who fill its ranks must always be drawn thither by the spirit of self-sacrifice, of love to Christ and love to men. There is need of all who come with such spirit from both classes, the rich and the poor.

We would call the attention of the Assembly to the fact stated in the Report of the Board, that in the course of the past year fifteen students were dropped for low scholarship. If ever the Church's beneficiary system is wrecked it will be upon this rock. There is evidently great carelessness or lack of judgment among pastors and sessions, and Presbyteries and colleges in recommending, approving and continuing candidates for the ministry who are mentally unfit. It is a lamentable fact that in one year fifteen students who have been pursuing their studies in our colleges, we do not know for how many years, should have to be dropped for low scholarship. We do know that such students are often continued in college for years after their incompetency has been apparent. College professors are often at fault here. And in most cases the pastors and sessions who first recommend the candidates, and the Presbyteries who approved them might, by the exercise of ordinary discretion, avoid such mistakes. When it is remembered that the Board never drops a student for low scholarship if he be possessed of compensating gifts, such as literary or oratorical ability, it becomes apparent that sessions and Presbyteries often violate the Apostle's injunction "to lay hands suddenly upon no man."

At the conclusion of its Report, the Board calls attention to the necessity for "some system by means of which its unemployed yet available ministers may be set at work, its vacant churches be more speedily supplied, and those which are hopelessly feeble and promise no growth, be combined with others of our own or other denominations, so that they can be regularly supplied with the means of grace."

It has been found in the experience of the Board, that one of the greatest obstacles in their way is the fact that there are so many unemployed ministers. People point to these and say, "we have too many ministers now." If all these unemployed ministers were in active service, there would still be a great dearth. But as many of them are unfit for service, that fact should be made to appear. Such a system would also greatly increase the efficiency of our ministry and churches, and would remedy the one great weakness of our Church polity. Various plans have been suggested and some of them tried with marked success, notably the plan of the Presbytery of Emporia.

Your Committee would recommend the following:

Resolved, That all our Presbyteries be requested to take this matter into consideration, and devise some plan, each for itself, whereby its vacant churches may be speedily supplied, and its unemployed ministers brought into active service.

It will be observed that the accounts of the Board are not audited. Very satisfactory explanations of this fact have been made to your Committee by Mr. Samuel Field, Auditor, and by the Secretary, Rev. Dr. D. W. Poor, and we are unanimously of the opinion, that the affairs of the Board are very ably and carefully managed.

An overture has been placed in the hands of the Committee from the Synod of Baltimore, expressed in the following Resolutions:

1. That, as the funds of the Board of Education are contributed with at least the implied understanding that they are to be used for the education of young men in the Institutions of our own Church, those funds ought not, except in extraordinary cases, to be used to sustain men in Institutions that are not in harmony with both the faith and the order of our Church.

2. That Presbyteries be enjoined to see, as far as possible, that students under their care, receiving aid from the Board of Education, pursue their studies in Institutions that are in harmony with both our doctrines and polity.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of these Resolutions. The term of office of the following members of the Board of Education expires by limitation:

Ministers: Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D., N. S. McFetridge, D.D., and James M. Crowell, D.D.

Laymen: Fulton W. Hastings and Horace W. Pitkin.

Your Committee recommend their re-election. The place of Franklin Baker, resigned, is to be supplied. We recommend that George W. Barr, of Northminster Church, Philadelphia, be chosen to fill this vacancy.

The order of the day, the Report of the Special Committee on Reduced Representation, was taken up. Pending its consideration,

The Assembly adjourned, and closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 24th, 3 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

A Resolution on the relation of the Session to Church Music, was referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The subject of Reduced Representation, was further discussed, and postponed, to take up the order of the day, viz.: the Report of the Special Committee on Judicial Commissions. The Minority Report from said Committee was taken up as an amendment, and lost.

The Majority Report was then amended, and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed to consider the subject of Judicial Commissions, and present a plan of action to this Assembly, respectfully report:

The practice of appointing Judicial Commissions by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, is an inheritance from the Church of Scotland. And, although the power to appoint such Commissions was not embodied in our Constitution, yet the practice has continued by consent of parties, in the absence of constitutional authority.

At different periods of the Church's history, attempts have been made to give constitutional authority to this principle, which has been found so useful in the trial of judicial cases, but without success.

A Committee was appointed, with instructions to prepare an amendment to the Book of Discipline on this subject. This Committee reported the result of their labors to the Assembly of 1877. On their report, the whole matter was referred to the Committee on the Book of Discipline. Owing to the action of the Assembly of 1881, the Committee on Revision, in reporting the Revised Book to the Assembly of 1883, left this matter where they found it. That Assembly, feeling the importance of some relief from our present embarrassment, referred the subject to this Assembly; on that reference, the present Committee was appointed.

We have taken the matter intrusted to us into careful consideration, and have agreed to recommend the Assembly to send down the following Overture to the Presbyteries for their approval:

First, Shall the following section be added to the Book of Discipline:

The General Assembly, and each Synod under its care, shall have power to appoint a Judicial Commission, from their respective bodies, consisting of ministers and elders, in number not less than a quorum of the Judicatory appointing.

All judicial cases may be submitted to this Commission, and its decisions shall be final; except in matters of law, which shall be referred to the appointing court, for final adjudication; and also, all matters of Constitution and Doctrine, which may be reviewed in the appointing body, and upon final adjudication by the General Assembly. This Commission shall sit at the same time and place as the body appointing it; and its finding shall be entered upon the minutes of such body.

Second, Shall the following be added to Chapter XI, Section 4, of the Form of Government:

Provided, that in the trial of judicial cases the Synod shall have power to act by Commission, in accordance with the provisions on the subject of Judicial Commissions in the Book of Discipline.

And, shall Chapter XII, Section 4, be amended, by inserting at the close of the first sentence, the following:

Provided, that in the trial of judicial cases, the General Assembly shall have power to act by Commission, in accordance with the provisions on the subject of Judicial Commissions, in the Book of Discipline.

The Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D., and the Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., were appointed a Committee to prepare a statement in reference to these Overtures, when sent down to the Presbyteries, and to determine their place in the Book of Discipline.

The Report of the minority of the Standing Committee upon the Board of Publication, was taken up, and after discussion, the previous question was called, and it was lost.

The unfinished business being the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, was taken up, and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee have examined with care and interest, the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, and find evidence that the past year has been a year of prosperity and progress in every department of the work which this Board has in charge. The diligence and fidelity with which the trust has been administered deserve the hearty commendation of the Assembly.

The interests involved are so diverse and complicated that it is exceedingly difficult for the Committee, in the limited time at their command to gain an adequate conception of the work, and scarcely less difficult to make a concise and intelligible statement of their conclusions.

By means of this single agency, our Church is carrying on the business of a publishing house, a newspaper office, and a bookstore wholesale and retail, in addition to supervising the work of colportage and determining, so far as they may, the organization and instruction of 6476 Sabbath-schools, in which nearly 600,000 pupils are receiving religious influence and training. These several interests are so interlaced that it is impossible in our report to separate them entirely.

The business department, which has for its function the publication and sale of religious books and periodicals, does not appeal to the benevolence of the churches, but depends for its maintenance upon the proceeds of the business, which employs, according to the report, a capital of more than half a million of dollars.

The exhibit which the Board makes of its publications for the past year is very gratifying. When informed that they have printed during the year the aggregate number of 15,195,866 copies of various works, such as library and general reading books, hymns, hymnals, tracts, lesson-helps for both teachers and scholars, and weekly and monthly papers for both old and young, we begin to see something of the vastness and value of their work for the Church.

Among the issues of bound volumes are some of rare and permanent value. It is but a just tribute to our Christian women to note the fact that of the 21 new volumes published last year, 12 were the product of their ready pens.

Of the 13 new tracts issued in the English language, one is by the Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., whose death occasioned such widespread and profound sorrow. Its title, "The Outlook of Presbyterianism," is touchingly suggestive of his affection for the Church in whose service he spent his days, while it also comes to us like a bequeathment of his unfaltering confidence, in the permanent and progressive usefulness of this branch of the Church universal.

The large re-issue of former publications on the subject of temperance is also worthy of grateful mention. In addition to these, the Board is now publishing under the title of the "Westminster Cheap Series," some of the most apt, telling and effective treatises on religious topics, that have ever appeared in the English language.

The publications in the interest of the Sabbath-school, varying in form and characteristics to meet the needs of old and young, are worthy of the highest commendation.

The Assembly of 1882, in adopting the carefully prepared report of a Special Committee on Publication, appointed by the preceding Assembly, gave to the Board the following instructions (See Minutes, p. 77): "The Board shall present to the General Assembly a yearly statement of the expenses of the Publishing Department, and also a statement of its profits, in such a manner that it shall be made to appear (1), whether any reduction in the price of its publications is practicable, and (2), what sum this department may yield year by year for sabbath-school work and colportage, or other missionary purposes.

These instructions have not been complied with in the report submitted this year. It is impossible to determine from the financial statement whether the business of the year has been conducted with profit or loss. Consequently we cannot judge whether any reduction in the price of its publications is practicable.

The missionary fund of the Board, to which the churches are asked to contribute, sustains the two-fold work of colportage and sabbath-school organization.

During the past year the number of colporteurs has been considerably increased, and new fields have been occupied by them in the sparsely settled and spiritually destitute portions of our country; 108,699 volumes have been distributed by sale or gift, and 6,692,882 pages of tracts and periodicals; 87,112 families have been visited, and 151 sabbath-schools organized. It is gratifying to notice that the Board has, to a considerable extent, availed itself of the unpaid service of pastors and other volunteer helpers, in securing the dissemination of their publications. In many parts of our land no agent can do this work so judiciously and effectively as the preacher, provided that he is not constrained to become a mere book peddler. Grants have also been made to missionaries laboring in various foreign lands. We rejoice that the results attained have been greater than in previous years. Yet considering the ability of our Church, and the great need which exists in many sparsely populated regions, and among the Freedmen of the South, it is not to our credit that we have had in the work of colportage only an equivalent for the full time of thirty-six men, and that the net value of the literature gratuitously distributed during the year is only $12,434. Certainly there is an urgent call for broader plans and more generous gifts, if we are to embrace the opportunities which Providence affords us in these days, when the printed page is so potent a factor in forming public opinion, and determining the drift of our civilization and religious life.

The Report of the Secretary of Sabbath-school Work indicates so clearly the progress made in that department that comment is unnecessary. The value and importance of this work cannot be over-estimated. The zeal and earnestness with which it has been pushed forward should receive grateful recognition, and should enlist the coöperation of Presbyteries, pastors and sessions, throughout the entire Church.

Your Committee recommend action as follows:

1. The Assembly express their appreciation of the service rendered by this Board to the Church and to the cause of Christ, and commend the fidelity displayed in the prosecution of its difficult task.

2. The attention of the Board is invited to the action of the Assembly of 1882, already referred to, which requires from it annually, a clear and definite statement of the expenses and profits of the business department.

3. That this Assembly appoint a Committee, consisting of one minister and two elders, which shall be charged with the duty of making a thorough examination of the assets and accounts of the Board of Publication, with instructions to employ an expert accountant, to be paid by the Board, and that said Committee report to the next General Assembly. In the judgment of your Committee such examination should be made at least once in two years.

4. The Board of Publication is instructed to amend its By-Laws as follows: Sec. 5, Art. III.—A. So as to read, "He shall be ex-officio a member of the Missionary Committee." Sec. 5, Art. III.—B. So as to read, "He shall be ex-officio a member of the Publishing Committee." Sec. 10, Art. III.—C. So as to read, "He shall be ex-officio a member of the Sabbath-school Committee."

It appears from the By-Laws as now framed that each Secretary is made ex-officio a member of all permanent Committees except the Auditing Committee, and that the number required to constitute a quorum of such Committees is five or in some cases six. These provisions enable the three Secretaries and two or three other members of the Board to form a quorum of any Committee, and thus give to the Secretaries undue power. In the judgment of your Committee each Secretary should be a member of the Committee most closely related to his own office and duties. For that reason, the above recommendations have been made, which if adopted will so amend the laws that the Corresponding Secretary will be ex officio a member of the Missionary Committee; the Editorial Secretary, a member of the Publishing Committee; and the Secretary of Sabbath-school Work a member of the Sabbath-school Committee. As all the Secretaries are members of the Board, it seems improper that each of them should have a vote upon every Committee.

5. The Assembly express their appreciation of the labors performed by the Secretary of Sabbath-school work, and commend him to the confidence and cordial co-operation of the churches.

6. In order to increase the efficiency of this Department the Board is recommended to consider the propriety of employing a clerk who shall be under the direction and control of the Secretary to assist him in the discharge of his duties.

7. While heartily commending the use of the leaflets and other lesson helps provided by the Board, as aids to Bible study, the Assembly is constrained to bear testimony against the growing practice of making them a substitute for the Bible in the sabbath-school. The Bible in its entirety should be the text-book, and it is desirable that each scholar should possess and use his own Bible. In furtherance of the same general object the Board is requested to consider whether it may not be advisable to prepare a lesson leaf from which the Scripture text shall be omitted.

8. Pastors and sessions are urged to supervise more carefully their sabbath-school work, to encourage in every way the thorough preparation of teachers, to secure as far as possible the attendance of the children upon the services of the Church, to steadily aim at their early conversion to Christ, and their intelligent attachment to the Church of their fathers.

9. The Presbyteries are exhorted to organize the sabbath-school work within their bounds, and to assist the efforts of the Secretary.

10. The Assembly approves the diligence of the Board in enlarging its work of colportage, and expresses the hope that it may be much more widely extended, especially in the regions where religious privileges are meagre.

11. To make this enlargement of the Missionary work possible, churches and sabbath-schools are urged to contribute more liberally to the Missionary fund of the Board, so that the sum of $75,000, at least, may be devoted to this work during the coming year.

12. In view of the peculiar necessities of the churches on the Pacific slope, the Board is recommended to establish a new depository in the city of San Francisco.

13. To fill the vacancy in the Board occasioned by the lamented death of the late Judge Sharswood, your Committee recommend the appointment of George S. Graham, Esq.

The term of service of the following members expires at this time.

Laymen: E. A. Rollins, Joseph Allison, LL.D., Henry N. Paul, John H. Watt, William L. Mactier, John D. McCord, Edward P. Borden and Joseph M. Collingwood.

Your Committee respectfully recommends their re-election.

Several Overtures have been submitted to your Committee for consideration.

1. An Overture from the Presbytery of Lake Superior asks, that the Board be directed to publish in the Scandinavian language all such publications as are now issued by them in German. It is recommended that the Board be requested to fulfill this petition when, in their judgment, it is practicable to do so.

2. An Overture from the Presbytery of Oregon requests the Assembly to urge upon the Committee in charge sundry changes in the International Sabbath-school Lessons.

Your Committee recommend the following answer: That the General Assembly is satisfied with the International system of Sabbath-school Lessons as they are set forth in our series of Westminster Lesson Helps.

3. An Overture from the Presbytery of Platte asks, that the Sabbath-school Work be separated from the Publishing Department, and placed under the care of a distinct Committee. It is recommended that the overture be answered as follows: This Assembly regards the proposed change as undesirable, but urges the Board of Publication to give to its Sabbath-school Committee and Secretary, as much freedom of action as possible.

4. Overtures from the Presbyteries of West Jersey and New Brunswick, have been referred to your Committee, which urge the Assembly to take such action as shall secure an earlier issue of the Assembly's minutes.

It would be unreasonable to require from the Stated Clerk, just elected, as much expedition as if he had been able previous to the meeting of the Assembly, to make definite arrangements for the publication; but to remedy as far as possible the inconvenience experienced in former years, your Committee recommend the following action:

The Assembly directs that all matter required for publication in the Minutes of the Assembly, or the Appendix, be lodged in the hands of the Stated Clerk, on or before the closing day of the Session, and that the Stated Clerk is directed to proceed, not later than June 1st, to the printing of the Minutes, without reference to documents which may be delayed beyond that date. With the discretion, however, accorded to him of printing such documents in a supplement.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Crawfordsville, requesting the General Assembly to instruct the Board of Publication to print an edition of its sabbath-school papers, lesson leaves and helps, on cheaper paper, was, on recommendation of the Standing Committee on Publication, referred to the Board of Publication for such action as may be deemed wise.

The subject of the relations of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions to the work in the Indian Territory, and among the Chinese in the United States, was taken up, and referred to these two Boards, as a joint committee, to report to the next Assembly.

That part of the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, which deals with the work among the Chinese and the Indians in the United States, was referred to this Joint Committee.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, was then amended, and adopted, and is as follows:

The Lord Jehovah has said, "Look unto Me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else." He has also said to His Church, "The abundance of the sea shall be converted into Thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto Thee." Christ said to His disciples, "The field is the world." And again, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature."

We come to-day to ascertain how far we have been carrying out this Divine commission. While we are to strengthen the stakes of our beloved Zion at home, we must not forget to lengthen her cords, until we have embraced the whole world. Let us briefly look over the record of the Board's work for the last twelve months, that we may have a quickened love and gratitude to Him who has "crowned the year with His goodness."

1. THE FINANCES.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions has received the Forty-seventh Annual Report of the work under the care of the Board, for the year ending April 30, 1884. We find that an immense amount of work has been carefully and judiciously done by the Board and its officers, work which the Church at large can never fully appreciate. The whole Church owes a debt of gratitude to these men, who have so faithfully executed the trust committed to them.

The accounts of the Treasurer show that the receipts of the Board from all sources, from April 30, 1883, to April 30, 1884, have been $693,122.70. Its expenditures for the same period, including the payment of the debt of $13,382.96 from last year's accounts, were $703,845.72. This leaves a debt at the end of this year, of $10,723.02. The deficiency is so much less than was feared in the later months of the year, that it is viewed almost with a feeling of relief. The receipts of the year proper, exceeded its expenses $3382.96.

The gifts of departed friends, though not so large in amount as those of last year, saved the treasury from heavy embarrassment. The gifts of the churches, sabbath-schools, Women's Boards, and individual donors exceeded those of any former year, and were $53,475.52 over the sum received from the same sources in the preceding year. This general statement is a cause of thanksgiving to the Head of the Church, who enabled and inclined His people to devote this large sum to the grand work of sending the Gospel to the heathen nations.

The receipts from the various Women's Boards and Societies amounted to $203,754.74, a fact which shows a healthy and steady growth in this department of Foreign Mission Work. Since these Auxiliary Societies of the women came into existence, during the past fourteen years, they have contributed $1,707,484.70. But the gain has not been so much in money, as in creating a sympathy, diffusing knowledge on the subject, arousing enthusiasm and calling forth the prayers of God's people, for our missionaries and their work. Even the youth and the little children in their mission bands, are being instructed to love and pray and labor for the conversion of heathen children; and the heart of our Presbyterian womanhood has been quickened as never before, to give the Gospel speedily to the millions of heathen women and children.

The Committee would acknowledge with especial thankfulness the noble work which has been done by the women of the Presbyterian Church through their Boards and Societies. These are not in any sense detached and independent organizations. They stand in closest and most vital relations to the Church. As auxiliaries of the Board, they are practically in connection with the Assembly. They deserve the cordial sympathy and support of all the Synods, Presbyteries, and churches. And it is greatly to be desired, that their organization and influence could be extended into those Synods where they have as yet done little. Surely there are generous and earnest Christian women in these Synods who are both willing and able to take an active share in this grand work.

2. SUMMARY VIEW OF OUR FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We have in the field 163 American ministers; 108 ordained native ministers; 143 native licentiates; 23 American men, and 281 American women as lay missionaries; and 786 native lay missionaries; there are 19,218 communicants, and 25,914 boarding and day scholars.

The Missions of our Board are among ten tribes of the North American Indians, they are in Mexico, Guatemala, South America, Africa, India, Siam, China, and among the Chinese in this country, they are in Japan, Persia, and Syria. Thus we see, they reach portions of all the continents of the World.

3. WHAT HAS BEEN THE PROGRESS, AND WHAT IS THE NEED FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE.

The year has been one of marked progress in additions to the mission churches, in educational efforts, in the preparation of a native ministry, and in the increase of laborers, native and foreign. The accessions to the Church in the foreign field in proportion to the number of laborers, have been far beyond that in our own country. In the Presbytery of Shantung, China, the additions to the membership of the Church were 672, being an increase of nearly 50 per cent over last year. The Board has continued its usual contribution to the evangelical churches in the Papal lands of Europe. This money is given directly to the native agencies which are already established on the ground. It is conveyed to them without charge for collection or disbursement, and thus it reaches the fields for which it was intended undiminished. The Committee would call attention to this, and suggest that our Board will cheerfully receive and distribute all contributions from our churches for the evangelization of Papal Europe.

The Committee would notice with gratitude the continued usefulness and prosperity of the work of the Board among the Indian tribes of this country. For fifty years our Church has been laboring for the enlightenment of this pagan darkness and barbarism at our very doors, and while a large work in this field still remains to be done, we have reason to be thankful for the great results already accomplished. The civilization and at least partial Christianiza-tion of many tribes, are due under God to the faithful and successful labors of the Foreign Board. And still the good work goes quietly and steadily forward. The schools are active and prosperous, particularly among the Dakotahs. With fewer missionaries in the field than last year, there is an increase in the number of additions to the Church and the total number of communicants is now 1453. All these we may regard as direct gains from a Paganism which is none the less gloomy and pitiable because it exists so near us, and we thank God for these pledges of future and larger victories. We also rejoice in the steps taken by our government in favor of a better civil condition of our Indian tribes.

The work among the Chinese who are brought by purely secular causes to our coasts, and cast, in all their heathen blindness, upon the missionary conscience of the Church, has a peculiar and powerful interest. In rescuing these souls from the humbling influences of a false religion, we are setting in operation forces which will surely be most potent for good, even beyond the Pacific, for the converts who are made here will, and do carry the grace of the Gospel back with them to their own land. During the year that is past, this department of the Foreign work has been blessed more than ever before. There has been an encouraging increase in the churches and schools, and in the benevolent contributions of the converts. One thing we trust will be clear to all intelligent and earnest minds, whether the Chinese must go or stay, they must be Christians.

Never was the work of our missions in all its details in such a healthy condition, and what is needed is a thorough appreciation by the whole Church of her duty and her relation to it. To sustain the advancing work, greater means must be supplied. The Church has the ability, may she have the grace to come up to the demands of her Divine Head, and the requirements of the cause in the different missions.

One great aim in the Foreign Mission work, is to train a native ministry, and if the Church at home will only continue to give the needed support, the time is not so far distant, when China, and India, and Japan, and Siam, and Africa, and South America, will have their John Knoxes, John Calvins, Archibald Alexanders and Charles Hodges, to be the teachers of theology in their respective countries; and a mighty army of ministers and teachers will, by the Word, and Spirit, and Grace of God, be trained to carry forward this glorious work. But in order to bring about these stupendous results, the Church must not grow weary in well doing, she must not faint or halt, she must continue to hold out a helping hand, she must give her sons and daughters, her wealth and her prayers, her time and her strength, her choicest gifts, whatever they may be, in the service of the Lord. While we pray, "Thy Kingdom come," we must faithfully use the means to bring about this end, and "the Kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ."

The Board of Foreign Missions completes, with this General Assembly, fifty years of history. The first missions of our Church were begun in Liberia, Africa, at Lodiana, India, and among the American Indians, in the year 1833–34.

It is inspiring to think of the grand advance of Christianity during this half century. The adherents to the Christian system have multiplied. The converts have sent rapidly upwards the Christian percentage in the world's population. The institutions of Christian learning have increased in mighty power, and the central forces for promoting a future advance were never so strong as to day.

In this sublime movement our own Church has had an impressive part. We have groups of missions and centres of wide power in each of the five great divisions of the earth's surface. Beginning with the sunrise land, we follow these nerve-centres around the globe. Japan is grasping after Christian knowledge and Christian institutions. Corea is feeling blindly towards the light. China yields to the Christian teacher and preacher. The Court of Siam opens to the Christian physician, and the authorities of that country acknowledge their indebtedness to Christianity. India, Persia and Syria, are centres of educational power for great races of people. Africa, through growing results, from either coasts, east and west, opens long vistas of new opportunity. Access to Papal Europe and Papal South America is easily obtained. Wonderful opportunities for the overthrow of systems of error, offer themselves in Roman Catholic countries on our own continent. And China and Japan touch us again here on this continent across its whole breadth, and cluster under the very shadow of our home churches.

All the grand results won in the past fifty years, rise to new means of efficiency in the ten colleges and theological schools, in the dispensaries and hospitals, in the ample and varied Christian literature, through which missionaries and converts are propelling the vitalities of Christian truth, and in their organization into two Synods and fourteen Presbyteries.

The tokens of God's favor which have been so richly enjoyed by our faithful and devoted missionaries in their various fields, and the marked ingatherings which have taken place, call for gratitude, enlarged faith, renewed vigor, stronger petitions for richer blessings and more generous giving on the part of the churches. As an Assembly, we stand on a high position in regard to Foreign Missions. The outlook is a grand one. Half a century has brought us up to a point from which we can get a glorious view.

The piteous cry which comes from our laborious missionaries for more helpers on the great harvest fields, ought to be enough to melt the heart of the whole Church. Let us hear one (out of many) of these appeals, which comes from the Presbytery of Rio de Janeiro to the Assembly, for ten more men to be sent as soon as possible to aid in the evangelization of Brazil:

"God, in His mysterious providence, has reduced our number there are only twelve ordained ministers in our Presbytery to forward the work among twelve millions of people, equal to the population of the States of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania; while the three Synods in these States enroll 2262 ministers.

"In all Brazil there are only three Evangelical ministers to each million of inhabitants. We send you, therefore, the old Macedonian cry: 'Come over and help us.'

"In the city of Rio de Janeiro, the largest city in South America and the Southern hemisphere, we have three missionaries, and in the second city in size in the empire, there is only one. In one province, larger than France, and with a population of one million and a half, we have two native ministers, and these are the only evangelical ministers in the Province.

"What can plead more eloquently than such facts? You need not be told that the evangelization of this immense empire is too great a work for so small a number of laborers. Our request for ten more men is exceedingly moderate, and we urge it upon you, not only by the needs of the field, but also by 'The mercies of God,' by the love you bear to our Redeemer, by the sacredness of His last command and by the awfulness of eternity."

Can the Church resist such appeals?

What we all need now—Churches, and ministers, and institutions of learning—is a fresh, glorious baptism of the Holy Spirit; then shall we begin to comprehend the magnitude of the work before us, and have the heart and power to do it. Let the fire of the Holy Spirit and the love of Christ enter into all our agencies, and the Church will soon come with a blessed harvest song upon her lips.

We need greater consecration. The devoted Mary Lyon used to say: "In the great work of saving souls, let us first give up our superfluities, then if God still calls, our conveniences, when that is done if souls are still unsaved, and if the door is kept open by Divine Providence, let us, last of all, give up our necessities to the infinite need of saving souls." Let every man, woman and child in the Church seek to possess the spirit of Harriet Winslow, who said: "While these hands can work, and the heathen perish because the Gospel is not sent to them, my hours and days shall be employed for them."

We shall need, during the coming year, a more general diffusion of missionary intelligence; the missionary publications of our Board must be more generally read; Foreign Missions must be faithfully preached from the pulpit; systematic and proportionate giving must be insisted upon; all the men as well as the women must help in this work; every Church, whether weak or strong, should have the opportunity of making an offering; "all the tithes must be brought into the storehouse." These things being secured, glorious results must follow.

To you who "know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might be rich," further appeal is unnecessary, and to all others it will be unavailing. For we must "freely receive," before we shall be moved to "freely give." But when we have freely received then the Christian motive becomes potent—almost omnipotent, and will urge us at any sacrifice and by every effort to speed forth the Gospel of salvation on its message of mercy to mankind.

In view of the opening fields before us, and the imperative cry which comes to us from perishing millions, we offer the following Resolutions:

1. That we call upon the Church to so far increase her offerings as to furnish the Board with at least $750,000 for the ensuing year.

2. That pastors and sessions seek to inspire their people with a greater interest in the monthly concert of prayer for the conversion of the world.

3. As knowledge lies at the foundation of all intelligent efforts, the pastors and sessions are urged to secure a more extensive circulation of missionary literature, especially the Foreign Missionary, which Dr. Christlieb says "is one of the leading missionary magazines of the world;" and we would commend to our Presbyterian women and their societies the wisdom of having but one woman's magazine, besides Children's Work for Children, in order to promote unity of purpose and action.

4. As most gratifying and hopeful are the efforts and achievements of the different organizations throughout our Church which contemplate Woman's Work for Woman, as no recent movement of the Church has equaled this in practical efficiency and Christian success, and as its influence upon the coming of Christ's Kingdom is destined to be still more wonderful, we therefore urge that every encouragement be given to the Women's Auxiliary Societies, in their earnest and efficient work for the Master in the spread of the everlasting Gospel; and that we also commend the holding of annual conventions in the interest of Foreign Missions, as far as practicable in every Presbytery and Synod.

5. That we have heard with pleasure that the Synod of India is to meet the coming autumn to celebrate the fiftieth year of the Mission. In connection with this event the following minute was passed by the Mission: "Resolved, That we ask Dr. John C. Lowrie, founder of the Lodiana Mission, to visit the Mission, so as to be present at our semi-centennial celebration, proposed to be held at Lodiana in 1884."

The Board has granted him leave to do so, if health and strength will permit, and many friends of the Senior Secretary hope that he will be able to take part in this commemorative service, and we ask that the prayers of the Church and the blessing of God may accompany him.

The Committee would also report that they have examined the written minutes of the Board, and find them to be neatly and correctly kept, and all the business transacted in an orderly and satisfactory manner.

Laymen.—David Olyphant, and Henry Ide.

Pending the consideration of the Report of the Judicial Committee,

VICKSBURG, MISS., May 24th, 1884.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

The Assembly has just determined to adhere to the action of the last Assembly, which is to correspond by letter.

T. D. WITHERSPOON, Moderator.

JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented the Letter from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which was read by the Stated Clerk. The Committee then presented their answer thereto which was adopted, and the Letter and Answer directed to be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Report of the Special Committee on Reduced Representation was taken up, and is as follows:

Your Committee of forty-four, to which was assigned the duty of devising a plan for the reduction of the ratio of representation of the Assembly, would respectfully report, that they have given the subject the most unwearied attention, and have used every possible means within their reach, to comprehend the subject in all its complicated and perplexing bearings.

They have examined, by sub-committees (of which Drs. Geary and Moore acted as chairmen), the reports of the Presbyteries on the Overture sent down to them last year, and the Overtures from the Presbyteries referred by the Assembly. With reference to the latter we report that four of the Presbyteries, Ebenezer, Dayton, St. Louis and Marion, ask for synodical representation; one of them, Bellefontaine, asks synodical representation, but with every Presbytery represented; one of them, Logansport, asks for synodical representation on the basis of one minister and one elder for every fifty ministers, provided that each Presbytery shall have one delegate; one of them, Oregon, asks that the present ratio be changed from two for twenty-four to two for thirty-six ministers; four of them, Highland, Clarion, Newton and Blairsville, wish the present plan retained, merely striking out the representation of fractions over twenty-four ministers. One of them, Des Moines, suggests pastors instead of ministers as the basis of representation. One, Baltimore, makes the same suggestions as to substituting pastors for ministers, upon the basis of representation suggested in the plan of this Committee, dropping the fractions less than twelve. Two, Alton and Chester, recommend equal representation by two Commissioners from each of the Presbyteries, large and small. Thus it appears that fifteen only out of 188 Presbyteries have sent up any Overture proposing a specific plan for reduced representation, and these fifteen suggest seven different plans—no one of these plans having more than four (less than one-third) in its favor. It was, therefore, the opinion of the sub-committee, 1st. That no evidence had been laid before them of any general desire on the part of the churches to reduce the size of the Assembly. 2d. That there was abundant evidence that the Church does not demand reduction, all the plans submitted by the Assembly, year after year, having been rejected by the Presbyteries.

	Affirmative.	Negative.
Presbyteries voting in the	87	70
Synods undivided	4	2
Synods divided	16	16
Churches represented by vote of Presbyteries	2,637	2,605
Members represented by vote of Presbyteries	231,000	292,000

It is noticeable here that the large churches which would have suffered most by this reduction are in the majority. A like comparison shows the standing of ministers for and against the Overture, Affirmative 2349, Negative 2280; and if we apply the same comparison to the benevolent funds of the Church we find it to be $550,000, $1,032,000.

Showing the benevolent wealth of the Church to be against the Overture, which throws light upon the the causes of its defeat, and also indicates that where the Overture reduces most, those Presbyteries so affected have been most generous, for the vote stands 32 to 31.

The plan of 1883, the figures of which show so much in its favor, is singularly like that which your Committee propose for your consideration. You will observe that in the affirmative of that year, there were 87 votes, and in the negative 70. The effect of the Overture of 1883 is a reduction of 140 Commissioners. When compared with the plan now proposed by your Committee it will show a difference of four—two ministers and two elders. The different results between 1883 and 1884 will appear in the fact that Allegheny remains unaffected, as does Washington, but by the plan of 1883 each would have lost two Commissioners. The failure of the plan of the last Assembly, after all that has been said, shows that the Church does not appear to be united in favor of reduction, or upon any plan, the subject having been before all the Presbyteries during the year past, and only 15 out of the whole number having overtured for a reduction.

But if the Assembly does not take this view of the subject, and considers it desirable to make a reduction, then your Committee suggest that the Assembly send down to the Presbyteries the following Overture, the effect of which, will be to reduce the number of Commissioners 136. Chapter XII, Section 2, of the Form of Government, reads now, "The General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of bishops and elders from each Presbytery in the following proportion, viz.: Each Presbytery consisting of not more than twenty-four ministers, shall send one minister and one elder, and each Presbytery consisting of more than twenty-four ministers, shall send two ministers and two elders, and in the like proportion for every twenty-four ministers in any Presbytery; and these delegates, so appointed, shall be styled Commissioners to the General Assembly." Shall this Section be so amended as to read:

"The General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of bishops and elders from each Presbytery, in the following proportion, viz.: Each Presbytery consisting of not more than twenty-four ministers, shall send one minister and one elder, and each Presbytery consisting of more than twenty-four ministers, shall send one minister and one elder for each additional twenty-four ministers, or for each additional fractional number of ministers not less than twelve, and these delegates so appointed, shall be styled Commissioners to the General Assembly?"

In order to obtain the greatest possible light on this subject and that unanimity of action which only consideration can give, your Committee acting upon the suggestion of our Moderator, not only examined all Overtures from the Presbyteries on the subject of representation, but invited all who had plans or suggestions on the subject, to lay them before us, and asked all such to explain their plans to the complete understanding of the Committee. Each member of your Committee was also called upon to give his own views, and the views of his Presbytery as far as he understood them upon the whole subject, after which there was a unanimous agreement to the foregoing Overture.

To this was added the following as a further amendment to Chapter XII, Section 2, of the Form of Government to be sent down as a separate Overture, "Provided that no Presbytery hereafter to be constituted, shall be entitled to send commissioners to General Assembly, until it shall consist of at least twelve ministers and one elder from each congregation within its limits, except in foreign Presbyteries and the territory of Alaska."

Your Committee found itself in all its deliberations environed by difficulties. The majority would have preferred leaving the Assembly as now constituted. Habit has woven its meshes about its present form, and history and its reminiscences bind us to it. It has so well served the Church in its growth and onward march, that a painful reluctance stood in the way of any change, like the smiting off the young branches from a tree in whose culture all had toiled to bring it to life, strength and beauty. The yearly Assembly has been a great educational instrumentality to the Church and country for more than a century, where for ten days or more the best results of life have been felt and imparted, nor could your Committee be alarmed by any impending danger from its present size. Nor had we any traditions or warnings in the past to awaken fears, but on the other hand its watchful care and moderation in all times and on all subjects of danger, forbade the harboring of disordered fancies. Nor could we overlook the great moral impressions which this Assembly has made in communities and over the whole world, and the enthusiasms by which it has raised the pulsations of our heart-life, through the years succeeding its meetings, to the glory of God, in increased piety and its effects in the great works of benevolence. We could not but be impressed by the power of its deliverances on all moral and religious questions, through its magnitude and centered intelligence. Nor did the burden of expense connected therewith seem so great, when we considered the fact that through the efforts of our new Stated Clerk, the expenses incident to transportation to and from the Assembly have been reduced this year by about $10,000 through favorable terms made with the railroads. And now with two such clerks, at centres so advantageous in this respect, we may hope for still more concessions in this direction.

Your Committee would also call attention to the fact that no complaint of the expense to the churches has come to us from any of the larger Presbyteries, which by reason of their situation have drawn most lightly upon the fund to which they have largely contributed. But withal the fact could not be disguised that a large part of the Church is determined to have reduction, and we could only set our efforts in this direction, in compliance with the wish so often expressed, even in the disharmonies of the Church's efforts to obtain it. There are dangers to which even partiality to our old ways dare not close our eyes. One is that the present constitution of the Assembly militates against her deliberations in the efficient, just and equitable exercise of her judicial functions, which argument is, however, of as great weight when applied to an Assembly of 300, as to one of the present size. Difficulties also have been and will be experienced in finding places for meeting, where the Assembly can have the comforts and facilities necessary for her work, within the reach of the present financial basis for the support of her members, which would neutralize many of the good effects above stated as resulting from its present constitution. The facts also of experience prove that dangers gather around such bodies, meeting continuously in one locality, which would tend to the loss throughout the Church of her best moral and religious impressions in her yearly sessions, upon the communities affected by her migrations. Nor can the clamorous facts be omitted that there have been dissatisfactions and even almost scandals in the use of the Mileage Fund, which, if true, would hardly stand the scrutiny of charity. And these impressions are widely disseminated, endangering the continuance of the Mileage Fund, and the good name of the Assembly—the loss of both of which, or either, would be a calamity to the Assembly and churches. Your Committee understood that it was appointed to give the best plan within its ability for the removal of these unpleasant facts—and as having no discretion between acting and not acting—and were compelled to do the best they could under the circumstances. The plan known as the "Synodical," had few advocates, neither did the one by which the Assembly was to be composed of an equal delegation of one bishop and one elder from each Presbytery, meet their approval. While many were impressed that the theory is Presbyterial, they could not fail to see that it would violate all practical principles of equity. Other plans being rejected by the Assembly, the Committee had but narrow bounds within which to move in its endeavor to meet your wishes, and even these were further circumscribed, because any plan that we could devise will most affect those Presbyteries from which the Church must draw her supplies for subsistence and progressive work. So that we had to deal with both heart and extremities, to conserve life, as well as to quicken its action at the extremities.

In order to avoid complaints that representation is often obtained by counting those beyond the bounds of the Presbyteries, who sometimes are laboring in connection with other denominations, or are secularized, or are in Presbyteries, under whose care they ought to place themselves, we would respectfully urge the duty upon the Assembly of admonishing all Presbyteries to enforce the rule contained in the Revised Book of Discipline (Section 111).

The Standing Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Church, for the past year, presented its Report. The Necrological Record for the year was read by the Stated Clerk, after which the Assembly engaged in devotional services.

The Narrative with the Necrology were ordered printed in the Appendix.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a final Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee deem it a duty to call the attention of this Assembly to the action of our Church concerning the powers and duties of the Committee of Bills and Overtures.

1710 p. 17, Dig. p. 213. In 1710 the Presbytery (there being at that time no higher Court) appointed "Mr. Henry, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Wade a Committee to prepare and bring in Overtures to the Presbytery and also to take cognizance of whatever may be laid before them to prepare it for the Presbytery."

1769 p. 393, Dig. p. 213. In 1769 the Synod, in answer to the question concerning the duties and powers of the Committee of Overtures proposed last year, said: "That Committee is intended to introduce business into the Synod in an orderly manner, that they may give advice concerning either the matter or manner of Overtures brought to them, but have not power to suppress anything that comes regularly before them from Inferior Judicatures according to our known rules, or such Overtures and petitions as Inferior Judicatures or particular persons desire to have laid before this Synod."

1789 p. 8, Dig. p. 213. The General Assembly of 1789 declared: "The General Assembly, at every meeting, shall appoint a Committee of Bills and Overtures to prepare and digest business for the Assembly."

1822 p. 42, Dig. p. 213. The Assembly of 1822 enacted as follows: "Petitions, questions relating to doctrine, or order, and usually all new propositions tending to general laws, should be laid before the Committee of Bills and Overtures before they be offered to the Assembly."

1870 p. 90. Dig. p. 547. The Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, said: "It is recommended that the Assembly order that hereafter Bills and Overtures come up only from Synods or Presbyteries; yet, that this may not prevent any Committee of Bills and Overtures from bringing before the House, of its own motion, upon a two-thirds vote of the Committee, any matter which they may deem of sufficient importance to engage the attention of the Assembly."

In view of these deliverances which, so far as we can find, have never been changed, it seems to be plain that the Committee of Bills and Overtures is the proper business Committee of the Assembly, and that it belongs to this Committee to receive and to consider all Bills, Overtures, Petitions, etc., before they are laid before the Assembly, and to recommend the proper disposition or reference of the same.

That the action herein described has been the historic practice of the Assembly up to a comparatively recent date, is, we believe, undisputed.

More recently, however, it has become customary for the Stated Clerk to receive and consider such documents as are to be laid before the Assembly, and to recommend the proper reference and disposition of them.*

Your Committee believe this practice to be an error, and for these reasons:

1. It is a departure from the established order and the historic practice of the Church.

2. It practically concentrates, to a large extent, the powers and duties of the Committee on Bills and Overtures in a single person, the Stated Clerk, who usually is not a member of the Assembly.

3. It partly defeats the object for which the Committee on Bills and Overtures was appointed, viz.: "To prepare and digest business for the Assembly." And it is manifestly impossible for any one person to give to the documents which come before the Assembly such consideration as they deserve.

The Committee therefore recommend "that Standing Order No. 6 be changed so as to read: Rule 6. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and shall then deliver them to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures."

The Judicial Committee reported:

Paper, No. 1, is a complaint of Sadie Hall against the Synod of Ohio, for refusing to investigate certain charges against the Faculty of the University of Wooster, charged by the complainant with allowing certain students to slander complainant and her friends; such refusal of the Synod being placed on the ground "that the matter and the form of the complaint are beyond the jurisdiction of the Synod."

In such decision, your Committee are unanimously of the opinion that the Synod was right; and they therefore recommend that the complaint be dismissed. Adopted.

Paper, No. 2, is an appeal of the Rev. Jared M. Chavis, a member of the Presbytery of Atlantic, from the decision of the Presbytery, upon charges brought against him for alleged immorality.

From the certified copy of the decision, sent up by the Presbytery, it appears that the charges were not investigated on the merits, but failed of trial, because of the refusal of witnesses to attend and testify; and for this cause the Presbytery decided to drop the case against the Rev. J. M. Chavis as charged in the indictment. But in the recital of the charge, and the facts grounding the decision, the Presbytery insert an opinion in the following words: * * *

Your Committee are of the opinion that the Presbytery erred in incorporating such an opinion in their decision, in the absence of all testimony to justify the same.

Your Committee are of the opinion, that the appellant has shown a sufficient reason for bringing this Appeal to the General Assembly, without first going to the Synod of Atlantic.

After discussion, the Assembly directed that the case be referred to the Synod of Atlantic, with instructions to take the proper action in the premises.

In the examination of the Appeal of Mr. Chavis, it has appeared that great irregularities of administration and discipline exists in the Presbytery of Atlantic, and in some of its churches, which require investigation and correction; and, to that end, your Committee beg leave to recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Rev. E. E. Swift, D. D., the Rev. James Allison, D.D., the Rev. R. H. Allen, D.D., James B. Lyon, Esq., and John C. McComb, Esq., officers and members of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, be, and they are hereby appointed a Committee, and are instructed to visit the Presbytery of Atlantic, and the churches thereof, to inquire into their condition, and any irregularities of practice or discipline, which may exist therein; and to aid with their advice in correcting the same, and, so far as possible, to strengthen and encourage the churches, pastors and missionaries in the bounds of said Presbytery; and that the Committee make report of their doings to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That the necessary expenses of the Committee be audited by said Board, and be paid out of the Treasury thereof. Adopted.

Paper, No. 3, is a Memorial of the Presbytery of Furrukhabad, to the General Assembly, dated, February 21st, 1884, asking that the Resolution of the last General Assembly, censuring the said Presbytery, and directing it to reconsider its action in restoring Rev. John S. Woodside to the ministry (see Minutes page 628, 4), be revoked, and that the case be referred to the Synod of India for final adjudication.

1. Your Committee find that said action was taken upon a complaint of the Presbytery of Saharanpur against the Board of Foreign Missions, for employing Mr. Woodside while under sentence of deposition by said Presbytery of Saharanpur.

2. That the Presbytery of Furrukhabad was not complained of, nor even named or referred to in said complaint.

3. That the Presbytery of Furrukhabad was not notified of the presentation of said complaint, nor was it cited to appear in answer to the same, nor to give reasons for its action; it had no representative in the Assembly, and its records were not before the Assembly or its Committee; and the Presbytery, therefore, had no opportunity to defend itself, nor to justify its action before the General Assembly.

All the facts in respect to the deposition and restoration of Mr. Woodside, took place in India, and the Synod of India, being on the ground, has means and facilities for examining the case, and reaching a just and fair decision upon all the merits of the question at issue, between the Presbyteries, which it is difficult, if not impossible, for the General Assembly to avail itself of; and to that Synod the whole matter should, in the opinion of your Committee, be remitted for determination subject to final review in a regular way by the General Assembly.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Resolution of the last General Assembly (Minutes p. 628, 4), in respect to the action of the Presbytery of Furrukhabad, in restoring John S. Woodside to the ministry, and the direction there given to the Presbytery, be, and they are hereby revoked, and that the whole case be, and the same is hereby referred to the Synod of India, for its review, examination, and adjudication, according to the Constitution of the Church. Adopted.

The Permanent Committee on the place of meeting of the next General Assembly presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on the place of meeting of the next Assembly respectfully report that they have received invitations from the First Church and the Ministeral Association of Cincinnati, Ohio, from the First Church of Asbury Park, N. J., from the Westminster Church, Minneapolis, Minn., from the First Church of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and from the New York Avenue Church, and the pastors and elders of Washington, D. C.

The General Assembly is to be congratulated upon the increasing interest in its deliberations, witnessed to by these cordial invitations from churches and Church officers in widely separated parts of our great land. The size of the Assembly does not appear to be a limit to the generosity of the Church.

While appreciating, however, the kindly spirit which characterizes all the invitations extended, your Committee, having in view the great moral influence which the Assembly wields through its meetings in large communities, such as Minneapolis or Cincinnati, and having especially in mind the state of the Treasury, which seems to forbid the acceptance of the invitation to meet in the first-named city, do unanimously recommend the First Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, as the place of meeting of the General Assembly of 1885. The Session of said Church, through the pastor, the Rev. Francis C. Monfort, D.D., agrees, if the invitation is accepted, to entertain, "free of charge, two hundred commissioners, and as many more at $1.00 each, per day, as may be present."

We also recommend that the following Committee of Arrangements be appointed: Ministers—Francis C. Monfort, D.D., J. P. E. Kumler, D.D., George C. Heckman, D.D., Alexander B. Morey; Elders—William McAlpin, William Howard Neff, Robert S.

Fulton, Hugh Stewart, Thomas MacDougal, William Ernst, Henry H. Finch; and that said Committee have power to add to their numbers.

We further recommend that the Stated Clerk acknowledge with thanks the reception of the invitations extended to the General Assembly, by all the churches named in the Report.

Resolved, That the matter of securing reduction of Railroad fares for the Commissioners to the General Assembly be placed in the hands of the Committee of Arrangements for the meeting of the next Assembly, and that the Stated Clerk, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., be added to the Committee.

The Assembly adjourned, and closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 26th, 3 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Rev. John G. Hall, D.D., in behalf of himself and others, offered the following Protest, which was received, and ordered to be put on record:

The subscribers do respectfully protest against the action of the Assembly, on last Saturday, on the Report of the minority of the Committee on Publication, requesting the action proposed by the said minority; and for the following reason in general, the fact that the minority was entirely unheard before the Assembly, in explanation and justification of their Report; and also for the following particular causes:

1. The Chairman of the minority making the Report, was absent from the Assembly, by reason of sudden and violent sickness.

2. The Rev. Dr. Harper, the other clerical member of the minority, was absent from the Assembly, having been summoned, by telegraph, to the sick bed of his daughter.

3. The elders on the minority were prevented from being heard by the prevalence of the motion to take the "previous question."

For these reasons we protest against the aforesaid action of the Assembly, upon the said minority's Report, and desire that the minority be heard in a simple statement by the Chairman of the minority.

Signed, John G. Hall, T. R. Crawford, J. R. Hughes, James Quick, B. D. Luther, J. G. Hunter, A. J. Waugh, J. E. Alexander, Peter Maxwell, J. E. Smith, C. D. Curtis, I. S. Spencer, Alfred Nevin, J. B. Coulter.

The unfinished business was taken up, being the Resolution upon the Nez Percé Indians, which was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, That this Assembly respectfully petitions Congress to pass the Bill now pending, for the relief of the Nez Percé Indians, as present in the Indian Territory.

The Paper offered by the Rev. Robert Beer, proposing certain amendments to the Book of Discipline, was taken up, and laid upon the table.

The following Paper was adopted with reference to the Revised Book of Discipline:

"The General Assembly does hereby declare that no process heretofore commenced should abate by reason of the adoption of the Revised Book of Discipline, and all judicatories, before which such process is now pending, are hereby advised to issue and determine such cases in accordance with the mode of procedure, and under the provisions of the Revised Book of Discipline."

The Special Committee on Concerts of Prayer presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Concerts of Prayer would respectfully recommend:

1. That the week beginning with the first Sabbath (4th) of January next, be observed by all our congregations as "a Week of Prayer" for the conversion of the world; and that in its observance, our churches be requested to follow, so far as may be practicable, the series of subjects published by the Evangelical Alliance.

2. That the last Thursday of January next be observed by all our churches and literary institutions, as a day of prayer for the influence of the Holy Spirit upon our colleges and seminaries and schools; that our youth gathered therein may be converted to Christ, and more completely consecrated to His service, and that larger numbers of our young men may be inclined to seek the work of the ministry.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented an additional report with reference to the Directors elected in certain of the Seminaries during the year. The Report was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries report to the General Assembly the names of the following persons elected Directors of the Seminaries herein specified:

Theological Seminary of the Northwest.—Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Thomas D. Ewing, D.D., Robert F. Sample, D.D., Rev. Josiah Milligan, John W. Dinsmore, D.D., Henry Phelps, Esq., Wm. H. Swift, Esq., Thomas A. Galt, Esq., Hon. John Coats, H. T. Clarke, Esq., and in place of Rev. Albert J. Berger of the Class of 1885, the Rev. John N. Freeman.

Resolved, That the Resolutions referring to the keeping of the Sabbath, and the preservation of the rights of conscience as guaranteed by our Constitution, as passed by this General Assembly, be transmitted to our sister ecclesiastical gatherings now in session or soon to be, with request to concur in the same or similar Resolutions, which shall be sent to the respective United States authorities named therein.

The Special Committee with reference to the death of Commissioner William G. Case, presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, We have learned that Elder Wm. G. Case, a Commissioner to this Assembly, from the Los Angeles Presbytery, while on his way, was stricken down with apoplexy, and died at Kansas City, May 11, 1884, therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Elder Case, this Assembly realizes the loss of one of its members, and hereby extends to the bereaved family its sympathy, and in prayer seeks the presence and blessing of Him who is able to comfort and sustain the hearts and lives of those so suddenly bereaved. Further, we would extend the condolence of this Assembly to Elder Addison R. Flint of the Presbytery of Oregon, who, while on his way to this Assembly as a Commissioner, was bereft of his wife by death.

We recommend that this Report be put upon the Minutes of the Assembly, and a copy sent to the surviving companions.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented its final Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Correspondence submits the following report:

The Committee has introduced to the Assembly, duly accredited, Corresponding Delegates, Rev. J. B. Stratton, D.D., from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and Rev. Cornelius Brett, from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America. These Delegates have been heard by the Assembly.

According to your direction, the Committee has transmitted telegrams to the Luther Statue Association, Washington, D. C., to Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D.D., Richmond, Va., and to the Baptist National Societies now convened in Detroit, Mich.

The Committee, also has prepared according to your order, answers to the Resolutions, and to the Letter of fraternal regard transmitted to this Assembly by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. These answers have been adopted by your action.

Under instruction of the Assembly, your Committee of Correspondence makes the following nominations of two ministers and one elder, viz.: Rev. John Hall, D.D., of New York, Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D., of Columbus, Ohio, and Elder Ormond Beatty, LL.D., of Kentucky, to constitute a Committee to have charge of the matter of correspondence by letter with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and to report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee was discharged.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported:

Overture No. 26, from the Stated Clerk representing the Presbytery of Boulder, inquiring

1. Wherein consists the distinction between an "informal" meeting of a Session, and a "regular" meeting?

2. Ought the acts of informal meetings to be entered on the records before they have been ratified in a regular meeting?

3. Is it regular to receive members to the Church, especially on a profession of their faith, or to appoint delegates to the Presbytery or the Synod, at such informal meetings of Session?

4. Ought not the validity of an elder's seat in the superior judicatories to be determined by the record of his due appointment at a regular meeting of the Session; and in the absence of such a record, might not an elder, in a test case involving important issues, be denied his seat constitutionally?

5. Ought a Session to send up its Records for review without first reviewing them itself, and formally ratifying any informal acts at a regular meeting? In particular, is it proper that the last entry should be a memorandum acted upon at an informal meeting, which can be approved only after the Presbytery has adjourned?

The Committee recommends the following answer:

The Acts referred to in this Overture are properly Official Acts, which the Judicatory is competent to perform only when regularly convened, and making due record of its proceedings. (See Form of Gov. Chap. IX, Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8.) While the act of opening and closing the meetings of a Session with prayer is not enjoined by the Constitution, this Assembly, in accordance with the views expressed by the Assembly of 1877, judges it to be in harmony with the spirit of the Constitution, and the prevailing usage of the Church, to observe this solemnity at all meetings of record, except that the opening prayer may properly be omitted after a Divine service.

Overture, No. 27, from the Presbytery of Cleveland, asking the Assembly to amend the Directory of Worship, so as more distinctly to enumerate the benevolent offerings among the enjoined acts of public worship, and to make a more adequate statement of the present duty of the Church, under the call to conquer the world for Christ.

It is recommended that the Overture be referred to the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

Overture, No. 28, from the Presbytery of Cairo, asking

1. Is the election of female members of the Church, to the office of Deaconess, consistent with Presbyterian polity?

2. If proper to elect them, should they be installed; and if installed, should it be done by the regular form for the ordination of deacons, or otherwise?

3. Does the Presbyterial Action, authorizing the election and installation of elders for a limited term of service, apply also to deacons?

The Committee recommends the following answer:

To questions 1 and 2: The Form of Government, Chap. XIII, Sec. 2, declares that "in all cases the persons elected, must be male members." In all ages of the Church, godly women have been appointed to aid the officers of the Church in their labors, especially for the relief of the poor and the infirm. They rendered important service in the Apostolic Church; but they do not appear to have occupied a separate office, to have been elected by the people, or to have been ordained and installed. There is nothing in our Constitution, in the practice of our Church, or in any present emergency, to justify the creation of a new office.

To question 3: The Form of Government gives no authority for the election of deacons for a limited term of service. (See Minutes of 1883, p. 626.)

Overture, No. 29, inquiring whether the action of the last Assembly annuls the election of deacons chosen to serve for a term of years.

The Committee recommends the following answer: That as there is no provision in the Constitution for limiting the service of deacons, those who have been chosen to that office cannot be divested of it at the expiration of any designated term, unless by their own resignation, or according to the provisions of the Constitution.

Overture, No. 30, from the Presbytery of Erie, asking the following questions:

1. Is a Presbytery right in confirming the action of congregations which elect Ruling Elders for terms of four and five years?

2. Must the term of service of elders be only three years?

The Committee recommends the following answer: The Form of Government, Chap. XIII, Sec. 8, provides that Ruling Elders may be elected for "a limited time in the exercise of their functions * * * provided the full term be not less than three years, and the Session be made to consist of three classes, one of which only shall be elected every year." The provisions of this Section cannot be carried out should the elders be elected for a longer or shorter term than three years.

Overture, No. 31, asking that an amendment to Section 115 of the Revised Book of Discipline be submitted to the Presbyteries, in the following form:

Shall Section 115 of the Revised Book of Discipline be amended by striking out the words "If a parent of a baptized child or baptized children be dismissed, the words 'with his or her baptized children' shall be included in the certificate of dismission," and substituting the following:

"The names of the baptized children of a parent seeking dismission to another Church, shall, if such children are members of his household and remove with him, and are not themselves communicants, be included in the certificate of dismission."

The Committee recommends that the Assembly adopt this Overture, and transmit it to the Presbyteries for their action.

Overture, No. 32, from the Presbytery of Schuyler, as follows:

Is reordination necessary in the restoration of a deposed minister to the sacred office? And in view of the provisions of the Revised Book of Discipline will reordination be necessary in the restoration to the ministry of those by whom the office has been demitted?

The Committee recommends the following answer:

It is the judgment of this General Assembly that when a minister is deposed his office is taken from him, he becomes a layman, and according to the New Book of Discipline, Sec. 44, he is to be enrolled as a communicant in a particular Church. Should he be recalled to the ministry, therefore, he should be reordained.

The same course ought to be adopted in the restoration of one who has demitted the ministry; inasmuch as the Book of Discipline, Sec. 51, describes one who has demitted the sacred office as returning "to the condition of a private member of the Church."

Overture, No. 33, asking the Assembly to reaffirm the action of the Assemblies of 1845 and 1858, on the relations of the Church Session to the music as a part of the worship of God.

This General Assembly hereby re-affirms the action taken by the Assemblies of 1845 and 1858, as follows:

Whereas, By our Constitution (Form of Gov., Chap. IX, Sec. 6, and Directory for Worship, Chap. IV, Sec. 4) the whole internal arrangement of a Church as to worship and order is committed to the minister and Session, therefore

Resolved, That this Assembly do not feel themselves called upon and obliged to take any further order on this subject, but leave to each Session the delicate and important matter of arranging and conducting the music as to them shall seem most for edification, recommending great caution, prudence, and forbearance in regard to it.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 26th, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Rev. Joseph E. Nassau, D.D., one of the Temporary Clerks, was empowered by unanimous consent, to cast, in the name of the Assembly, a ballot for the election of Trustees of the Board of Church Erection for three years, and the following were elected:

Ministers—John Hall, D.D., Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., Erskine N. White, D.D., John Gillespie, D.D.; Elders—Stephen W. Thayer, Benjamin F. Dunning, William W. Crane.

Rev. Joseph E. Nassau, D.D., was also empowered, by unanimous consent, to cast, in the name of the General Assembly, a ballot for the election of Trustees of the Presbyterian House; and the following persons were duly elected:

Ministers—Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., Charles A. Dickey, D.D.; Elders—Charles M. Lukens, Alexander Whilldin, T. Charlton Henry.

The Standing Committee on Synodical Records severally reported, and on their recommendation the Minutes of the following Synods were approved:

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Baltimore, reported as follows:

That they have not been able to do any work for the reason that no certified copy of said Minutes has been present at the Assembly.

The report was accepted, and the Synod of Baltimore was directed to send a certified copy of its Minutes to the next Assembly.

The Minutes of the Synod of Minnesota were approved, with the following exceptions:

1. In several instances the written minutes merely state that reports are made, which reports were received and adopted, while the minutes show that such reports contained important recommendations, or resolutions.

2. Synod adjourned without the reading and approval of the minutes of the last day of the session.

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly are due, and are hereby presented to the Rev. Dr. George P. Hays, for the able, impartial, efficient and satisfactory manner in which he has presided over this body, and we humbly pray, that in the good Providence of God, he may be returned to his important field of labor richly laden with the blessings of the Gospel of Peace.

Additional Resolutions of thanks were also passed as follows:

1. That the other officers of the Assembly, by their fidelity, courtesy and kindness, have commanded the respect and esteem of the Assembly, and are entitled to its cordial thanks.

2. That the Committee of Arrangements, by their judicious and hospitable care for the members, have won our sincere gratitude, and as gratitude has been defined to be "a lively sense of favors to come," we hope to experience a repetition of their kindness at some future day.

3. That the thanks of this Assembly are hereby extended to the Church and congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Saratoga Springs, for the use of their house of worship.

4. That the small pecuniary return we have made to the families in which we have been entertained, does not release us from the obligation to express to them our sincere thanks for the kind attentions they have shown us, making our sojourn among them exceedingly agreeable, and our brief visit will be a pleasant memory during the residue of our lives.

5. That the various railroad and steamboat companies which have granted a reduction of fares to the members, amounting to the sum of $10,000, and in particular, the Joint Executive Committee, its officers and its agent, Mr. D. F. Drew, are entitled to our thanks for their liberality, and that the Stated Clerk, by whose agency these reductions were secured, is requested to accept our thanks, and to do so again.

6. That we are greatly indebted to the Mt. McGregor railroad for pleasant excursions over that remarkable road to the summit of the mountain, giving us wide and picturesque views of the goodly land in the midst of which we have been sojourning, and also of the land that is afar off.

7. We also present our thanks to the Supervisor of the town, Mr. Joseph Baucus; the trustees of the village; Mr. George T. Church, Superintendent of Schools; and the Water Commissioners, Messrs. Melon and Gale, for their kindness in providing rooms for our use in the Town Hall, and other facilities that we have enjoyed.

8. That the newspapers of Saratoga, by their remarkably faithful, full and able reports of the proceedings are specially entitled to our thanks, and that we recognize in these village papers a model of healthful, pure and judicious journalism.

9. That we have enjoyed the delightful climate of Saratoga, and its unrivaled mineral waters, making it the only place in the country, in the words of another, where "the more a man drinks the more sober he feels," and that we attribute to them, in part at least, that abundant measure of health which we have enjoyed throughout these laborious sessions, and that we return our thanks to the proprietor of the Excelsior Spring, for the free supply of its waters during our sessions.

10. That while we recognize the hand of God in the death of one of our members (but not by accident) while on his journey hither, our hearts should rise in gratitude to our Father in heaven for the health and safety and enjoyment we have had in our travels and our residence here, for strength to discharge our duties, for the unbroken harmony that has prevailed through every hour of our deliberations, and with our gratitude we join in prayer that He who holds our lives in His hand, will bring us in peace to our several homes, and finally will grant us entrance into the General Assembly and Church of the First Born, which are written in heaven.

The several Standing Committees having no further business to submit, were discharged.

The Roll was called, and the names of Commissioners who were absent without leave were ordered to be entered on the minutes, and are as follows:

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Obituary and Fraternal Letters.

ANNUAL NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, MAY, 1884.

MATERIAL PROSPERITY.

Church edifices have been erected, Church debts removed, and in most instances the salaries of ministers have been promptly paid.

It is safe to say, that the financial condition of the Church has never been better, and that she has never been more thoroughly equipped and furnished with the temporalities necessary to the accomplishment of her great work.

BENEVOLENCE.

With scarcely an exception the Narratives of the Presbyteries indicate growth and development in Christian benevolence.

The subject of systematic Christian giving is receiving greater attention than at any period in the previous history of the Church. The principle of giving intelligently and systematically, "as the Lord has prospered them," is becoming more thoroughly understood and generally practiced, and ministers are realizing the necessity of instructing the congregations, under their care, in this matter.

CHRISTIAN WORK.

There is every indication that the undeveloped resources and latent power residing in the laity, are being more fully appreciated and utilized. Christians are realizing their individual responsibility, for the talents intrusted to them, and the necessity, not only of giving, but of personal effort for advancing the interests of Christ's Kingdom. The friends of Christ are entering into fuller sympathy with Him, whose mission it was "to seek and save that which was lost," and are realizing, more and more, that holiness, in a very essential sense, means helpfulness. This spirit of helpfulness manifests itself, in the organization of City Missions, Schools for the Chinese and Indians dwelling in our midst, and other kindred enterprises, but more particularly in the rapid growth and increased activity in our

SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

During the past year the number of teachers and scholars has been greatly multiplied, the gain over the preceding year being 62,470. Activity in this department of Church work is seen, not only in the increase of numbers, but in the organization of teachers' meetings and institutes; Normal and Bible classes; the employment of other means of preparing teachers for their duty; and rendering the schools more effective. All the Narratives speak most encouragingly of the Sabbath-school Work.

Whilst it is to be regretted that the Shorter Catechism is not more universally taught in our families and schools, it is encouraging to know that there is a revival of interest in this blessed compendium of Divine truth and symbol of our faith.

The Church is becoming more alive to the importance of instructing and interesting the young. Many of the churches report the organization and existence of Young Peoples' Meetings, Associations and Societies, with beneficial results. A disposition is wisely manifested to protect the young from the allurements of the world, and participation in doubtful or unlawful amusements, by furnishing them with useful and pleasing employment and amusement, within the social circles of the Church. Aside from faithful instruction in Christian duty and a proper exercise of parental authority, no better method can be employed, to protect the young from doubtful pleasures, than to provide better things to occupy their time and attention.

WOMAN'S WORK.

From all parts of the land, the Narratives, with scarcely an exception, testify to the extension, usefulness and success of Woman's Work. Numerous societies have been organized in the interest of Home and Foreign Missions and for other benevolent purposes. Such has been the success attending the labors of the Christian women of our Church, that congregations and Church enterprises are seeking their help.

One promising feature of Woman's Work, which has been attended with good results, is the organization of mission bands, and bands of willing workers among the children. By these, the children are instructed and interested in missions, and learn the duty and privilege of Christian benevolence.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Some of the indices by which the spiritual condition of the Church is indicated, are the faithfulness with which the Word of God is preached, the diligence with which the means of grace are used, the number of additions to the Church, its peace and unity and the tone of its piety.

The Narratives of the Presbyteries show that peace and unity have prevailed; that the Word of God has been faithfully proclaimed, and that the attendance upon prayer meetings and Sabbath services within the bounds of most of the Presbyteries has increased; though there is a very general complaint that Sabbath evening services are not as well attended as is desirable. Loose opinions and practices, in reference to the observance of the Sabbath, are assigned as the cause of this.

Whilst no general or wide-spread revival of religion is reported, many have been added to the Church, indicating the continuous presence of the Holy Spirit with His people in the regular means of grace. In some sections of the country, and notably within the bounds of the Synod of Illinois, special times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord are reported. Throughout the entire Church, so far as heard from, the increase in the number added to the Church, in excess of the preceding year, is about 13,000.

MORALITY.

Judging from the means of information afforded, the standard of Christian morality has not lowered. We cannot remain silent, however, in reference to the fact that from many portions of our land complaint is made of worldliness, Sabbath desecration, inordinate love of pleasure and riches. There exists, what, for want of a more definite word, may be termed an inordinate spirit of mercantilism. A disposition to determine the moral quality of an act by a standard of pecuniary loss or gain. The claims of business are deemed a sufficient justification for violations of the moral law and Christian duty. Sunday papers are read, mails opened and examined, railroads operated, and in some instances the work of factories carried on, upon the plea that these things are allowed by the interests of business and commerce. The sanctity of the Sabbath may it seems be disregarded, if its observance requires pecuniary sacrifice.

Another demoralizing evil, which in many parts of the country is attaining to gigantic proportions, is that species of commercial gambling known as dealing in options. Many in making haste to be rich by this method, have made shipwreck of their fortunes and Christian character, bringing reproach upon the cause of religion.

Against all forms of immorality, whether sanctioned by custom or not, the Church should bear testimony. Faithfulness to moral obligations, is of the very essence of Christian life. The Gospel reveals its power in the purer morality to which it leads.

TEMPERANCE.

The Narratives show a universal and increasing interest and activity in the temperance work. The standard of temperance universally maintained, is total abstinence. The Church is not only bearing testimony against intemperance, but she is affirming, that if eating meat, or drinking wine, causes a brother to offend, it is the part of Christian charity to eat no meat and drink no wine, while the world stands! She is saying to the world, "Woe unto him who putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lips."

Though differences of opinion exist as to the method by which the end is to be attained, there is great unanimity in the belief that the sale of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, should be abolished. This is notably the case in the State of Iowa, in which the people, largely through the influence of the various churches, have reaffirmed their adherence to prohibition, and have passed a stringent law, which takes effect on the Fourth of July next ensuing.

In reviewing the year and surveying the entire field, there is abundant occasion for praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God. The year has been one of great increase in material prosperity, benevolence, Christian activity and numerical strength.

After surveying the field and the engagements of the year, it is customary to call the roll of those who have fallen at their post of duty, as good soldiers of Jesus Christ!

Of these, there have been ninety-three ministers, and many loved and honored elders, who, having fought the good fight, having kept the faith, having finished their course, have gone to receive the crown, that the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give them at His appearing. Standing under the shadow of death, through tears of sorrow, and in heart-felt sympathy with the bereaved, we look by faith upon the innumerable company of those who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb, confidently expecting to see those whose death we are called upon to record. Though they have gone, as we confidently hope, to join the General Assembly and Church of the First Born, whose names are written in heaven, their names are still cherished in the Church upon earth. Being dead, they yet speak to us by their godly lives, Christian character and the blessed results of their earnest labors. They rest from their labors and their works do follow them. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

FRATERNAL LETTER

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. OF AMERICA, IN THE NAME AND IN BEHALF OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES, GREETINGS AND CHRISTIAN SALUTATIONS, IN THE NAME OF THE LORD JESUS, THE GREAT HEAD OF THE CHURCH.

Dear Fathers and Brethren in Christ:

It is with unfeigned satisfaction that we send you this epistle, though a very incompetent one, as expressive of our fraternal regard, and our joy in you and your work, as a member of the great Household of Faith, laboring to bring in the reign of righteousness upon the earth. As for all the members of Christ's mystical Body, we cease not to pray that your prosperity may abound more and more, that peace and unity may serenely dwell in all your borders, and that great grace and glory may crown all your endeavors to establish the Kingdom of God among men. We have watched with Christian anxiety your progress in all that pertains to the work of the Lord, and have not failed to render sincere thanksgivings of heart for every step of advancement you have made in the Master's work, for every enlargement of your field of toil, for the additional intensity which your Church life reveals in all her activities, from year to year, and for every success you achieve for the Truth and Him who is its Divine Author. There is nothing involving your welfare that is alien to us. The Household is one, though the members are many.

Permit us to congratulate you upon the testimony that you, as a Church, still continue to bear to all those truths which we regard as vital to Christianity, and the preaching of which Christ committed to His Church, to be declared in all lands and among all peoples. The times through which we are passing are peculiar as to their religious tendencies, and testing to the Church as the Divinely appointed guardian of revealed truth. An egotism that calls itself philosophy, and a criticism that arrogates to itself the essentials of scientific certainty, are endeavoring to undermine many of those doctrines that have given strength and comfort to Christian hearts in all times, and have overthrown the faith of many and emptied the faith of more of its saving contents. And, what is more to be deplored among those who are engaged in this work of destruction, unwittingly—our charity will not allow us to doubt—are some whose hearts are in deep sympathy with the cause of Christ, and who imagine they are rendering that cause a service by injecting doubts into the public mind touching the authority and nature of the Holy Scriptures. While they have stimulated a more thorough study of the Word by their attacks upon its integrity, and thus have added to its defenses, yet, there can be no doubt, but their labors have been productive of much evil. But in this, as in so many other historical instances in which the faith seemed about to suffer, the good Hand of our God has been seen overruling evil for good.

In all these contentions which have arisen, our faith has not been disturbed in the outcome, neither have our hopes gone into eclipse as to the hastening of the triumphs of Him who is the Truth. Under all conditions we be firmly persuaded that the counsel of the Lord shall stand. We have walked about Zion and marked her bulwarks and counted her towers and returned to our altars assured. We have there offered sacrifices of thanksgiving that her defenders so abound and are inspired with the spirit of courage and fortitude, and be so well able to go up against her foes. We feel confident you will not suspect us as dealing in flattery when we say, that we hold the Presbyterian Church as one of the stanchest bulwarks of the faith, one of the towers most difficult to capture, and her sons as among the most able and skillful leaders of the Lord's Hosts. We thank God in behalf of our common cause for the deliverances of your General Assemblies, committing your Church to sound doctrine; for your institutions of learning, which have stood in unbroken line to stay the floods of unbelief; for your scholars, so many, so learned and so true, who have not hesitated to consecrate their varied accomplishments to a resistance of the literary fashion of the day in dealing with God's Word; and for your periodicals, so thoroughly devoted to the enforcement of sound doctrine and evangelical instruction, without which true and beautiful Christian life and character can scarcely be formed. No branch of God's Church has done or is doing better service in this regard than the one of which you are the worthy representatives.

It is with much satisfaction that we remember between you and us there is no great doctrinal gulf fixed, dividing us in sympathy and shutting us off from fellowship. We do not pretend that there are no differences of belief, that the symbols of doctrine of the one are the symbols of both, but it is permitted us to believe that in all fundamentals we are at one. The points at which we diverge are more metaphysical than doctrinal and do not prevent our hearty and fraternal co-working in the vineyard of our Master. It is true that these divergencies have occasioned hot intellectual strifes in other days, as though they were of the essence of doctrinal differences, but these were doubtless needed to purge the vision of the parties and bring out the true nature of the matters in dispute, and reveal the firm, broad basis of evangelical truth, which rests beneath us, as well as you, and which, when discovered, invites to fraternal and loving occupancy those already of one spirit in Christ Jesus.

With you we believe in God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, three Persons making the Godhead complete and constituting one ever blessed and eternal Trinity in Unity. You believe in the Deity of Christ and the Holy Ghost; to us these are precious truths. You believe in the vicarious offering of Jesus Christ, thus making atonement for the sins of the world; in this is our only hope. You believe in the Holy Ghost, the Convincer of sin, the Comforter of the Church, the Sanctifier of souls; from the first we have held to these truths, and never more firmly than now. You believe that it is by grace through faith we are saved; this is the experience of all Methodists. You believe in the eternal awards of the judgment; so do we. You believe in the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; we are looking, and hastening to His appearing. You believe in the resurrection of the dead; we cease not to preach it day nor night. Surely with such a basis of conviction common to us both, there need be no strife between Presbyterian and Methodist herdsmen, but only a generous rivalry as to which shall feed their respective flocks the better, bring in the greater number of the lost sheep and develop the most perfectly those qualities which the Great Shepherd delighteth to behold in His sheep. And let God be thanked! there is no strife between them.

It is with hopeful, grateful hearts that we testify to your zeal and efficiency in evangelistic labor. A large portion of our country is occupied by the dispersed ones to whom the Gospel must be carried, as of old, by angels of the Church passing to and fro, announcing the message of peace and calling upon men everywhere to repent. It was said by one of the most distinguished Presbyterians that "Methodism is Christianity in earnest," referring, in part at least, to her readiness and effectiveness in occupying new fields that were lying waste. We are willing to believe that the opinion of Chalmers was not wholly unmerited, and that it would not be wholly misplaced if applied to us now. But it is with Christian joy we recognize, that, in cultivating the waste places, we find in you, not rivals, not competitors, but hearty co-laborers in the Lord. On the frontiers, Presbyterian pastors are found side by side with their Methodist brethren, both intent upon the same result, the conversion of men and their final salvation. Both build churches in which to worship God; both organize sunday-schools in which to instruct the children; both establish institutions of education that learning and science may occupy their rightful place as adjuncts of faith; both together are striving to lay firm foundations for Christian civilization in new empires; and, both are engaged in a holy contention as to who will do the most to reach the end which each has in view. In all this we think the true unity of the Church finds its best illustration, and the prayer of Christ, that His Church may be one, its fittest and divinest realization. Not in sameness of machinery, not in uniformity, shall that memorable prayer, which should never be forgotten, but ever held as a most sacred command, attain its most perfect expression, but in the great work which the Church has before her, and that Christly spirit which should inspire her in carrying on her Divine mission. No difficulty do we experience in together sowing the field, in together reaping the harvest. That that we sow is the Word of God; we reap souls for our harvest. We simply invite you to join us in more extended labors, in a more exemplary industry, in a purer zeal, in fuller consecration, and shall ask the favor of being allowed to rejoice in your prosperity and mourn over your adversity, if that at any time be appointed you.

Another point upon which we congratulate you, and your Christian brethren as well, is the care you are taking to fulfill the last command of our Saviour. Nothing can be more touching than His remembrance of men, those that were far off as well as that were nigh, even to the moment of His ascending up on high. As He had died for all men, so He commanded it to be told to all men. As His atonement was complete for the sins of the whole world, so He ordered a proclamation of its virtue to be made to the whole world. As the propitiatory offering of Himself was satisfactory to the Father, laying a basis broad and firm enough for the redemption of the race, and pardon for every soul of man, so He could not return to the Glory which He had left till He had given the command which knows no repeal: "Go, preach my Gospel to every creature." This command has not fallen lifeless upon the consciences of Presbyterians. You are among the foremost of the churches in missionary enterprise and your example is stimulating to us. You have ears keen to hear the Macedonian cry, and hearts sympathetic to heed its call, and open hands to meet the wants which prompt its utterance. Your missions, and your benevolence in their support, attest the presence of the Spirit of the Master with you, and to all Christendom are an inspiration to Christian duty and heroism. We thank God in our own behalf and in behalf of the entire household of faith, upon your zeal and great success in preaching the Gospel in the regions beyond you, not boasting in another man's line of things, made ready to your hand. We claim your achievements as ours, for "one is our Master, even Christ."

We bear witness also with great pleasure to your activity and efficiency in all other departments of religious work. Your sunday-schools flourish, your literature abounds, your benevolences are multiplied and your enlargement is sure and steady. May you increase more and more.

We trust we shall not be treading upon forbidden ground if we breathe a hope for the Presbyterianism of America, the fulfillment of which, it seems to us, would honor God and greatly advance His cause. Like Methodism, you are many. As with us, so with you, contentions have arisen, and divisions followed which mar the beauty and symmetry of the Body of Christ. As with us, so with you, where doctrinal unity prevails organic unity has been interrupted. This has led to coldness and deficient sympathy, and, in many cases, to unseemly strife. We sympathize with you in this, for we too feel its evil influence. As a few years ago you set an example to all, full of commendation, by cementing a union between the old and the new, so we indulge the hope that soon you will renew the illustration you then gave of the power of Christian fellowship, by bringing together the separated Presbyterianism of the North and South. Such an event would be one that our country would hail with patriotic delight, and the churches with thanksgiving to God. We are glad to believe that you are advancing towards that consummation.

There is a point of unity between Presbyterianism and Methodism, to which we may refer, that is to us a matter of unfeigned satisfaction. It is the testimony which both bear against an ecclesiastical evil which is of long continuance, and which, notwithstanding its absurdity, still lives and flourishes. We refer to Prelacy and the claims that spring therefrom. The advancement of knowledge, and a sounder understanding of the New Testament, and a better acquaintance with the writings of the early Church, have not rendered a protest unnecessary against all heretical teachings that import a priesthood into the Christian Church, other than that that makes all members of one Body of Christ priests, as well as kings, unto God. No heresy more vicious, no schism more fatal, than to interpolate any one between the individual soul and God, save the Eternal Son, the divinely appointed Mediator between God and man. He is the Great High Priest who, in offering Himself, has made the altar forever approachable to the chief of sinners. Your Church order, your ministerial orders, forbid any other view. So do ours. You have no prelates, we have none. Of Prelacy you have nothing; neither have we. You have your presbuteros-episkopos; so have we. We have our episkopos-presbuteros; so have you. Here we are at one again, as well as in those fundamental doctrines to which we have before referred. And we propose to continue with you our protest against encumbering the Church with ministerial orders, not known to the Apostles and their times.

We fear our letter is already too long, but beg leave to add one thought more. We feel that vast responsibilities rest upon the Church of to-day, and that the times through which we are passing are critical. Human wisdom cannot meet the exigencies that are upon us, "Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." In order to worthy achievements, the same Spirit that came upon the Apostles on the day of Pentecost, must still rest in His fullness upon us. Nothing so needed, always so needed, as the perpetual baptism of the Holy Ghost. With you we will ever pray that the Promised Comforter may abide with the Church, enriching it with all the benedictions of the Godhead, convincing the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment, and sanctifying the Church, thus presenting her to the Father without spot or wrinkle or any such thing. Thus will we pray till the cloud appears upon which our Lord shall come, the second time, to make an end of sin.

Praying that the blessing of God, the Father, the Son and Holy Ghost, may remain with you, making you to abound more and more in good works and all holy living,

We are yours most truly in the fellowship of the Gospel and the bonds of Jesus Christ.

ALFRED WHEELER,

Chairman Committee of Fraternal Correspondence.

REPLY TO THE FRATERNAL LETTER.

TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES, FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, GREETINGS AND SALUTATIONS.

Fathers and Brethren Beloved in Christ:

The General Assembly gathered in Saratoga have heard, with Christian joy, your letter of fraternal regard and good cheer. We have attended to your words. They have struck responsive chords of high esteem and deep affection for you in our breasts. Let us thank God and take courage on this behalf, for we may know thereby that you and we have passed from death unto life because we mutually love the brethren.

Upon our part we recognize, in the tone and contents of your epistle, good reason for glad yet humble thanksgiving to the God of our salvation for His grace to us as a denomination, in that He has enabled us to let our light so shine that you, seeing our good works, have glorified our Father in heaven.

We hasten to bear testimony, in return for that you have been pleased to declare concerning us, that through sovereign grace your light has not been under a bushel, nor your city other than that which is our common heritage, the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God built upon Mount Zion, a city that cannot be hid.

You have been pleased, in your letter, to refer at length to your record and to ours in the past. We judge it, therefore, to be unnecessary to recall in extended review the lines of coincidence which have been discovered in your and our order, spirit and work for the Lord Jesus Christ. Glorious progress has been made in drawing these lines since you on this American Continent in 1784 became a General Conference, and we in 1788 became a General Assembly.

Since these dates it has become more and more evident that with mutual burdens and sorrows, Methodist and Presbyterian have sent up like petitions to the throne of grace; that with a common heritage of honor, Methodist and Presbyterian have taught their children the same great names as household words; that with a common ground for praise and joy Methodist and Presbyterian have sung with the spirit and with the understanding also, the same psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, precious legacies to the Church universal; with a common Gospel and the same commission, your ministers and ours, at home and beyond the seas, have preached Christ and Him crucified as the only hope of a lost race.

Methodist and Presbyterian have held fast the form of sound words, which declares that "except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God;" that "faith without works is dead." These, and like to these, are the glorious commonplaces of our common religion. By such truths and origins and consequences which they involve, the crowns shall be placed upon the head of Immanuel in the day when He shall see of the travail of His soul and shall be satisfied.

And now permit us to refer in gratitude to matters in which your example stirs us to emulate you most vigorously. Not long since you were observed as a denomination to beckon us to follow you on in the great sabbath-school interest of the times, and in devising ways and means for the better education of the great mass of the people, notably in fostering schools of an advanced grade for the youth of both sexes belonging to your constituency.

We are constrained to add that if there were such a passion as righteous envy, we should seek to be possessed by that when we consider your great success in finding a work for every man and a man for every work. We see that when you name churches you name ministers, that you do not fail to feed the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers.

Nevertheless, Brethren, you cannot but hold with us that, if this exchange of brotherly regard end in mere expression of our mutual admiration and esteem, we have lost the time spent in preparing, adopting, and hearing these letters. We must forget the things which are behind. Perfection is not yet attained. Victory is not yet won. We are on the field of conflict. The battle is but fairly initiated. True, great armies are organized and equipped. The orders of our Captain, thanks to the continued demonstration of the Spirit, are well understood. The battle-cry of all true soldiers of the cross is one: "The World for Christ." The preliminary skirmishes of our age, of these last times, appear to be well over. Commanding positions everywhere are occupied by the armies of the Lord of hosts and the word is "Forward." How clearly do we hear such exhortations as these: "Strike to the heart of sin. Overthrow the bulwarks of error, the subterfuges of lies. Set light in the dark places. Prepare the way of Jehovah. Make His paths straight. Give deliverance to the oppressed. Set the captives free." But remember with humble confidence that though Paul may plant and Apollos water, God gives the increase. "This is the victory that overcometh the world even our faith. Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit saith the Lord."

In the day of the appearing of Christ, our common wonder and mutual joy shall be not in what has been accomplished in the good fight by Methodist or by Presbyterian, but in what our God hath wrought through instrumentalities which shall appear as earthen vessels in that day.

We are glad to read in your letter cordial mention of the encouraging fact that throughout the world your ministers and people are living in mutual helpfulness with ours. We desire to move you to emphasize by all your prayers, deliverances and lives, as we would emphasize by ours the imperative, instant and constant necessity that, until the day dawns and the shadows flee away, the great body of spiritual unity which is represented by the Methodist and Presbyterian names, present an unbroken front to resist to the death the appalling evils of our times.

First of all we are likely to be confronted and hindered by those who, wearing the external badge of our profession, are moved to activity by personal ambition and organized rivalries, rather than by undivided consecration to Him who saved others, Himself He could not save. We are liable to be decoyed into indifference to, or to be swept away by the power of that carnal heart which wars against the sanctity of the Sabbath, the purity of domestic life, the lovely amenities of Christian society, the honor of the State which ought to be inviolate toward all classes and conditions of men, all which if restored and preserved, must be preserved and restored largely through the moral power of the grace which is sufficient for you and for us. Against the world, the flesh and the devil, now as ever the voice of Jesus speaking as never man spake, to you and to us cries "Watch;" and the commission of the old prophets comes down to our ministry, "Cry aloud and spare not."

Let us recognize, however, that the real strength of the body, depends not upon forms and dogmas held as intellectual truth and proclaimed with tongues of fire, but upon the fullness of life in all the members. The most convincing, the utterly irrefutable evidence of Christianity, that is suited to this practical age, is Christlike living. That truth is in order to holiness we will agree. Therefore the most efficient army service in the Church militant will be that in which there is the greatest proportion of renewed hearts and consecrated lives, talents, possessions, for the honor of Christ in the saving of men.

As the work of our respective denominations advances more and more to this end of the perfection of individual Christian character, our essential unity will become unmistakably apparent even to the world, and bring conviction to the ends of the earth, of that everlasting love which hath bestowed upon you and us "one Lord, one faith, one baptism."

"Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all." Amen.

III. WESTERN SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Fifty-seventh Annual Report:

Since the last Annual Report, the following twenty students have been admitted to the Seminary by matriculation:

John J. L. Resler,	Otterbein University.
William P. Stevenson,	Westminster College.
Absalom Toner Aller,	Wabash College.
J. Philander Anderson,	Washington and Jefferson College.
Samuel L. Boston,	University of Wooster.
Walter Lowrie Breckenridge,	" " "
David Ghormley Collins,	" " "
George Patterson Donehoo,	Western University.
Frank Fish,	" "
Thomas Jefferson Gray,	University of Wooster.
Hubert Rex Johnson,	Richmond College.
John Hoffman Miller,	Allegheny College.
William Lee Notestein,	" " "
Franklin N. Riall,	" " "
H. Howard Stiles,	" " "
Oliver Newton Verner,	Western University.
Mindo C. Vulcheff,	College of New Jersey.
Henry B. Wilson,	Lincoln University.

Of these, eighteen entered the Junior Class, one the Middle, and one the Post Graduate Class.

In the latter part of the Summer of 1883, the Institution exeprienced a severe bereavement in the death of two of its Professors. Rev. William H. Hornblower, D.D., who occupied the Chair of Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral Theology and Church Government, died, July 16th. While he was a man of extensive and varied learning, he was uniformly courteous in all relations of life. He was stricken with paralysis at the close of a Sabbath morning service, which he had been conducting in one of the churches of Pittsburgh.

Rev. Samuel J. Wilson, D.D., LL.D., was a graduate of the Institution. Having been retained in it as an instructor, in a short time he was elected a Professor, in which position he had been honored with the highest testimonies of the Church's confidence and affection. His death, the result of typhoid fever, occurred August 17th, in the 56th year of his age. He had served the Seminary for twenty-five years with signal efficiency.

The loss of these two Professors and the uncertainty, for a time, as to arrangements for carrying on the work of the Institution, caused an unusual reduction in the number of students.

Charles E. Edwards, Chauncey T. Edwards, Daniel M. Marshman, Fred. G. Coan, Albert M. West, Edson A. Lowe, and D. W. Woods, were dismissed to the Princeton Theological Seminary.

John T. Hopkins, Christian S. McElhinny, James M. Patterson, Milton E. Todd, Samuel E. Ware, William I. Palm, and Ernest M. Snook, were dismissed to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest, at Chicago.

John R. Crosser was dismissed to the Union Theological Seminary, New York city.

The whole number of students has been fifty-nine. Of these, eight have been in the Post Graduate Class; seventeen in the Senior; sixteen in the Middle; and eighteen in the Junior Class.

While the Professors, in meeting the exigency, have fulfilled much more than the service commonly expected, they have been assisted by the following: Rev. W. O. Campbell, who has given instruction in Homiletics; Rev.

J. Walker Miller, in Hebrew; and Prof. Sleath, of Pittsburgh, who has given daily instruction in Elocution.

In accordance with arrangments made by the Board of Directors, Rev. Dr. S. J. Niccolls, of St. Louis, delivered, during the session, ten lectures on the subject of Pastoral Theology, which were listened to with evident high appreciation, both by the students and by many ministers of the cities and suburbs. Rev. Dr. William Speer, of Washington, Pa., also gave a course of four excellent lectures, of an evangelistic character, on the Kingdom of God. This course was also arranged by the Committee of the Board of Directors.

We are thankful to be able to report, that the health of both students and professors, since the beginning of the session, has been unusually good. No serious cases of sickness have occurred. The several classes have prosecuted their work with commendable diligence.

The past year has been marked by an evident increase of the missionary spirit. The Missionary Society, which had heretofore met monthly, has held its meetings this year every week. Five of the Graduating Class, or, one-third of their number, have offered themselves as laborers for the foreign field. Besides these we are glad to note, that the Rev. M. E. Beall, of Bridgeport, Ohio, of the Class of 1882, has this spring been sent out by our Board of Foreign Missions.

Joseph H. Barton,	L. Finley Laverty,
Isaac Boyce,	John S. Plumer,
William P. Chalfant,	Egon Wachter,
William M. Devor,	A. Franklin Walker,
Clarence J. Forsyth,	Quillin L. Young.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, held November 20th, 1883, Rev. Thomas H. Robinson, D.D., of Harrisburg, Pa., was chosen, unanimously, Reunion Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology; and, on Wednesday evening, April 16th, 1884, during the spring meeting of the Board, he was inaugurated according to the regulations prescribed by the General Assembly.

At the meeting of the Board, November 20th, 1883, Rev. Robert Dick Wlison, A.M., of Indiana, Pa., a graduate of the Seminary, was elected Instructor in Sacred and Ecclesiastical History. He entered upon his work with the commencement of the year 1884.

The following changes have taken place in the Board of Directors: Rev. James M. Shields, of Orrville, Ohio, was elected in place of Rev. Sylvester F. Scovel, D.D., who had resigned; Rev. David H. Barron, D.D., of Holidaysburg, Pa., was chosen in the place of Rev. Thomas H. Robinson, D.D., who had resigned; Rev. David Hall, D.D., of Indiana, Pa., was elected in the place of Rev. John W. Bailey, D.D., whose term of service had expired.

The Class of 1884 was re-elected and made the Class of 1888.

THE Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, in accordance with the plan proposed by them, and adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, beg to present to the General Assembly now in session at Saratoga Springs, New York, their Fourteenth Annual Report.

I. DIRECTORS.

The lamented death, on the 22d of September, 1883, of the Rev. Dr. Edwin Francis Hatfield, who had been a member of the Board for thirty-seven years, caused a vacancy, which has since been filled by the election of the Rev. Dr. Edward L. Clark, of New York City. We have now to report the death of Mr. Norman White, whose resignation was reported two years ago. This vacancy has at length been filled by the election of Mr. Heber R. Bishop, of New York City. Two vacancies remain to be filled. One has been caused by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. William M. Paxton, now a Professor in the Seminary at Princeton. Eleven years ago, in 1873, before the munificent gift of Mr. James Brown, the total was $603,871. The income for the year just closed has been about $58,000, and the expenses have been about $68,000.

VII. REMOVAL.

The new buildings on Lenox Hill are now nearly completed. The group consists of four buildings, on Park Avenue, between 69th and 70th streets, surrounding a hollow square. On Park Avenue, fronting Eastward, are the Adams Chapel, the Morgan Library, and Jesup Hall. In the rear, running from street to street, is the Dormitory, erected by D. Willis James, calculated to accommodate about 160 students. Other lots, adjoining the ten occupied by these buildings, are owned by the Seminary, and can be put to any use that may be desired. The new year, which will be the forty-ninth in the history of the Seminary, will begin in the new home.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board of Directors,

P. M. Bartlett, D.D.,	Geo. Denny,

II. FACULTY, ETC.

In the last Annual Report, the General Assembly was informed that we did not deem it expedient to fill the three Professorships then vacant, and that instruction in the various branches of Theology would be given the succeeding year to as many students as might be matriculated under the rules of the Seminary, by the Professor still remaining in office. Only one student has been receiving instruction under this arrangement, and he in only a part of the course, viz.: Mr. Bruer, a candidate for the ministry under the care of West Lexington Presbytery.

In May of last year, after the presentation of our Report for that year, the General Assembly appointed a Committee to confer with a like Committee appointed by the Southern General Assembly in regard to coöperative work by the two branches of the Church. To these Committees was referred the consideration of the question of the joint occupancy of the Danville Seminary by the two branches of the Church, "with the expression of an earnest hope that an adjustment may be made, which, while securing every legal right, shall have high regard to those fraternal relations which have been so happily established." It is understood that these Committees have agreed to recommend to the two Assemblies the joint occupancy of this Seminary. It remains to be seen what the action of the two Assemblies will be. It may be proper, however, at this stage of the proceedings, for this Board to express its hearty concurrence in what our General Assembly has already done in relation to the cherished Institution committed so directly to our guardianship; and further, that we will most cheerfully acquiesce in whatever the Assembly may, in its wisdom, see fit to do at its approaching sessions, with reference to this joint occupancy. We may be permitted to remark, however, that the welfare of the Institution is so vital to the interests of our Church in this section of the country, and especially in the Synod of Kentucky, that we cannot but feel the deepest solicitude in the question at issue.

Any action of the General Assembly looking toward a transfer of this Seminary to any other body would not only be an infringement of our legal rights, but would work disaster to all the interests of our Church in Kentucky, and would tend to render permanent the division, now so unhappily existing. We would gladly welcome our Southern brethren to a fair and equal enjoyment of all the privileges of this Seminary, if they will cordially unite with us on equal terms in its support and control; otherwise, we urge the Assembly to acquiesce in the present policy of the Board, to husband its resources, and add, from year to year, the income to the principal of its funds, until God in His Providence shall clearly indicate the time for manning it again, fully and efficiently.

In the present posture of affairs, the Board considers it unwise to make, or attempt to make, any change in the internal condition of the Seminary, and has therefore determined to allow the present arrangement to remain, for the present, in statu quo.

The Librarian Reports that a few volumes and pamphlets have been added by donation to the Library.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board of Directors,

ARCHER C. DICKERSON, President.

Danville, Ky., April 16th, 1884.

In the judgment of the Faculty, as soon as expedient a fund should be established by the Board of Directors to remunerate such services. The Faculty report unusual satisfaction in view of the consistent deportment of the students, and of their diligent

The gifts of Mr. McCormick to the Seminary for all purposes, amounting up to the present time to more than $300,000, have reared a memorial to his fidelity and devotion to the cause of Christ in the Presbyterian Church, which will endear his name to the coming generations.

VIII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY has had another year of prosperity, and of tokens of the Divine favor and blessing. Notwithstanding there has not been the special and marked outpouring of the Holy Spirit as during last year reported, yet the fruits, and in good measure the continuance of that gracious visitation have been manifested, in some souls converted, and in a better development of spiritual life, and of Christian work than in any preceding year.

The religious organizations and bands of the institution, as the Society of Religious Inquiry, the organizations for Bible study, and for Christian work among the colored people, at the Almshouse, and in sunday-school and mission work, where the students have no pecuniary compensation, have been in successful operation. A daily prayer meeting is constantly maintained, and evidence has been very manifest that as the result of the outpouring of the Spirit of God a year ago, and of the continued presence of that Spirit, there is more of a tone of devoted piety, and that more and more of the students are "walking with God."

Although the distinct department of Theology is not so separated in this institution as explained in previous reports, as to render a special and distinct statistical report of the Theological Department necessary or feasible, yet we can say in general terms, that one cheering fact as the farther fruit of the gracious visitations of last year, is that the prayer to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest, is being answered in the increased numbers, and better promise both in piety and talents of those young men who are studying for the ministry. Twenty-one young men in this institution are studying for the Gospel.

It is expected that we can soon report unusual facilities for doing our special work. The institution is safely endowed, so as to run safely within its income, yet needs greatly increased facilities to do better and larger work. An increased work occasioned by more and more German students for the ministry, who will take their entire Theological course here, is a matter of new prayer and interest.

In behalf of the Board,

IX. SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

THE Directors respectfully report to the General Assembly of 1884, that the following named Ministers and Ruling Elders elected by the Synod of the Pacific are—

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

William A. Scott, D.D., LL.D.,	Hon. James D. Thornton,
Aaron L. Lindsley, D.D.,	Stephen Franklin,
William Wallace Brier,	Robert J. Trumbull,

James S. MacDonald,
Clement E. Babb, D.D.,
Thomas Fraser,
A. S. Fiske,

The BOARD OF TRUSTEES annually elected by the Directors are now:

WILLIAM A. SCOTT, D.D., LL.D., President,
STEPHEN FRANKLIN, Secretary and Treasurer,
Hon. JAMES D. THORNTON,
ELIJAH BIGELOW,
NATHANIEL GRAY.

FACULTY.

Rev. WILLIAM A. SCOTT, D.D., LL.D., Professer of Mental and Moral Science and Systematic Theology.
Rev. GEORGE BURROWES, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Greek Exegesis and Special Introduction.
Rev. WILLIAM ALEXANDER, D.D., Professor of Church History and Government and General Introduction.
———— ————, Professor of Rhetoric, Pastoral Theology and Apologetics.

The vacancy in the Faculty the Directors have not thought it expedient to fill for the want of sufficient endowment.

The duties of the vacant chair are discharged, at present, by the other Professors. The regular term opened first Thursday of September last, and closed the last Thursday of April, 1884. The usual examinations of three days were held in the parlors of the Seminary Building, conducted by the Faculty and Committees appointed by the Directors and by some of the Presbyteries. These Committees report:

"That in the various departments of study, the instruction during the past year has evidently been faithful and thorough. The Professors have performed their duties with marked ability and extraordinary self-denial."

"They were highly pleased with the evidences of diligence on the part of the students. They all appear to be earnest, devoted young men, giving fair promise of usefulness in the ministry of the Word."

The Treasurer's annual Report, which is herewith submitted to you, explains our financial condition.

Our Library has been increased by the present of about three hundred volumes. Our Seminary Building at 121 Haight street, has now a cable road to the ocean beach, an eligible and healthful location. The building is well furnished with rooms for students with water and gas, besides the library and lecture-rooms.

The ANNIVERSARY was held in St. John's Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, 24th of April, 1884. The congregation was large, and the exercises well received. The address to the Alumni Association was delivered by Rev. C. D. Merrill, of Centreville, California, and the annual address before the Seminary by Rev. Samuel P. Sprecher, D.D., of Calvary Presbyterian Church of this city.

Seven students were present during the term.

POST GRADUATE.

Rev. J. P. Rich, of the Congregational Pacific Theological Seminary, Oakland, California.

SENIOR CLASS.

Andrew Barclay Meldrum, graduate of Knox College, Toronto, Canada, and for two years student in the Theological department of the same College. Mr. Meldrum has received the usual certificate of graduation, and he and Mr. Rich have been ordained to the whole work of the Gospel ministry by the Presbytery of San Francisco.

MIDDLE CLASS.

JUNIOR CLASS.

Josias Wilson Lundy, Queen's College, Belfast.
John C. Campbell, Presbyterian College, Montreal, Canada.
Charles C. McCarty, University of California.
Franklin Rhoda, University of California.

By the great mercies of our Heavenly Father, all our students have been preserved in good health, and all our Professors have attended regularly to the duties of their respective chairs. The Committee of the Directors to attend the examination said in their Report what it seems proper for us to say here:

"That as in former years the whole income of the Institution for salaries, would barely support one Professor," but by consent this is divided among them all, which is a mere pittance for each. We greatly need scholarships for students and additions to our endowments for Professors, so that the vacancy in the Faculty may be filled, and all our chairs be occupied by Professors who may be able to give their whole time and strength to the work of instruction in the Seminary. Thus far and at present, some of our Professors have to live on salaries outside of the Seminary, from pastoral work. Our outlook for students next term is more encouraging than for any past year. We have had forty-nine students since our beginning, and nearly or quite thirty of these have graduated and are now preaching the Gospel, chiefly on this coast, though some are in England and Ireland, and in the Middle and Western States.

Dear Brethren, having begun this great work, and carried it on for thirteen years by toil and self-denial, and yet in hope and faith, we cannot as a branch of the Church cease our efforts. Our interests as a denomination, and the cause of Bible Truth on this coast, imperatively demand our strongest efforts to put this Seminary on a sure foundation and build it up. We earnestly ask the assistance of our brethren in the old and rich Synods, and the prayers of all who love the truth as it is in Jesus.

Affectionately your brethren and fellow-laborers in the Lord.

Approved and ordered to be sent to the Assembly.

W. A. SCOTT, President.

Rev. CHARLES E. KNOX, D.D., President and Professor of Homiletics, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. GEORGE C. SEIBERT, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Biblical Exegesis and Theology.
Rev. IMMANUEL CASANOWICZ, Instructor in Hebrew and Hebrew Exegesis and in Church History.

Rev. PHILIP A. SCHWARZ has also generously given the younger students Biblical Instruction throughout the year without compensation.

Rev. JAMES F. RIGGS, one lecture on the Suez Canal and its Relations to Commerce.

Rev. SAMUEL W. DUFFIELD, six lectures and readings on English Literature.

Rev. NICHOLAS BJERRING, one lecture on the Greek Church.

THE STUDENTS.

The number of students in both Departments is twenty-three, six in the Theological Department, and seventeen in the Academic. One resident graduate, who had completed his course at the Drew Seminary, has also been in attendance in the Theological Department, making the whole number twenty-four. Two students were graduated at the Annual Commencement on June 13th, 1883. Eight new students have been received, two from Germany and six from America. Six students have withdrawn during the year.

The demand for suitable German ministers has been constantly urged upon us throughout the year by the German Missionary of the Board of Home Missions, who more easily finds fields for churches, than men for the pulpit. The chief difficulty is now, or it has been, to obtain proper students for our special object. It is most desirable that the subject of the increase of students should be kept constantly before the whole Church. There are several points, which need to be emphasized before the Assembly, the Presbyteries, the churches, the pastors, the elders, the sunday-school superintendents and sunday-school teachers.

1. The American churches, which have in their sunday-schools or Mission sunday-schools, German boys or German young men, should direct them to our German Presbyterian Institutions. This source of supply is too important to be overlooked, and in respect to it the Directors would repeat and re-emphasize their representation of last year, viz.: "Such young men ought to be among those best fitted to stand as mediators between the American and the German people. Trained in the spiritual influence of American churches, they are likely to be freed from the mixed impressions of a Continental habit of Church life. On the the other hand, Germans of the Germans in respect to language, mental, social and domestic habits, they should be filled with a deep sense of the religious need of their countrymen. Such young men, therefore, should have a special two-fold adaptation to the German pastorate. We earnestly request the attention of our American pastors and Church officers to this subject."

2. The German churches should be fully informed by our German pastors, in respect to the great need of consecrated and godly pastors for the German people, in respect to the grave distinctions between the Continental conception of the ministry and our own, and in respect to the obligation of Christian parents to dedicate their sons to the ministry.

3. The Preparatory Department, in the form of a German Gymnasium, is now open for the reception of other students than those studying for the ministry. The teaching force can or will instruct a much larger number than the present number. The spiritual power of the Institution should be such that some of these additional young men, would be, by Divine grace, converted and guided to the ministry, and so the gymnasium become an increasing "feeder" to the Seminary proper. Then also young men whose hearts are not moved to the ministry or who may find that they are unsuited to the ministry, may still become valuable supporters of German churches and assistants to our German pastors.

The attentive interest and the earnest prayers of these two special portions of our Church are earnestly requested to this most important subject.

THE FINANCES.

The Endowment.—The General Endowment, including all Endowment Funds, is	$41,640 32
The Loan or Debt.—The Loan made to the Current Account from the above General Endowment Fund, was on April 1st, 1878, ...	$10,771 45
The amount of this Loan now paid is	10,144 09
Leaving still due from valid subscriptions	$627 36

The Newark Professorship.—This is considered as consisting of three parts:

Second, the unpaid balance of the above Loan to the Current Account,	627 36
Third, unpaid subscriptions for the increase of this Endowment,	1,700 00
	$24,066 72

The Hebrew Professorship.—The German churches of the East have made some progress in the execution of their plan to obtain, from German sources, Five Thousand Dollars towards the Endowment of a Hebrew Professorship. Although their progress has not been so rapid as their anticipations suggested, they have already in the bank under the care of their own Treasurer, $875 14

Two or three small sums for this object have came into our own Treasury (included in the above General Endowment) . 29 10

Making for this Professorship, a collection of . . . $904 24

The Scholarships.—The endowed Scholarships are two:

1. The Mary Crane Scholarship,	$3,000 00
2. The second Scholarship,	1,250 00
	$4,250 00

Both these Scholarships are included in the General Endowment Fund.

Current Income and Expense.—The total amount paid out—not including the amount paid through the Treasury by the Board of Education—has been $7,989 30

The total income—not including the amount from the Board of Education—has been	$7,568 63
Deficit,		$400 08

The Salaries and Bills remaining unpaid, are as follows:

Salaries,	$2,395 00
Bills,	342 67
Total Current Indebtedness on April 30th, 1884,	$3,137 75

The German churches, however, have been released from collections for the current fund—in order that they might the better begin the execution of their Endowment plan.

The total amount received from all sources, during the year has been:

For the Endowment Account:
Payment on the subscription of the Bloomfield property,	$5 00
The Newark Professorship,	375 00
The second Scholarship,	500 00
Payment on the Loan,	238 00
The Hebrew Endowment,	904 24
	$2,022 24
For the Current Account,	7,568 63
Total received,	$9,590 87

There has been also a sum of between one and two hundred dollars received from the public lectures, which has been expended for the renovation of the lecture-room, etc., the account of which has not passed through the Treasurer's hands. The bills are not fully paid, but the lectures of the Summer term will no doubt meet the remainder due.

For the first time during the history of the Institution, the Professors have not been absent from their classes for the collection of funds. The Committee of the Synod of New Jersey, of whom the Rev. Albert Erdman, D.D., and the Rev. Joseph S. Van Dyke, D.D., have been specially active, have given valuable relief, in the work of communicating with the churches.

The tabular reports prepared for the catalogue, show a decided increase in the membership of the churches and the sunday-schools.

They exhibit, also, in connection with the above endeavor to raise the Hebrew Endowment, the following groups of encouraging facts:

1. The German churches under the care of our Alumni only, contributed for all objects—including their own congregational objects—during the year 1882-83, $36,427.

2. The statement was made last year that churches under the care of the fourteen Alumni of the first two classes, had contributed from 1874 to 1882 an increase of $46,187.

The increase under the same Alumni from 1874 to 1883 has advanced to $59,809.

This is gain to the Church from German Presbyterian sources. It is a return to the Church, in the erection of churches, support of sunday-schools, pastors' salaries, in all the appliances for preaching the Gospel among the Germans and for benevolent objects, of that which the Church contributed to educate these young men as her servants.

3. The German Endowment, though not large, amounting in this beginning to only $904, has its chief value in the formation of the habit of voluntary systematic beneficence, and in the increase of attachment to the Church with which our German brethren have connected themselves.

We have reason to believe also that there is an increase of prayer on the part of our German churches for the Institution and its noble work.

The Directors bespeak a wider union of sympathy, of prayer and of cordial support, on the part of all our American Presbyterians with their German brethren, and look for the blessing of God upon a growing increase in the future.

JONATHAN F. STEARNS,
President of the Board of Directors.

At a Special Meeting of the Board in June last, the Rev. Adam McClelland, D.D., then of Brooklyn, N. Y., was elected to the Chair of Church History. Dr. McClelland accepted the Professorship thus tendered him, and entered upon his duties within a few weeks of the opening of the term.

At the last meeting of the Board, the Rev. W. R. Mundhenke, Professor of Theology, offered his resignation, which was accepted. A Special Committee, of which the President of the Board is Chairman, was appointed to obtain a suitable person for this vacant chair, subject to the approval of the Board. At the same time the Rev. Godfrey Moery was elected to the position of Instructor in the School.

Nineteen students have been in attendance during the year, of whom, eight are in the Theological department; of these, three will graduate next year.

The Faculty report that the students have been uniformly diligent and studious. The Examining Committee informs the Board that the examinations of the Classes in the various branches of study evinced such marked excellence that especial commendation is due both to the Faculty and the students. Dr. C. O. Waters, our Business Manager, has labored diligently and with a good degree of success during the past year. We ask for him, in behalf of the School, the generous sympathy and assistance of the Church in his work for the year to come. The Board also expresses its gratitude to those friends of the Institution, who have heretofore contributed to its support.

Respectfully submitted,

XII. THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF LINCOLN UNIVERSITY.

Annual Report of the Faculty.

The Faculty of Theology, in Lincoln University, respectfully present to the General Assembly the Thirteenth Annual Report of the Theological Department of Lincoln University.

Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D.,	Rev. George S. Mott, D.D.,
Rev. Andrew B. Cross,	Rev. Stephen W. Dana, D.D.,
Rev. Calvin W. Stewart, D.D.,	Rev. Thomas McCauley,
Ravaud K. Hawley, Esq.,	Rev. Henry E. Niles, D.D.,
Hon. Joseph Allison, LL.D.,	Rev. Henry W. Wells,
Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D.,	Rev. Nathan G. Parke,
Rev. James Roberts, D.D.,	James A. Beaver, Esq.,
George E. Dodge, Esq.,	Henry B. Essick, Esq.

The Board of Trustees has met with a sore bereavement in the death of the Rev. Samuel Dickey, Treasurer of the Board since 1866, and a member of the Board since 1872. Mr. Dickey had been for many years disabled from the full work of the ministry by physical infirmity. He never lost his deep interest in the work of the Church, and counted it a pleasure to promote that work in all ways within his power. He was President of the National Bank of Oxford, Pa.; and in this and in other positions of responsibility he gave conspicuous illustration that true piety is no disqualification for legitimate business, and that diligence in business is no detriment to piety. He was born April 24th, 1816. He died suddenly on the 14th of January, 1884, from disease of the heart.

The Standing Committee on the Theological Department consists of the Rev. Calvin W. Stewart, D.D., the Rev. Stephen W. Dana, D.D., and Elder Alexander Whilldin.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

Rev. ISAAC N. RENDALL, D.D., President and Professor of Christian Ethics and Apologetics.
Rev. GILBERT T. WOODHULL, D.D., Avery Professor of Hellenistic Greek and New Testament Literature.
Rev. THOMAS W. CATTELL, Ph.D., Professor of Sacred Geography and Biblical Antiquities.
Rev. BENJAMIN T. JONES, William E. Dodge Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.
Rev. E. T. JEFFERS, D.D., John C. Baldwin Professor of Theology.

The Chair of Theology, made vacant by the death of the Rev. Edwin R. Bower, has been filled by the appointment of Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D.D., subject to the confirmation of this Assembly. By special arrangement one of the Professors has been enabled to carry on the work of instruction in Hebrew and Old Testament Literature; and another of the Professors has given instruction in Church History. It has become very desirable that all the Chairs of Instruction in the Theological Department should be permanently endowed and occupied. Previous Assemblies have commended such an endowment to the benevolence of the churches. The time appears to be near at hand, when enlargement of the accommodations, and the establishment of all the Chairs essential to the full equipment of a Theological Seminary in the Presbyterian Church, must be secured in this Institution; or we will be obliged to dismiss the candidates for the ministry from the course of preparation to which we have invited them.

The steady progress of the candidates now in the lower classes of the University will bring into the Theological Department about seventy-five students in four years. There are now ninety-two candidates for the ministry in the preparatory courses of study, and twenty in the Theological course, making a total for the current year of one hundred and twelve. No increase of numbers in the Theological Department can take place without enlargement of our accommodations, except by diminishing the lower classes. The rooms for students are filled to their utmost capacity. We are now straitened in accepting applications of candidates for admission for the next Academic year. Lincoln University looks to the General Assembly for approval of this phase of its work, and to Christian philanthropists of the Presbyterian Church for the signal to advance. A great enlargement of our work is urgently called for by its unstimulated development. The conservative influence of Presbyterianism can be brought powerfully to bear upon the condition of the Africo-American. The progress of the Board of Missions for the Freedmen indicate that these influences are welcomed among them, and experience shows that the harvest of Presbyterian workers is limited only by the number of agents employed, and by the means invested.

SENIOR CLASS.

James W. Lavatt,	Philadelphia, Pa.
Franklin T. Logan,	Greensboro, N. C.
Oliver T. Logan,	Horntown, Va.

Thomas H. Roberts,	Monrovia, Liberia.
Samuel S. Sevier,	Marshall, Liberia.
James W. Wilson,	Cape Mount, Liberia.

The Annual Sermon to the students was preached in the Chapel on Sabbath, the 13th day of April, by the Rev. John C. Caldwell, D.D., from John xvi: 9, "Of sin because they believe not on Me."

The commencement exercises took place on Tuesday the 15th day of April. Messrs. James W. Lavatt, Franklin T. Logan, and Henry C. Moyer, having completed the full course of instruction received from the Board of Trustees the degree of S. T. B.; and Messrs. Horace G. Miller, Oliver T. Logan, and Ishmael Till, who had been excused from some parts of study, were awarded certificates in testimony of their attendance and faithfulness. Mr. Samuel S. Sevier, a member of the Middle Class, and one of the ten Native Africans, sent to Lincoln University, in 1872, by the Presbytery of West Africa, to be educated, asked to be permitted to close his preparatory course with a view to his return to his native land. His request was granted, and a certificate of his attendance and faithfulness was awarded to him. He is under appointment, by the Board of Foreign Missions, as a missionary to Africa, subject to the recommendation of the Presbytery of Chester, at its next meeting. Henry C. Mabry, of the previous Senior Class, has been ordained by the Presbytery of Yadkin.

We have the pleasure to report to the General Assembly, that, since the last report, the University has received several valuable contributions to its funds. The family of the late Rev. Lemuel Brooks, who had previously founded a Scholarship in the sum of $2000, in accordance with the wish of Mr. Brooks, expressed while living, conveyed to the University a contribution of $5000.

A bequest of $2800 from the late Dr. Barker, of New Castle, Pa., to found the Dr. Barker Scholarship, has been paid in to the Treasurer, and has been permanently invested.

The executors of the estate of Sarah Oliphant, of Lewistown, N. Y., have paid to the Treasurer a bequest of $200.

Mrs. Kittridge, of Owego, N. Y., has paid to the Treasurer $1500, to found a Scholarship, to be called the Kittridge Scholarship of Lincoln University.

Information has come to the authorities of Lincoln University that $3500 has been bequeathed to the University by the late Mr. Watson, of Chestnut Level, Pa., to found a perpetual Scholarship for the education of a student of Theology.

With gratitude to God, we report another season of precious revival. Out of a total of 226 students, during the current year, 51 were not professors of religion. Believing students seemed early in the Academic year to grow earnestly prayerful, watchful and concerned for the souls of unbelieving companions. They went to their rooms, talked with them on the subject of religion, and prayed with them. The daily prayer meeting received an increase of attendance. On Monday, the 28th day of January, 1884, the interest was so manifest that the Literary Exercises were suspended, and the whole day given to prayer, praise, instruction, and guidance of inquirers in the way of life. It was a day of the right hand of the Most High. The professing Christians met in one of the class-rooms. They had a season of heart searching, and of renewed consecration; and wrestled with the Lord in importunate prayer. In the chapel a meeting was held in which the Professors and Theological students sought to lead sinners to faith in a Crucified Redeemer. As one student after another found the Saviour, and rose to testify of His grace, there was presented a scene long to be remembered. Thirty-four have during the year made profession of faith in Christ.

The INCOME from the Endowment Fund for the year, since the last report, is as follows:

The John C. Baldwin Professorship,	1400 00
The Mary Warder Dickey Presidency,	1502 00
The Charles Avery Professorship,	1075 00
The Reuben J. Flick Professorship,	907 00
The Dunlap Scholarship,	168 00

Of these Endowments, only the William E. Dodge, and the John C. Baldwin Professorships are by the founders distinctively dedicated to the Theological Department of our work. But under the action of the Board of Trustees, and with the approval of the General Assembly, several of the Professors, who occupy Chairs of Instruction in the Collegate Department, give instruction to the Theological Classes.

Encouraged by many tokens of God's favor, we take fresh courage in the work upon which He is pleased to set the seal of His approbation.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Faculty,

I. N. RENDALL, President.

Since the last report, Wm. A. Alexander, Edward H. Garland, Thos. A. Attles and Morris Seabrook have completed the regular course of study.
The following students have attended the course of instruction in the several classes:

I. D. Davis, S. C., Geo. S. Leeper, N. C., Wm. E. Partee, N. C.

MIDDLE CLASS.

David Brown, N. C., Wade H. Coleman, S. C., G. S. White, S. C.

During the past year a Boarding Department, modeled on the idea of a Christian home, has been established for the accommodation of students from abroad.
A new college building has just been completed at a cost of $40,000. It is 98 x 67 feet, three stories high, with an annex for chapel 66 x 45 feet. The whole is of substantial brick, of pleasing appearance, furnishing twelve recitation rooms, each 34 x 24 feet, two society halls, an audience chamber capable of seating 600, and roomy and well ventilated halls, with abundance of light throughout.
Candidates for the ministry, and young men of promise receive such aid as their necessities and the resources at command will allow. Friends in Scotland have established a fund of over $6000, the interest of which is to be used for preparing young men for Mission work in Africa.
The University is located at Charlotte, N. C., and stands in close relation to the General Assembly, being under the auspices of the Presbyterian Board of Missions for Freedmen.
The object of the Institution is the education of colored teachers and preachers.
It stands at the terminus of six railroads, in the midst of a dense and comparatively intelligent colored population, occupying a commanding site of twenty-four acres in the suburbs of the city. It is situated in the very heart of the Synod of Atlantic, which embraces the whole South Atlantic States, having 161 colored churches, 96 ministers, 66 young men preparing for the ministry, with a large number of schools and academies under its care. These schools and churches must be furnished with intelligent Christian teachers and preachers, who must be largely educated on the field and in contact with the people among whom they are to labor. Such a training is less expensive than if had elsewhere; it gives the student the best opportunities for a liberal education, and affords him the refining influence of a Christian home, and, at the same time, keeping him in contact and sympathy with his people.
The student looking towards the ministry is employed on the Sabbath, during his college and seminary years, in doing the work of a catechist or evangelist in some of the numerous churches organized by the Faculty in the adjacent regions of North and South Carolina.

No institution under the care of the Presbyterian Church has a wider field or greater opportunities. Its students are scattered in their school and church work through all the South Atlantic States, and as far west as Texas. It has the strongest possible claims upon the prayers and benevolence of the Church. It is fast becoming a tender bond of union between Northern Presbyterians and their Southern brethren. In proof of the estimation in which it is held by prominent Southern men, see the following extract from a letter of Hon. Z. B. Vance, United States Senator from North Carolina:

"CHARLOTTE, Sept. 28th, 1882.

"* * I am well acquainted with Biddle University, and think it better circumstanced to do good than any other institution of the kind in the South. The whole people of this region are fully in accord with its objects."

Rev. Drury Lacy, D.D., late President of Davidson College, N. C., writes:

"I firmly believe that Biddle University is doing a greater work for missions, foreign and domestic, than any mission at home or abroad."

The Institution is consecrated to the glory of God, and the welfare of a needy race. It stands as the only representative of its kind in the South, of our Presbyterian Church; and it certainly is one of the most important agencies in the hands of the Church for the accomplishment of good among the six millions of Freedmen in the South. It commends itself to the prayers and gifts of all good men.

Respectfully submitted,

P. O. Box 1938.

ABSTRACT OF THE FOURTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions hereby presents to the General Assembly its Fourteenth Annual Report since the reorganization of the Board at reunion, and the eighty-first since the organization of the Board of Domestic Missions, which is a constituent element in the present Board of Home Missions.

With gratitude to Almighty God for Divine guidance during the year past, we acknowledge His blessing on our work, which has been carried on with quietness, peace and success. Very many missionaries at the close of the year have sent in their reports with rejoicing and thanksgiving for opportunities of uninterrupted and prosperous labor and the ingathering of many souls. The statistical summary will show the aggregate numbers received to the missionary churches on profession of their faith and by certificate, and also encouraging growth in other directions.

But we are called on to record with great sorrow the sudden death of George W. Lane, a most faithful, wise and worthy member of this Board. Mr. Lane had been engaged in this work nearly twenty years, and, as a member of the Board and of the Finance Committee, his counsels were always received with much favor.

Death has also invaded the ranks of the missionaries, and thirteen have been called away. Their names are as follows:

Rev. Samuel Donaldson,
Rev. J. M. Spangler,
Rev. John J. Cardy,
Rev. Hannibal L. Stanley,
Rev. George Scott,
Rev. George Sneath,
Rev. Samuel P. Dillon,
Rev. S. L. Hobbs,
Rev. Jas. R. Bell,
Rev. Cyrus L. Offer,
Rev. Kryn Vander Gyp,
Rev. Albert C. Fuller,
Rev. Joseph R. Davis.

Number and Distribution of Missionaries.

There have been engaged in the work, during the whole or a part of the year past, 1458 missionaries, and they have labored in the following States and Territories in numbers as indicated below, namely, in

Alabama	1	Missouri	78
Alaska	3	Montana	8
Arizona	3	Nebraska	81
Arkansas	2	New Hampshire	2
California	66	New Jersey	52
Colorado	32	New Mexico	19

Delaware	6	Nevada	3
Florida	10	North Carolina	1
Idaho	4	Ohio	71
Illinois	85	Oregon	26

Massachusetts	1	Washington Territory	23
Michigan	65	Wisconsin	52
Minnesota	53	Wyoming	2

Among the most marked evidences of the Divine favor do we count the growth and expansion of our work. During the last seven years the number of our missionaries has steadily increased from 997 to the present time, when we have 1458. We have missionaries in all the States and Territories of the Union, except Maine, Vermont, Connecticut, Georgia, and South Carolina.

It is noticeable that the expansion of our work has not been in the older or Eastern States, but in the new States and Territories, or at least in such as have been made accessible by new railroads. Five years ago we had but fifty-one ministers and ninety-one churches in Nebraska; now one hundred and twenty-nine ministers, and one hundred and ninety-eight churches, of which twenty-two have been organized during the past year. Five years ago we had one hundred and thirty-five ministers and two hundred and nineteen churches in Kansas. Now we have one hundred and eighty-eight ministers and three hundred and twenty churches. Five years ago we had but four ministers and eight churches in Dakota, except among the Indians. Now we have eighty ministers and one hundred and twenty churches, besides the Indian Presbytery with ten churches and twelve ministers. In a word, beyond the Missouri River, embracing the eastern portion of Dakota, with a strip of land in northwestern Minnesota not hitherto occupied, during the past five years there have been organized two Synods and sixteen Presbyteries. Within these limits we have placed more than two hundred missionaries, and have organized more than four hundred churches. That is, where we had but four hundred and sixteen ministers we now have six hundred and thirty-five, and against five hundred and fifty-three churches five years ago, we now have more than nine hundred and sixty.

We have sent more than thirty missionaries into the Synod of the Columbia during the last two years. The completion of the Northern Pacific Railway opens to speedy settlement a vast empire. The mineral wealth, the wheat fields, the timber, the coal fields and fisheries along the Columbia River and about Puget Sound are attracting and will amply support hundreds of thousands in the near future.

The work has taken on a new impetus at the South. There we have been trying to adjust ourselves to a new condition of things. The population is much more sparse in the South than in the North. But railroads are now penetrating the country in every direction. Our Church has six Synods and twenty-five Presbyteries in the South; and these mostly old organizations; and within their bounds we are trying to do our legitimate work. Our churches in Kentucky and Tennessee, distracted and weakened by the war, have been learning what was necessary to the work of evangelization within their own limits. But they have now entered on a new and more earnest effort to carry the Gospel to all the people. In like manner our number of churches and ministers has more than doubled during the last few months in Florida. The railway system in Texas has also been greatly extended during the last five years, 4000 miles having been added to what had been built before. All these States and Territories, thus made accessible by these railroads, have great attractions for the young and enterprising men of our own country—our own sons and daughters; but nearly 4,000,000 of foreigners have come to us during the five years past.

Home Missions in Cities.

But we should do injustice to our work if we did not call attention to a special feature of it which is growing in importance; we refer to the need and growing numbers of churches in our cities, especially the growing cities of the West. The tendency of the American people to settle in cities is a growing tendency, it demands increasing attention, and the people who go West, whether they settle in the city or the country, are generally people of limited means.

In Denver, Col., we have now two prosperous self-sustaining churches, and three prosperous missionary churches, just building, or just having built, houses of worship. We have three such missionary enterprises in Kansas City, where we also have two strong self-supporting churches. In Omaha we have three such enterprises, one of which is German. In Minneapolis we have six. In Portland, Oregon, we have two self-sustaining organizations, and three missionary churches, and an urgent call for another.

The Work Among the Germans.

We gave notice to the General Assembly last year of a new departure in missionary work among the Germans. We have had in our service the Rev. P. A. Schwarz as a general missionary among this people. His labors have been both acceptable and fruitful. But we encounter two great difficulties:

(1) The scarcity of preachers. The German people seem disposed to listen to the Gospel, it has not been difficult to gather congregations and sabbath-schools, we could organize many churches among them if we could find preachers. We have only two institutions where German-speaking students are prepared for the ministry; one at Bloomfield, New Jersey, and the other at Dubuque, Iowa.

(2) The other difficulty is of a pecuniary character. German congregations, like any others, need houses of worship. But the utter poverty of the Germans we have been able to reach seems in most instances to preclude any chance for self-help in this direction.

Work in New England.

There has been a growing conviction in the last few years, that our Church has been neglecting golden opportunities in New England, and grave duties in regard to the people of our faith, in that part of the country. Large numbers of Presbyterians from Scotland and Ireland, and probably more from Canada, are settling in New England. Loud calls have come to the Board for missionaries, and for means for their adequate support.

Our Finances.

The Treasurer's Report shows that our income from all sources during the year, is $620,428.22. For the Home Missionary Department, $487,480.55; for the Sustentation Department, $20,146.15; for the School Department, $112,801.52. But our financial condition was a source of the greatest solicitude during a large part of the year. Unfortunately and unexpectedly to ourselves we began the year with a debt of $45,000. This has been a burden that was additional to all the ordinary burdens of the year. In some former reports we have spoken of the lack of uniformity in our receipts.

When our debt was reported February 1, at $190,000, it was alarming to the Board and to the missionaries. In fact, we reached a point where it seemed inexpedient to borrow any more. We laid the case before the churches through our own magazine, by the religious press generally, and by leaflets and appeals sent forth broadcast over the land. The responses were most encouraging; but, best of all, the executors of the will of ex-Governor E. D. Morgan, seeing the emergency, very kindly came to our aid, and paid over a bequest of $100,000, which they were at liberty to withhold several months longer.

An Increase of Interest in the Work.

The increase of contributions from the living during the year, which has not been generally prosperous in business, is evidence that there is a deeper interest in the work of Home Missions than ever before. Two or three causes have contributed to this result:

1. The Presbyterian Home Missionary.

This periodical contains maps, geographical and historical sketches of our States and Territories that are full of interest to every American, detailed and graphic accounts of the great tides of immigration, the opening of new settlements, the discovery of mines, the building of railways, temperance reforms and educational advancements, in their relation to the highest progress and evangelization of this country. No such paper can pay its monthly visit to 28,000 families in our Church without a marked effect on its members, and no intelligent Christian family can well afford to do without this periodical.

2. Home Missionary Conventions.

Another cause of the increased interest in Home Missions has been the fact that at different times and in different States a series of conventions, not extending beyond two days, and carried through two or three weeks in succession, well arranged and well advertised, and provided with good speakers, have been held at small centres with most excellent effect. The experiment has been so successful that the demands for the same kind of Home Missionary conventions became numerous, could not be met, and had to be postponed to another year.

The Needed Increase of Funds.

None of us believe there is any lack of ability to do the work that seems to the Board necessary to be done. But how shall we secure an increase of funds?

The diffusion of information the past year by the methods already named has been so fruitful of results, showing so clearly a large advance in contributions to our treasury, that we must persevere. For the need of more funds becomes more apparent when we look at

The Great Work Still Before Us.

Great as the advance has been the last few years, such advance seems not to have satisfied, but to have increased the demand.

From Iowa we have a list of twenty-six fields, many of them not new, that need missionaries. Kansas calls for twenty men for new places that promise good results. Kentucky, with its revived Presbyterian life, needs a number more. Texas has need for thirteen men. We have a similar appeal and descriptive list from Wood River Presbytery, for eleven men. The new railroads, the Oregon Short Line, the Utah Northern and Northern Pacific, have just opened the way into this territory that hitherto had been almost shut against immigration. Eight men are needed for Utah and eight for Montana. Southern Dakota enumerates and describes twenty fields calling for supplies. Fifteen more men are called for in Northern Dakota, and fifteen for Minnesota. Other missionaries are beginning to write for helpers in their respective fields. Mr. Hill, of the Synod of the Columbia, says he wants twenty-five men for the spring campaign, and most of them at once. Nebraska also asks for eighteen men. Missouri wants fourteen men. "Old towns are taking upon themselves new growth, and new ones are here and there springing into existence. Never before in the history of the Presbyterian Church in Missouri, was the work so bright or were the omens for the future so full of blessed promise."

What shall we do with such requests before us?

And yet there are other parts of the field not yet heard from: Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan. What shall we say to these things?

The Employment of Undergraduates in our Seminaries.

Our observation is that these young men, as a rule, do most excellent service. They are faithful, hard-working, and very acceptable to the people. This opinion is confirmed by the Synodical Missionary in Iowa, who says: "Among the first things done, twelve undergraduates from the seminaries were secured, by the consent of the Board, to spend the summer, supplying for the time twenty-two of our new and vacant fields. These men did excellent work almost without exception, and stopped the cry and confusion coming from so many people hungry for the Gospel, and gave me a little time to look into the needs of the many more vacancies, and help secure men to fill them. Of the twenty-two places supplied by these middle-men for the summer, all but three have since been permanently supplied, and these three have not lost the force of zeal inspired by the summer's work, and are pressing hard for a man."

THE SUSTENTATION DEPARTMENT.

No change has been made by this Board in the working of the plan of Sustentation. But some Synods and Presbyteries have construed the action of the last Assembly as a permission to adopt plans of their own, looking to the support of all the missionary work in their own bounds under the head of Sustentation. These plans are not wholly harmonious; but at first, they are supposed to be tentative, and probably it is wise to allow large liberty in making experiments, supposing that the best plan will so be indicated and adopted. No changes are likely to occur in the working of the scheme beyond a few of the Eastern Synods, unless their experience suggests and commends to the General Assembly and the whole Church, some more excellent way.

We are glad to see that contributions to this department this year exceeded the amount given last year. This shows plainly that the cause has not lost its hold on the churches, and when the Synods and Presbyteries have matured their arrangements to give it greater efficiency, we are sure it will accomplish more than in previous years.

THE SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

The work of the women in behalf of Home Missions during the year has tended towards greater unification and efficiency. The school work has been pushed to the extent of the means furnished.

MEXICANS.

The work in New Mexico is constantly gaining ground and making a secure place for itself. A thousand miles of railroad built there within five years are working great changes, where hitherto for two hundred years there has been very little change. New people are settling in the Territory, new ideas have been introduced, and the spirit of inquiry is aroused; but we have been unable to do the work that has come to our hands.

We have been longing for the time to come when the ripened harvest would open before us among the Spanish-speaking people in New Mexico as it has in old Mexico. We are not sure but it has now come. There seems to be a wide-spread spirit of inquiry among all these people, and increased readiness to listen to the reading of the Bible and the preaching of the Gospel, and an earnest desire that we would establish more schools and churches among them. In a word, we regard these people as in a most hopeful condition.

INDIANS.

School work among the Indians is more promising and pressing than ever before. The Indian Department at Washington is doing everything in its power to promote the education of the Indian children in all the tribes. The appeals that come to us from the Indians, and for them, are most importunate.

At Albuquerque we opened the Central Industrial Boarding School for all the Pueblos, December 15, 1880. Here are taught the general branches of education, as well as the truths of the Bible. The pupils are fed, clothed and taught household work, gardening and some of the mechanical arts, and generally how to take care of themselves. This institution bids fair to rival the great schools at Carlisle and Hampton.

INDIAN TERRITORY.

The Rev. Timothy Hill, D.D., writes as follows: "The Indian Territory is a field by itself, unlike any other in the whole land, full of difficulties, yet full of encouragement. There never was a time when our Church could do as much there as at this day, and the work should be pushed with redoubled force along these principal lines."

The Lord has greatly blessed the work, especially in Fort Gibson and Tahlequah, and we should this year double our force in that Territory.

ALASKA.

In Alaska, the mission at Fort Wrangel was begun in the fall of 1876, by an Indian named Philip Mackay. On the 10th day of August, 1877, Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., and Mrs. A. R. McFarland arrived in Fort Wrangel, and opened the present mission and school for girls, with Mrs. McFarland in charge, she being the first American missionary in that new country. Amid many trials she has heroically stood at her post. Shortly after this the need of a place of refuge for young girls was so apparent that she undertook this in addition to her other duties. The work has grown until now this girls' home is full, and a large day-school of sixty pupils is maintained.

We have begun work among the Mission Indians of Southern California, and we hope to make of this and the school among the Papagoes and Pimas large and influential industrial training-schools like the present school at Albuquerque, New Mexico. It is also hoped that schools will soon be opened among the Pueblos of Isletta, Santa Domingo, San Juan and others in New Mexico.

Other enterprises are contemplated, but are not yet far enough advanced to state them.

MORMONS.

The work among the Mormons is equally imperative. Legislation, thus far, seems to accomplish very little. But the Word of the Lord will prevail. There is large demand for more schools, and more teachers and preachers. The great evil of Mormonism grows; it spreads itself out into the surrounding Territories. Its attitude becomes more and more defiant and threatening every day.

But we have doubled the number of ministers and churches in that Territory during the last five years, and nearly all our school work has grown up during that time, till we have now thirty-five schools in successful operation, and more than fifty teachers at work. The work is hard, for the field is hard. But we are not disheartened. In spite of all opposition from the Mormon authorities, we can plant many more schools among them if we can but find the means for their support.

MISSIONARY TEACHERS.

During the past year 144 Missionary teachers have been employed as follows:

Among the Indians,	53
" " Mexicans,	26

II. BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Abstract of the Forty-seventh Annual Report.

Receipts, Expenditures and Statistics of the Missions.

The receipts of the Board from all sources from April 30th, 1883, to April 30th, 1884, were $693,122.70. Its expenditures for the same period, including the payment of the debt of $18,382.96 from last year's accounts, were $703,845.72. This leaves a debt at the end of this year of $10,723.02. The receipts of the year proper exceeded its expenses $3382.96, but the debt of last year is added to the current expenses of this year. Toward its payment the handsome sum of $10,000 was received in June, from a liberal friend of the cause; otherwise the debt of this year would have been larger by that amount. The Board regrets deeply to report any deficiency, and yet the deficiency is so much less than was feared in the later months of the year that it is viewed almost with a feeling of relief. As the case stands, thanksgiving and praise should be given to God for the great liberality of the Church to this cause. The gifts of departed friends, though not so large in amount as those of last year, saved the treasury from heavy embarrassment. The gifts of the churches, sabbath-schools, Woman's Boards, and individual donors, exceeded those of any former year, and were $53,475.52 over the sum received from the same sources in the preceding year. Is not the Church called upon to bless God for the grace of giving imparted to its members, and for their noble support of this cause?

The Board also acknowledges, with thanks, liberal grants of funds and books, sent to some of the missions direct by the Board of Publication, the American Bible Society, and the American Tract Society; and it makes grateful mention also of funds contributed to the support of schools under its care among the Omahas and Chippewas by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and among the Creeks, Seminoles and Choctaws by the Councils of these tribes. These grants of funds are not included in the report of the Treasurer, but only such payments, in all cases, as were made from the general funds of the Board.

The Expenditures, grouped generally in this Abstract of the Annual Report, and the Statistics of the Missions, for the last year, are as follows:

For missions among 11 tribes of Indians, with which are connected 17 American and 9 Indian ministers, 12 Indian licentiate preachers, 2 American laymen and 34 women, 13 native assistants, 1453 communicants, and 455 scholars, of whom 217 are in boarding-schools, ...	$29,068 39
For missions to the Chinese in this country, with stations in New York, San Francisco, Oakland and other places, 3 ministers, 6 female teachers, unsalaried teachers not enumerated, 9 native assistants, 287 communicants, 480 scholars, not including scholars in sabbath-schools related to the mission, but not aided by its funds, ...	15,938 94
For missions in Japan, at 4 stations and several outstations, 11 ministers, 10 native ministers, 7 native licentiate preachers, 2 American laymen and 23 women, 34 native assistants, 1396 communicants and 651 scholars, ...	41,675 97

NOTICES OF MISSIONARIES—SUBJECTS PRESENTED.

The Report gives the names of 12 ministers, 6 American laymen and 29 women sent out as new missionaries, of whom 5 were physicians; and of 8 ministers and 12 women returning to their stations, 3 of them under reappointment, making the number sent out in all 67. The death of three missionaries is reported—the Rev. James M. Priest, of Liberia; Rev. O. P. Stark, of the Choctaw Mission; and Mrs. G. L. Deffenbaugh, of the Nez Percé Mission.

It is plain that more ministers are needed in many of the missions—in some urgently, to maintain existing work, and in others to enter on new work. The need of well-trained native laborers is almost everywhere pressing, and in several missions training schools are giving special instruction to candidates for the ministry. This instruction is, indeed, one of the most important features of the work of missions; without well-qualified native ministers, educated amongst their own people, the spread of the Gospel will be long delayed.

The Report treats of many subjects connected with the missions of the Board, such as the organization of Presbyteries, connected with our General Assembly, in Mexico, Chili, and the Laos country; the ordination of sixteen native ministers in different fields; the unusual religious interest manifested in various places, resulting in the addition of hundreds of converts to the communion of the churches; and a large array of information as to many things for which reference must be made to the Report itself. Nobody who reads it will doubt that God has been with His people during the last year, blessing this work of their hands and of their hearts. Among the special topics briefly discussed is the question of transferring to other hands the Indian and Chinese missions of the Board, on which its views are carefully stated; and also the embarrassment created in the Gaboon and Corisco mission in Africa by the new rules of the French Government as to schools, which, however, may be overruled for good to the cause of Christ in that dark land. On a general view of this department of the work of the Church, at home and abroad, the friends and supporters of these missions may well thank God and take courage. The world is full of sin, suffering and death; but the Gospel of the grace of God brings forgiveness, peace and life unto all who believe in Christ Jesus our Lord. Providence is opening many doors, and shutting none. And the Spirit and the bride still say, Come.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD,

No. 1334 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Abstract of the Sixty-fifth Annual Report.

With grateful acknowledgment of the Divine favor towards it during the past year, the Board of Education herewith presents to the General Assembly its Sixty-fifth Annual Report.

Three of its members have resigned their positions in it—one, the Rev. G. H. Duffield, in consequence of his removal to Detroit, in place of whom the Rev. J. S. McIntosh, D.D., has been elected, to serve until the meeting of the Assembly; and the other two, Elders Joseph Harvey and Franklin Baker, in consequence of inability to attend the meetings. In place of Mr. Harvey, Mr. George S. Graham has been elected to serve until the meeting of the Assembly.

Encouraged by the awakened enthusiasm evinced at the last Assembly in the cause of ministerial education, the Board, early in the year, ventured to raise the amount of scholarships for the Collegiate and Seminary students $10 each, putting them at $130. It was fair to expect an increase of contributions to warrant this. Nor has this expectation been altogether disappointed. The contributions from all sources have advanced by the amount of $3600.85. But this increase has been more than counterbalanced by the unexpectedly large number of candidates receiving aid, making a net increase on our list of 91. The appeal made for more ministers seems to have touched the hearts of the young men who heard it, more forcibly than it did the hearts of contributors. And this, we have reason to believe, is largely owing not to the lack of liberality in the Church, but to a lack of information as to the needs and merits of the cause. The aid promised the students has, indeed, all been given punctually, but it has been by incurring a debt which we regret to say amounts to the sum of $10,912.30. This debt, it is to be feared, will oblige the Board either to diminish the value of the scholarships the coming year, and thus to pinch and dishearten the students, if not compel them to suspend their course of study; or else to decline many applications. Either of which measures would be injurious to the cause. The question is, will the Church help the Board to balance its accounts without resorting to either of them.

CANDIDATES AIDED.

The Candidates under care of the Board for the past year amounted, in all, to 577, an excess of 91 upon those of the previous year. They are distributed along three departments of their course. Those in Theological Seminaries number 216; in Colleges, 262; and in the Preparatory stage, 99. This last class includes Germans and colored students, who are allowed by the rules. The exceptional cases number 21, who came to us strongly recommended, and were accepted only after careful inquiry as to their promise and needs. Several applications, however, were declined, because furnishing no special reason for aid.

Classified according to their nationality or race, 36 are Germans; 5 Bulgarians; 45 Negroes; 2 Spanish; 2 Chinese; 1 Hindoo; and 1 Indian. The remainder are of our own immediate kith and kin.

In point of scholarship, 53 are marked high, not a few occupying the foremost rank in their classes for intellectual ability and Christian influence; 91 are graded above medium; and only 5 are marked below that grade, who are nevertheless retained because of fair promise in other particulars and by advice of their Presbyterial Committees. The failures are mostly in the departments of Hebrew and Greek.

In the course of the year one, a colored student, was dropped for marrying, fifteen for low scholarship. One has died.

Candidates in connection with the Board who complete their studies this year number, in all, 68—a worthy contribution, we hope it will be found, to the working force of the Church, justifying the outlay made upon them, by successful labors in every field to which they may be called. Of these, 25 are graduates from Princeton, 9 from Union, 9 from the Western, 3 from Auburn, 5 from Lane, 10 from the Northwestern, 2 from the German school at Newark, 1 from the Hartford Theological Seminary, 3 from Lincoln University, and 1 from Biddle University.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

The sum total of the receipts of the Board for the last year is $67,100.41. This is a gratifying advance upon that of the previous year by $3600.85. The gain in direct contributions from the churches amounted to $2049.35, and the number of churches contributing was larger than ever before by 109. This would indicate a growing appreciation of the importance of the cause throughout the Church, and a greater fidelity on the part of the ministers in presenting it. Moreover, there is reason to believe that the income would have been still larger had it not been that a special effort has been made by some of the churches to throw their full strength, or at least a large portion of it, in support of the new Board of Aid for Colleges on its first starting. For this, however, no complaint is made. It is in point, nevertheless, to remind the churches that though the two Boards come under the general head of Education, their spheres are distinct; and giving to the one does not compensate for withholding from the other. Rather, so far from having conflicting interests or claims, each furnishes an additional reason for helping more largely the other. The call for more ministers demands the extension of our Collegiate and Academic institutions; and on the other hand the extension of these institutions will serve to expand the field from which applications will come to the Board of Education for assistance. Both the Boards should be sustained adequately, and a great mistake will it be for the churches to divide their ordinary contributions for the cause of Education between the two Boards, as some have been doing, or to withhold altogether from the one in order to give to the other. The Church now needs both the Boards in vigorous operation.

THE CASE AS IT NOW STANDS.

The Minutes of the Assembly for the year ending 1883 show a net increase of 75 in our ministry over that of the previous one. That is to say, after filling all the gaps made in our ranks by death, amounting to 89, and those made by dismissal to other bodies, amounting to 22, we count a surplus of 75. Of these, it seems that 64 came to us from our sister denominations, leaving a balance to our credit of only 11. We received 42 more than we gave. Here we have one conclusive proof of the much contested fact that our Church has not been developing out of its own body adequate supplies for its pulpits, and the proof magnifies when we see that while we raised only a net increase of 11 ministers, that of our churches amounted to 99!

On the other hand, it is cheering to observe a considerable increase in the number of candidates reported over those of the previous year. But this increase, it must be remembered, is of candidates far back in their course. The turn of the tide is in mid-ocean, and will not be likely to reach the shore and prove available for filling our pulpits for some years to come. The scarcity is still far from being relieved.

How far we are still behind in meeting the demands of our rapidly extending Church, and how much must yet be done before the want is properly supplied, may be learned from the following statistics. They are taken from the Assembly's roll, with errors corrected, as given by one who has carefully examined it in detail. Our churches number in all 5847; our ministers, 5231. Deducting from these numbers the churches and ministers reported from the two foreign Synods of China and India, and from the five foreign Presbyteries of Corisco, Oroomiah, Rio Janeiro, Siam and West Africa, and we have left in this country 5730 churches and 5004 ministers. Of the latter 877 must be regarded as unavailable for more than occasional supplies of vacant pulpits, viz., 392 who are honorably retired; 190 engaged in instruction; 34 editors; 23 who are installed over Congregational churches; 95 Secretaries and Treasurers; and 120 who are agents for various causes. This would bring down our working force to 4217. But there are still two classes to be taken under consideration, viz.: 236 who are marked as Evangelists and 456 who are without charge, in all 692, or in round numbers 700. What proportion of these would accept the pastorate or even the position of stated supply, or how many of these are disabled only by temporary sickness, or are acceptable as preachers, or are not disqualified for the pursuit of their calling by engagement in secular business, it would be impossible to state without more examination. It would, however, be safe to put the number at one-half, leaving 346 more to be counted out for various reasons. This reduces our whole available force to 3871 ministers for 5730 churches all told—an excess of 1859 churches. Of these a good many are so combined as to be served by one minister. A still larger number, estimated at over 300, are regularly supplied by ministers of other denominations. Deducting these there still remain 1147 marked vacant. Of these, 16 report an income of over $4000; 13, an income from this to $3000; 26, an income from $3000 to $2000; 66, an income from $2000 to 1000; 118, an income from $1000 to $500. In all there are 259 churches that either alone, or with a little help could support a pastor, and want one. And these incomes, it must be remembered, are reported while the churches are vacant. Many of them would naturally be larger were the churches properly supplied with ministers. And many a Church reporting an income less than $500 would, no doubt, develop greater pecuniary strength were its pulpit filled.

Again, rated according to their number, 37 churches report a membership of 200 and over; 32, a membership of from 150 to 200; 66, a membership of from 100 to 150; 72, a membership of from 75 to 100; 141, a membership of from 50 to 75; and 270, a membership of from 25 to 50. In all there are 532 churches which, judged by their size, appear deserving of care. How many of these might be greatly enlarged, and others still smaller be brought into more flourishing condition by proper care we can only surmise. There are 48 Presbyteries that have of these vacant churches 10 apiece and upwards. One has 20.

Moreover, in order to make the show of want complete, we must take into account the annual increase of churches, which netted last year 99. Such is the condition of our churches as they are made to appear in the minutes of the Assembly of 1883.

A glance must now be taken at the supplies which our Seminaries are promising us for the next three years. The aggregate of students, as presented in the catalogues of the Seminaries sent to us for the past year, in the 3 classes, is 432, an excess upon those reported last year of 21. Dividing by three, and counting upon all as intended for our Church, the recruits for our ministerial force to fill the gaps made in it by death and dismissal, and to supply our vacant churches and our new organizations at home and to go as missionaries abroad, average 144 per year. How insufficient is our supply may be seen at a glance. Instead, our Seminaries ought to graduate every year at least 175 candidates ready furnished for every good work.

In the above estimate the colored churches and students have been left out of the account for the same reason that the foreign mission churches and missionaries have been left out. It takes away all cause or pretext for regarding our condition as really better than the above statement shows.

This survey indicates several things. One is that the Presbyterian Church is not yet furnishing an adequate supply of ministers for its existing churches and for its future enlargement, nor is it likely to furnish them for some years to come. Another is that it has no efficient system for properly utilizing the ministers it has trained, and tolerates an appearance of waste which deters many from entering the ministry. Another is that while it proffers to its ministers a great number of vacant fields to be occupied, quite a large proportion of these fields present no good openings for labor and no sufficient means of support; and this, too, operates as a dissuasive from entering the sacred calling. Young men naturally desire a kind of work which affords some scope for their energies and yields some fruit of labor, and this is what they expect that the Church which calls for their service will in some way furnish. We respectfully suggest, therefore, that if the Presbyterian Church would have a free, unincumbered development of its ministry, its judicatories should devise and enforce a system by means of which its unemployed, yet available, ministers may be set to work, its vacant churches be more speedily supplied, and those which are hopelessly feeble, and promise no growth, be combined with others of our own or other denominations, so that they can be regularly supplied with the means of grace. In our opinion there is no subject which demands of our Church more earnest consideration and more determined action than this. While some of our sister churches that enforce a wise policy in these matters have no difficulty in obtaining candidates for their pulpits, we are suffering for the lack of it.

The Presbyterian Board of Publication respectfully presents to the General Assembly this its Forty-sixth Annual Report.

With gratitude and hope it acknowledges the goodness of God in the abundant mercies vouchsafed to it during the year past, and in the prosperity and success with which He has crowned its work. Never, in the years of its past history, has it been more completely exempted from reverses, or enabled to make larger advances in every department of its work. In all these blessings and prospects the Board would devoutly recognize the good hand of the great Head of the Church, and would gird itself up to undertake the work of the coming years with confidence and joy.

Periodicals.

The combined lists of the periodicals show an increase of over one hundred thousand subscriptions during the past twelve months, a growth that is every way gratifying, as the same advance was made during the year before that.

The large reduction in prices made in 1883 undoubtedly contributed to the increase in the circulation of the periodicals of the Board. The List includes:

THE WESTMINSTER TEACHER, the Board's monthly magazine for teachers and officers in the sabbath-schools. It gives full expositions and illustrations of the International Bible Lessons, prepared during the past year by the Rev. J. R. Miller, D.D., aided by the Rev. J. A. Worden, D.D., and Mrs. G. R. Alden, as well as articles bearing upon all the branches of this important department of Church work, by able and popular writers. It is furnished at 60 cents a year to single subscribers, and 50 cents where six or more copies are addressed to one person.

THE WESTMINSTER QUESTION BOOK.—Though called a "Question Book," it is a complete manual for the study of the International Bible Lessons of the year. The Shorter Catechism is given in it systematically, one question for each Sabbath, as in the other periodicals of the Board. It is intended for use in Bible-classes and the senior classes of the school. Price, $15 per hundred, net.

THE WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY is a help to the study of the Bible lessons, adapted to use by the more intelligent classes of our sabbath-schools. It is published in the form of an octavo of thirty-two pages. The increase in its circulation is the best evidence of its approval by our churches. Single subscription, 20 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 15 cents each per annum.

THE WESTMINSTER LESSON LEAF.—This "Leaf" fills the place of an "intermediate leaf." It is issued monthly, but is so arranged that the lesson for each Sabbath occupies the two sides of one leaf. Price, $6 per hundred copies.

THE WESTMINSTER PRIMARY LEAF, for the youngest classes studying the International Bible Lessons, is still prepared by Mrs. G. R. Alden ("Pansy"), and has largely increased in its circulation.

THE GERMAN LESSON LEAF is doing a good work in meeting the wants of our German congregations, to whom it proves a valuable help in the study of the Bible in the sabbath-school. The price has been reduced to $6 per hundred copies.

WESTMINSTER LESSON QUESTIONS.—This is a new publication. It consists of leaves with six questions on each lesson and spaces for answers to be written by the scholar. Is is put up in packages for six months, January to June, five cents a package, net; July to December, at the same rate.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.—This oldest periodical of the Board holds its own. The Visitor is published twice a month, that is, on the first and third weeks of each month, at the following terms per year:

Single Subscriptions.		School Subscriptions.
Once a month, . .	25 cents.	To one address, at the rate of

Or, at the rate of one cent for each copy.

The Morning Star.—Equal to the Sabbath-school Visitor in every respect, but of one-half its size, yet with more than one-half the amount of reading. It is published on the second and fourth weeks of each month, at the following rates per year:

Single Subscriptions.		School Subscriptions.
Once a month, . .	10 cents.	To one address:
Twice a month, . .	20 "	$ 6 per 100 copies, once a month.
		12 " " twice a month.

Or, at the rate of half a cent for each copy.

The Sunbeam continues to be wonderfully popular with its constantly increasing army of young admirers. It is a weekly illustrated paper, adapted to the very little ones of the home and school. It also carries help on the International Lessons for the primary classes and the little ones at home. Single subscriptions, 30 cents; school subscriptions at the rate of $25 per hundred, a year.

Forward is an illustrated monthly paper, sixteen pages quarto, designed to meet the wants of that class of our young people who have outgrown the "children's papers," and who demand something more mature. It is made attractive by pictorial illustrations, whilst its articles constantly keep in view the tastes and wants of those for whom it is prepared. The rates have been reduced, and are now: one copy to one address, 40 cents; five or more copies to one address, 25 cents each, per year.

The Presbyterian Monthly Record.—This organ of the Assembly's Boards and Committees continues to be published, in octavo pamphlet form, by the Board of Publication, but only as publisher for the Assembly's Boards and Committees, the control of its pages resting entirely with the several organizations represented. The monthly circulation of the magazine has been about nine thousand, including the copies sent gratuitously to each of the ministers of the Church. The loss incurred by its publication and distribution is shared by the Assembly's Boards in the ratio of the space occupied by each.

THE BOOKSTORE OF THE BOARD.

The publications of the Board now number over 2500, of which about 1500 are volumes; the remainder are tracts and pamphlets. They contain a wide and valuable variety of works on the doctrine and polity of the Church, on religious experience and Christian duty, on Church history, missions, and every other religious topic. They are adapted to help the unconverted soul, the Christian believer, and the minister of the Gospel. They are suitable for the sabbath-school or the Church library, or for family use. In addition to its own publications, the Board offers in its bookstore a large variety of the issues of other publishing houses. And an order for any book, if not in the store, will be filled, if possible, by procuring it from other sources for the customer.

Sabbath-school libraries may here be selected with every assurance that nothing objectionable will be included in them. Should any book be purchased which, on closer examination, is found objectionable, it may be returned with a written statement of the objections, and either its price or another volume of the same price will be sent to the purchaser.

An excellent assortment of Bibles and Testaments, commentaries and theological books, may always be found here, and if any particular kind is not on hand, it will be promptly procured from the publisher or elsewhere, and furnished at the lowest practicable price.

We sometimes hear the assertion, even from Presbyterians, that the Board's books are not sold as cheap as those of other publishing houses. Careful comparisons made between its prices and those of many other houses have satisfied the Board that on a fair comparison its books are sold as low as those of most publishing houses, and cheaper than those of many of them. Within the last two or three years the prices of a large proportion of the books on its catalogue have been greatly reduced. The entire list of 18mo and 32mo publications, covering about 450 volumes, has been reduced in price fully 30 per cent, no book of this class now costing more than 60 cents, retail price; or to sabbath-schools 45 cents. Many of these publications have as much reading matter in them as the ordinary $1 and $1.25 volumes, and if made in the other size would readily sell at those prices.

OUR NEW DEPOSITORIES.

By direction of the General Assembly of 1882 the Board established a depository at Chicago. It may be found at No, 137 Wabash Avenue, and is under the care of Mr. C. H. Whiting. From it may be procured any of the publications of the Board, as well as the books of other publishers.

A second depository was established at St. Louis, in charge of the Rev. J. W. Allen, D.D., at No, 1107 Olive Street. It has begun to do a large and important business, and will, it is believed, meet the wants of a wide region.

ARRANGEMENTS ELSEWHERE.

During the past two or three years the Board has been constantly extending and making more liberal its arrangements with booksellers in the larger cities of our country and of Canada. By means of these arrangements the Board's issues can now be easily obtained in nearly all the principal centres of the book-trade in these countries.

RECEIPTS AND SALES.

The receipts into the treasury during the year from all sources, including the balance of $28,681.93 from last year, were $308,393.68, and, exclusive of that balance, $279,711.75.

The balance in the treasury at the end of the year, March 31st, 1884, is $21,176.99.

The aggregate of sales (including those made to the Missionary Department) has been $199,950.58. This aggregate does not agree with the Treasurer's account, because it includes credit sales, while that account exhibits only cash received. Particulars of receipts and expenditures may be found in the Treasurer's report and statements, further on in this Report.

THE MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

Directions for Correspondence.

Letters relating to grants of books and tracts, the appointment of colporteurs and the general interest of the Board, to be addressed to the Rev. William E. Schenck, D.D., Corresponding Secretary.

Remittances of money and contributions to Mr. S. D. Powel, Treasurer.

Parties desiring copies of the Secretary's annual circular for distribution, or to place in their pews when about to take up a collection, can obtain them by addressing the Corresponding Secretary and stating the number desired.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The Board of Publication is incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, under the style of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication." Bequests are respectfully solicited, and should be made as above designated. All bequests are applied to the uses of the Missionary Fund, unless otherwise directed by testators.

The Missionary Department of the Board has passed through the year without incurring any indebtedness, and closes the year with a balance to its credit. It has thus been enabled to do more work than in many of the past years, and to do it with more freedom and efficiency, than when it was done in the face of a deficiency it was all the time in danger of imprudently enlarging.

Applications for the appointment of colporteurs and for the bestowal of grants have been incessant and have come from all parts of our Church. So far as practicable these requests have been favorably responded to. Some former colporteurs have retired from the Board's service, but a considerably larger number have been commissioned. In every new appointment the greatest care has been taken to obtain full and reliable information concerning the persons appointed, not only through a personal correspondence between them and the Corresponding Secretary, but also through testimonials from ministers and others who were able to vouch for their qualifications for the proposed work, in a physical, intellectual, and spiritual point of view. Before receiving an appointment, every applicant has had a copy of the Board's printed Instructions to colporteurs placed in his hands and been required to give his pledge to obey carefully all their directions. And especially has the Board been careful to issue no commission to any person to labor within the bounds of any Presbytery unless first recommended to do so by that Presbytery or its Publication Committee. To secure persons in all respects well qualified to perform the arduous and often delicate duties of the colporteur and to sift out such from among applicants, many of whom are entirely unfit for the service, is no easy thing. But through the exercise of great and constant care it is believed that very few mistakes have been made, that the Board's band of colporteurs to-day as a body are unusually well qualified for their work and are doing it well. In the whole of the year past not more than two or three expressions of doubt or fear in regard to any one of our colporteurs have come to us from any part of the wide field. Their reports and correspondence have undergone a close examination, and directions and exhortations such as seemed to be needed have been sent to them from time to time. They have been urged to give special prominence in their work to visitations from house to house, with religious conversation and prayer wherever practicable, to making enlarged distributions gratuitously of books, tracts, and papers, and to the performance of vigorous sabbath-school work among the spiritually destitute.

NEW FIELDS OCCUPIED.

During the past year not only has the number of colporteurs been largely increased, but many of those newly appointed have been sent to occupy new, distant and very needy fields in New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon, Washington Territory, Montana, Nevada, Idaho, Colorado, and Dakota, while the force of laborers has been enlarged in many other fields. Everywhere they have been received with respectful attention and often with gladness, while the printed truth they scatter is nearly everywhere accepted with good promise of its being read and pondered. How unspeakable a blessing would it be to the Presbyterian Church to have a colporteur actively at work in every Presbytery throughout her wide extent, distributing publications which would state, illustrate, and defend the teachings of her pulpits and of her standards, as well as counteract the floods of trashy and often immoral literature which are deluging the land. We pray and trust that the time is not far off when no Presbytery will feel that it is fully equipped for the work of the Lord until it has such a laborer busy within its bounds.

NEW WORK OF THE YEAR.

The number of colporteurs at work during the whole or portions of the year just ended has been 84, who have labored in 20 Synods and 95 Presbyteries. These have distributed by sale 34,982 volumes; while 73,767 volumes (making a total of 108,699 volumes) and 6,692,882 pages of tracts and periodicals have been gratuitously distributed by them, and the Missionary Committee, acting through large numbers of voluntary, unpaid, and uncommissioned laborers.

The commissioned colporteurs have visited 87,112 families, with a large majority of which they have held religious conversation and prayer, accompanied in very many cases with the reading of the Holy Scriptures. They also report having held 2478 prayer-meetings and other religious services as opportunity was offered. This is a large and most encouraging advance on the work last year reported. Details respecting it may be found in the tables printed further on in this report.

A larger use than ever before has been made of pastors, missionaries and other voluntary helpers in securing a wider diffusion of the Board's publications wherever it could judiciously be done, especially among the poor, the destitute, and the irreligious. Grants have been sent freely to those who have offered such help in every part of the wide field. They have also been sent, on application, for use by our foreign missionaries in China, Japan, India, Syria, Persia, Western Africa (including Liberia), South America, Guatemala, Mexico, and among our North American Indian tribes.

A larger number of volumes have been distributed than in former years for the same money, because the Board has placed a choice selection of its doctrinal and practical books in a very cheap form in paper covers, within easy reach of its Missionary Department. These are arranged in its catalogue under the head of "Westminster Cheap Series," and have been extensively used in supplying colporteurs and in making grants. Additions to this Cheap Series will probably be made from time to time, and it is likely to be exceedingly helpful to the Board's missionary work.

The large amount of pure religious truth disseminated in the ways above stated, if followed by the prayers of God's people, and especially by the benign and almighty influences of the Holy Spirit, may secure blessings beyond conception to vast numbers of souls ready to perish, as well as to the Church itself. We are not usually permitted to see the fruits from the seed we sow, yet enough precious evidences come to us from the field to show that the Holy Spirit does attend and bless this work, and that the good seed will assuredly produce a bountiful harvest. Not only the colporteurs themselves, but pastors and others who closely observe this work and its results, bear ample and delightful testimony that the truth disseminated by the Board is accompanied by a Divine, converting and sanctifying power.

OUR COLPORTEURS AND SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

Prominent among the duties of our colporteur is that of organizing new sabbath-schools in destitute places wherever he finds it practicable, and giving them needed help. It is also his duty to visit and encourage, so far as he can, all sabbath-schools, especially such as are feeble, and to supply them with the library books, catechisms, lesson helps, papers and other facilities published by the Board. This part of his work grows in importance every year. In cases not a few the way has thus been prepared for a demand for the preaching of the Gospel, and in the end for the organization of a permanent Presbyterian Church.

During the year now reported on the colporteurs have organized 151 new schools in such destitute localities. They have also visited and encouraged 1755 schools, into many of which they have infused new vigor, and in some very marked instances have prevented their extinction. Very many children have thus begun to be made acquainted with the blessed teachings of the word of God, and to experience the benign influences of Christianity.

Nine years ago this sabbath-school work was begun by our colporteurs. Since that time they have organized 863 sabbath-schools, and have visited and aided 12,512 schools. More than 25,000 children have in this way been drawn to the study of the Bible and to learn the way of life eternal, instead of being left to lives of ignorance of Christ, to sabbath-breaking, to lawlessness and to ruin.

GOOD WORK FOR SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

The great majority of our Presbyterian sabbath-schools enjoy ample facilities for instruction in sacred knowledge. They have Bibles, and libraries, and papers, and everything needed for their advancement and comfort. Will not these schools, so largely blessed, gladly help this Board of Publication to furnish, through its Missionary Department, similar advantages and supplies to the many thousands of poor and needy children found in every part of the land? While Presbyterian sabbath-schools raise every year in the aggregate a very large sum of money, it is a very painful fact that very few of them send contributions to the Missionary Fund of this Board to help it in this Branch of its good work. As we have done in former years, so now we earnestly appeal to them again for their help. We also respectfully entreat pastors and sabbath-school superintendents to present our work to the minds of their pupils and secure their contributions. The children and youth will gladly do this if they are shown the work and its needs. The General Assembly has many times recommended that this should be done. The last General Assembly emphatically declared that in its judgment sabbath-schools should "always and especially remember the sabbath-school missionary work of the Board of Publication," in their contributions.

SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

The Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Secretary of Sabbath-school Work, submits the following as his report of that work during the past year:

The following tabulated statement will show at a glance the advance made in the sabbath-school work of our Church during the past five years:

	Sabbath-schools.	Officers and Teachers.	Scholars.	Total.	Using Westminster Helps.	Total circulation of S. S. Periodicals.
1883. . .	6476	82,970	580,795	663,765	575,700	11,940,819
Gain . .	607	8,035	55,848	63,883	221,680	3,413,265

During these five years the total additions to the Communion of the Church on examination were 142,892. It is impossible accurately to state what number of these had been members of the sabbath-school previous to their coming into full membership in the Church, but doubtless the proportion was large.

These figures will aid the thoughtful mind to appreciate the burden resting on those whose duty it is to systematize, direct and develop this great work. They are full of encouragement, as they evidence constant and solid progress. The increase in the number of our sabbath-school members using the Westminster Lesson Helps is especially gratifying.

Presbyterian Doctrine in Presbyterian Sabbath-schools.—Our statistical reports show that more attention is given to the study of the Shorter Catechism than at any former period. The unwillingness of our sabbath-school workers to use any lesson helps not giving prominence to this "form of sound words" is a healthy indication. If the Catechism is neglected in any school, the blame should be borne by the Session of the Church, whose duty it is to see that it is taught. No scholar in a Presbyterian sabbath-school should fail thoroughly to commit to memory the Shorter Catechism.

Closely related to this subject is the Supervision and Control by the Church Sessions of the sabbath-school work of our congregations. The great majority of our schools, according to the oft-repeated instructions of the General Assembly, are "under the direction of the pastor and session." In certain portions of our Church there is still necessity for urging the duty of yielding to these wholesome instructions; and in other parts, of pressing the duty of sessions to exercise watch and care over their sabbath-schools.

Reports of Presbyterial Sabbath-school work.—The Presbyterial form of government is peculiarly adapted to foster Bible teaching in the sabbath-school. This work not only requires the sympathy and help of the Church, but also its authoritative control. This is furnished by our Church Sessions. Equally adapted to supervise and extend this work is the Presbytery. What body of men could be better fitted to understand the needs of sabbath-schools and to provide the help which they require? The progress of Christ's kingdom, the success of our Church and sabbath-school work, in a large degree, hangs on the fidelity and wise leadership of our Presbyteries. This Presbyterial leadership and supervision is delegated to the Sabbath-school Committees of the Presbyteries. To an extent not fully recognized this great sabbath-school work depends on these one-hundred and sixty Presbyterial Committees. Many of them are performing inestimable service for the Church. Special mention may be made of the Sabbath-school Association of the Presbytery of Cincinnati. All our Presbyteries are recommended to organize similar associations.

Presbyterial Institutes.—Many of these committees, by authority of Presbytery, hold institutes for sabbath-school workers, who report their labors, compare and discuss plans of work, and provoke one another to love and good works. The elements of systematic instruction are also introduced. Time is given to lectures on topics connected with the work. Specimen lessons are given, and class-drills and criticisms upon them. Practical difficulties are freely discussed. By means of such gatherings the sabbath-school workers of a Presbytery are brought into closer sympathy with each other, and are filled with a love and an intelligent enthusiasm for their own Church, its doctrine, polity and work. Our faithful teachers feel the need of encouragement and instruction. The Presbytery that provides for these needs by institutes, conventions and other wise measures holds its workers. If the Presbytery fails to do this, there is danger that the workers, seeking elsewhere for these things, will be led under outside and un-Presbyterian influences.

The Secretary of Sabbath-school Work during the past year attended such meetings with the Presbytery of Utica, at Utica, N. Y.; with the Presbytery of Monmouth, at Bordentown, N. J.; with Binghamton Presbytery at McGrawville, N. Y.; with Cleveland Presbytery, at Cleveland, Ohio; with Mahoning Presbytery, at Youngstown, Ohio; with the Presbytery of Wooster, at Mansfield, Ohio; with the Presbytery of Columbus, at London, Ohio; also meetings at Philadelphia, Pa.; Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo.; Atkinson, Kansas, etc., etc. He also attended and labored in the Lakeside Encampment, near Sandusky, Ohio, July 25 to August 5; in the Chatauqua Sabbath-school Assembly, August 6 to 20; and in "the New England Sabbath-school Assembly," at Framingham, Mass., August 25 to 28, 1883. He also represented the Presbyterian Church on the International Lesson Committee, meeting at Montreal, Canada, February 21 and 22, 1884.

Presbyterial Statistical Report.—By order of the General Assembly it is made the duty of the Secretary of Sabbath-school Work to collect sabbath-school statistics. This has been accomplished with increasing success. Without such statistics our plans for increased efficiency will be based on theories and suppositions instead of facts. The experience of all workers in every department of Christian effort, confirms us in the conviction that, other things being equal, spiritual power and success will be in proportion to the thoroughness of our organization. Such organization can only be based on accurate statistical reports. The Sabbath school Committees of eighty-four Presbyteries have collected, tabulated and transmitted sta-

Bible Correspondence School.—This new enterprise, in the interest of the higher training of sabbath-school teachers, was begun May 8, 1883. It was approved by the General Assembly, May 23, 1883. A complete outline of the plan in circular form was widely distributed throughout the Church, and was received with great favor. During the term from November, 1883, to March, 1884, the course of study embraced the three missionary journeys of Paul, and the Epistles of James, First and Second Thessalonians, Galatians, First and Second Corinthians and Romans, in the New Testament, and the lives and writings of David and Solomon in the Old Testament. Besides these Bible lessons, twenty-four practical lessons on methods of sabbath-school teaching were studied. The total number of members at present is 5300, representing nearly all our States and Territories and the Dominion of Canada. Not the least of the results of this Bible Correspondence School is the enthusiasm developed for the more thorough and systematic study of the Bible. The second term will begin November 1, 1884, when it is expected that many thousands will enter its course of study.

The Secretary of Sabbath-school Work has been cordially welcomed by the professors of the Princeton Theological Seminary and of Lane Theological Seminary, to whose students he delivered a brief course of lectures on sabbath-school work. He had the pleasure during the past year of laboring for one hundred and ten days (exclusive of Sabbaths) in institute and assembly work, of preparing one hundred and twelve lessons for sabbath-school workers, and of reaching five thousand three hundred each week for six months in the Bible Correspondence School, of addressing four Synods and many Presbyteries, and of conducting a large correspondence concerning Bible study and Bible teaching.

GRANTS MADE.

During the year the Board has freely made grants to parties needing and soliciting aid. Such grants of books, tracts and sabbath-school papers and helps have been given to pastors, to missionaries, to hundreds of sabbath-schools, to charitable institutions, and to individual applicants in almost every part of the land. A very large proportion of these grants have been given to mission and feeble sabbath-schools in the Western States and Territories. Some have been sent to the Freedmen's churches and sabbath-schools in the South. And, as has been already stated, some have been sent on application of our foreign missionaries to help them in their noble work in other lands.

COLPORTAGE A NECESSITY.

The ever-growing waves of immigration, and the steady diffusion of population over the vast and hitherto unoccupied portions of our land, bring to us every year more and more imperious calls for the work of the colporteur. Our Presbyterian churches and people need to have a good Christian and Calvinistic literature placed in their hands and their homes. They need our Church standards themselves, and many are not likely ever to have or read them unless carried to their homes by the colporteur. They need also, in these days of wide-spread and vigorous error, to have works exhibiting, illustrating and defending the doctrines, and government and history of their Church.

No matter how faithful and industrious pastors may be, they cannot fully reach and care for all the irreligious and non-church-going multitudes who surround their churches, and are even mixed among their people. But the colporteur with his books and tracts may enter the homes of these, thus reaching great numbers ready to perish within easy reach of the preached Gospel.

But what else or better can be done for those millions in our land who are living and dying beyond the sound of the church-going bell, than to send to them the colporteur with his books and tracts? Except in this blessed agency there is absolutely no visible human hope or help for multitudes of those dwelling in the widely-scattered homes of the West, of the South and of the great Northwest. Ministers enough are not obtainable, nor at the present rate of increase in the ministry will there be enough in many long years to come, to carry to these scattered millions the preached Word of Life. Send the Gospel to their homes upon the printed page, or vast numbers will surely perish for the lack of it.

NEEDS OF THE NEXT YEAR.

If the benevolent work of this Board shall continue to grow and expand during the coming year as it has done during the past one, its Missionary Fund ought to receive from the churches and sabbath-schools at least seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000). For this sum we earnestly appeal. And we respectfully ask the General Assembly to recommend the churches to give us this amount. The Board can then send forth its colporteurs in increasing numbers, and send grants of its publications to those who need and ask for them, without stint and without the constant apprehension of having its missionary department incur a debt. The Assembly of 1881 did recommend the churches "to attempt to raise for this work for the coming year at least seventy-five thousand dollars." But it was not done. Can it not be done during the year now before us? If pastors and sabbath-school superintendents will make an earnest effort, it can easily be done.

The Annual Collection.

The First Sabbath in May has been designated by former General Assemblies as the most suitable time for the churches to take an annual collection for the Board's Missionary Fund. Except where some other preferred arrangement has been made for this cause, every pastor and stated supply is earnestly requested on that day to present this important object to his congregation and solicit their liberal aid.

All money given to the Board's Missionary Fund, whether by churches or individuals, or received from legacies, is wholly and carefully expended in carrying forward the Board's missionary or benevolent work. Notwithstanding the repeated announcement of this fact in former Annual Reports, in various circulars, in the Monthly Record and in other ways, there is a strange confusion in the minds of many persons in regard to the matter. Will each minister, therefore, when about to take his collection for this cause, oblige the Board by stating distinctly that the Board of Publication sustains its publishing and bookselling department wholly by its sales, and that all contributions of churches and individuals are put into the Missionary Fund, and are used exclusively in carrying forward the Board's missionary and sabbath-school work, in supporting the colporteurs, in paying for books and tracts given away, and in defraying such expenses as belong legitimately to this benevolent branch of the Board's work?

During the year now under review 2350 churches have contributed to the Board's Missionary Fund. This is an increase of 81 over the number which contributed last year. Should each Church which has this year given nothing send next year even a very small contribution, it would enable the Board to make a large advance in its benevolent work.

The American Bible Society.

That noble institution, the American Bible Society, which is a fountain of blessing to the whole world, has again, as in former years, sent to our missionary department generous grants of Bibles and New Testaments, in various languages, for the use of its colporteurs, who have thus been enabled gratuitously to place the Word of God in thousands of homes before without it.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD,

ABSTRACT OF THE FOURTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In presenting to the General Assembly, and through it to the Church at large, our Fourteenth Annual Report, we are thankful to be able to speak of progress in every department of our work. Our meetings have been regularly held and faithfully attended. It is worthy of notice that during the fourteen years since the organization of the Board, we have never failed to hold our regular meetings, and always have had more than a quorum present. This speaks well for the fidelity of our members.

As in previous years, our work has extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and from Canada to Florida. New fields have been opened up to us in the West and South of unusual promise. Aid has been given to twenty-three churches for Freedmen—some of these are within the limits of the Indian Territory, where but a few years since they were the slaves of the Indians. It is an interesting fact, that in this field where the devoted Kingsbury, Byington, Wright, and others, who gathered the first Presbyterian churches that were organized among these Indian tribes, but which were broken up and scattered by the Rebellion—this field is again being brought under Christian culture—churches and schools reorganized by some of the former missionaries, driven from the field eighteen or twenty years ago, but now returned to resume their work. Twenty-three churches and chapels among the Mormons have been aided by and through this Board during the year. Among the different Indian tribes twelve churches have been built during the year. Aid has been given in the erection of ten German Presbyterian churches and to five Spanish-speaking churches in New Mexico and California.

Nothing has so much tended to strengthen and render permanent our evangelistic work as the erection of these bulwarks of our beloved Zion. We hope the time may come when the demand for means, with which to shelter the poor of Christ's flock, shall not so far exceed the supply, as at present; but this is not likely to be the case, so long as emigration continues to pour its hundreds of thousands upon our shores, pushing westward the increase of our home-born population. We have been trying to overtake the planters and the reapers with our church garners, but as fast as some are sheltered we hear the Macedonian cry from "over there" for help. Will not the Church rally to the support of the Board in this effort?

RECEIPTS.

We commenced the year with the small balance of $373 in hand, a pitiful sum with which to face the formidable work before us at a season when so little contribution is to be expected, but when the work of building is most pressing.

During the year we have received from 3424 churches the sum of $53,131. Small as is this amount, it is an increase over that of the preceding year by $4538 in amount, and 404 in the number of contributing churches. Many of these Church collections are exceedingly small. We are thankful for the "widow's mite," when given by the widow and with her spirit of consecration; but when churches that would be offended if called poor, and that give to other objects hundreds of dollars, send us the pitiful sum of two dollars, or perhaps four dollars, we know not how to apply the Master's plaudit: "WELL DONE, GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANTS;" especially if those churches had in former years been the beneficiaries of this Board, as is probably the fact. Nor do we know how to reconcile it with faithfulness in Christian stewardship, when some of our largest and most wealthy Presbyteries vote to apply all the money contributed by their churches for Church Erection, to the liquidation of the debt of some one of their own churches, and thus give nothing (or next to nothing) to help the Board to carry the heavy burden of Church Erection throughout the entire bounds of the General Assembly. Surely such Presbyteries cannot appreciate the importance of the work which the General Assembly has committed to our hands.

The Board has not shared with others in the large bequests of some of our wealthy men who have ended their stewardship during the last year. We are the more surprised at this, when we consider the security with which these gifts to the Church are guarded, and the permanent benefit received from them through our mortgage and perpetual insurance plan. For many long years after the donors of such legacies have passed away, these monuments of their generosity remain to do their blessed work in the worship of God.

As shown by the Treasurer's Report, a considerable sum has been realized from the sale of old Church property. To this we have given special attention. We venture the suggestion that this is the appropriate duty of the Standing Committees of Presbyteries, by attending to which much waste may be avoided and no small amount added to our treasury.

APPLICATIONS.

During the year 336 applications, formal and informal, have been received, calling for $208,500. The greater number of these appeals came after the applicants had exhausted their own limited resources, and asked for small sums to aid in building very plain and inexpensive structures. Others, however, asking for larger amounts than the state of our treasury would admit, and to secure buildings at a cost of from $10,000 to $15,000, we felt compelled to decline, as our means were inadequate, nor do we suppose that the money entrusted to us was intended by the donors for such expensive buildings. If in this judgment we are wrong, we are very willing to be set right by the Assembly. Some of these applications were declined for want of satisfactory titles to the lots. Our rules say: "No grant shall be made where the lot is not held in fee simple and free from all incumbrance." In some cases the ground was generously donated to the congregation, with a clause of reversion in the title in case the property ceased to be used for Presbyterian worship. Such a clause vitiates the title and renders the mortgage which we are required to take utterly useless. It would prevent disappointment if all applicants understood and bore this in mind.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Grants have been made during the year to 236 churches, amounting in the aggregate to $101,200. This is an increase of twenty-one over the appropriations of last year, or of any preceding year in the history of this Board. A glance at the out-line map will show how these grants have been distributed over the country. Utah has received a larger number than any other State or Territory, for much it needs the cleansing influence of Christianity to save it from moral putrefaction. In Michigan we have aided in the erection of 11 churches; in Missouri, 10; in Iowa, 14; in Dakota, 16; in Nebraska, 18; and in Kansas, 22. If to these 236 we add the forty churches on hand, but not completed at the beginning of the year, it will be seen that the Board had under its care during the last twelve months the wants of 276 churches, amounting in the aggregate to $120,933. Appropriations have been paid during the year to 216 churches, amounting to $107,572. Grants made to nine churches, amounting to $6775, have been withdrawn in consequence of the conditions not having been fulfilled within the specified time. Some of these grants have been renewed upon new applications having been made. We have the money in readiness to pay all the appropriations made, so soon as the conditions are fulfilled. We are glad to be able to say, that during the last fourteen years, no Church that had furnished the papers required has been kept in suspense for a single day from lack of promptness on our part.

INSURANCE.

We have learned from reliable sources that during the year there have been twenty-two Presbyterian churches injured or destroyed by fire to the extent of $268,385. Insurance on the same, $71,957. Loss for want of insurance, $196,428. Of the above, seven were churches aided by this Board, to the amount of $3070, all of which has been received from the different companies, so that no loss has been sustained, nor, indeed, have we sustained any loss during the last twelve and a half years since the adoption of this plan of insuring the money given by the Board. We hold nearly 1400 policies, amounting to $1,150,500; of these policies, 392 have been issued in the last twelve months, the face of which amounts to $277,984, and protecting property worth $1,200,000. Some of these policies are renewals, the first five years having expired. The churches insured are always notified of the expiration of their policies, and reminded of their promise of renewal; but many neglect and some absolutely refuse to send the money, thus violating one of the conditions upon which they received aid. We respectfully ask the Presbyteries to look into this matter, as it is certainly to the interest of their churches to do so.

As tornadoes have of late years been so frequent and destructive, we have arranged with some of the best companies to include such risks in their policies, at an additional cost of one per cent for five years.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNS AND PLANS.

Some years since, for the exclusive benefit of our own weak churches, we had a few designs of cheap buildings carefully prepared, with workmen's plans and specifications to correspond. These were very acceptable and useful to those unable to employ an architect. But other churches and of various denominations have, for the sake of economy, applied to us for these plans, and asking a variety of questions as to size, cost, capacity, estimate of quantity, etc., etc., until the demand has far exceeded our time and ability to meet it. For information we say that we have in pamphlet form some fifty-three designs of church buildings, sabbath-school rooms and manses, which we will send by mail to any one who sends us fifty cents. To correspond with some of these designs, we have sets of plans or drawings showing different segments of the buildings, which we will send by mail on receipt of $5, if we are told what Church makes the application. Should the applicant prefer any of those designs for which we have not the plans, we will put him in correspondence with the architect. Beyond this we cannot go.

OUTLOOK FOR THE COMING YEAR.

We closed this year with a balance of $3008 in the Treasury. Nearly all of this came in at the very close of the year. For several months our receipts fell far short of the demand. One hopeful sign is the increase of 404 in the number of contributing churches. Still this leaves probably 2550 churches that have given nothing to this Board. Some of these are among our largest and most wealthy churches, as will be seen on the list of Church collections. Others of the delinquents are weak and poor, but for this very reason they should give, that they "may receive at the Lord's hand double," and realize the truth of God's Word—"that there is that scattereth and yet increaseth." We look forward to the labors and results of the year upon which we have entered with stronger confidence than ever before. The progress of this Board from year to year; the expressions of approval and promises of support which have come up to us from all parts of the Church within the last few months, have assured us that this cause shall not only continue to live, but mightily to grow, as a power for good throughout all our borders, "to make glad the city of our God."

By order of the Board,

No. 1334 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

This has been the most prosperous year ever known in the history of this cause, even though the funds contributed for current use have been for at least three times exhausted, in consequence of extraordinary demands on the Treasury.

There has been an increase in the number of Presbyteries issuing recommendations for aid, in the number and value of boxes of clothing, in the additions to the Permanent Fund by donation and legacy, in the amount of funds received for current use, in the number of families on the roll, and in the sum total of moneys expended for the benefit of those who are under the care of the Board. Besides, the Presbyterian Ministers' House, at Perth Amboy, New Jersey, has been fitted up, partly furnished and set in operation.

Appropriations have been made to all who have been properly recommended, and, with very few exceptions, the payments have been in the exact sums asked for by the applicants and approved by the Presbyteries.

In no case has the Board ventured to run into debt, by borrowing funds either from private individuals or of banking institutions.

THE ROLL.

The whole number on the roll during the year, from April 1, 1883, to April 1, 1884, was 498, namely, 205 ministers, 262 widows of deceased ministers and 31 from orphan families. These have been reached in 141 Presbyteries, scattered throughout the length and breadth of the Presbyterian Church. Fifty-five of this number were new applicants, including 32 ministers, 18 widows and 5 orphan families. Two ministers and three widows, after having declined to ask help for two or three years, were constrained by pressing necessity to apply again for assistance, and their names have been replaced on the roll.

Three ministers have regained their health by means of the aid obtained from the Relief Fund, and have within the year resumed preaching, one of them having been for a few months a guest at the Presbyterian Ministers' House.

The mortality, so far as reported, has been greater the last year than at any former period. Thirty have died being heads of families, that is, 22 ministers and 8 widows of ministers, more than two-thirds of them having reached a good old age.

CHEERFUL GIVING.

Several churches have greatly enlarged their collections, and liberal contributions have come from warm-hearted individuals, friends of the cause.

Sabbath-schools have sent in their gifts. One connected with a prosperous Church, after a special address by one of the teachers, raised a generous sum for disabled ministers. The infant class of another has not failed for a score of years to present its annual offering. The sabbath-school in still another contributes yearly to all the Boards, this Board receiving its share, and an interesting sabbath-school has recently given one hundred dollars to furnish a room in the Presbyterian Ministers' House.

The claims of the Relief Fund have been recognized by the Church of Campos, in Brazil, and continue to be remembered by churches in the Presbyteries of Corisco and Western Africa, and by those of the Freedmen in the Southern States; and it is worthy of mention that the churches on the Pacific coast are manifesting a growing liberality to the fund. Thank-offerings have been presented by those who are under the care of the Board or by their friends, bearing testimony to the advantages derived from the appropriations, which have been to them like springs of water in the desert and "the shadow of a great rock in a weary land." Ministers and widows, in numerous letters from year to year, have dwelt in strong terms on the blessed effects, to themselves and their families as to both mind and body, of the relief extended by this Board. They know full well that every grant is a matter of justice and a recompense in part for faithful service, and yet they recognize the fact that the gifts of the Christian people of the Presbyterian Church are the free-will offerings of generous hearts, and they cease not to give thanks and to invoke the richest blessings of heaven on the donors.

A disabled minister says, "May my sons be enabled in the course of time to prove their deep gratitude towards your valuable Board;" and another recipient writes, "I wish to add my thanks to the Board for furnishing me this money. It has been conscientiously used, and, God granting me time and strength, it shall be returned to the Board that it may help some one else as it has helped me."

BOXES OF CLOTHING.

The work of the year is estimated at eleven thousand dollars. It has been a labor of love on the part of many Christian ladies, and beyond doubt it has brought its reward in spiritual blessings. The much needed gifts have been gratefully accepted by many happy households with the invocation of a benediction on these kind friends. The sincere thanks of the Board and of the whole Church are due to these ladies for their hearty sympathy.

Special mention should be made of the contribution of seventeen new overcoats sent free of charge to seventeen disabled ministers, by the people of the First Presbyterian Church, of Trenton, N. J.

WHAT THE PASTORS HAVE DONE.

The Board takes pleasure in recording the well-directed efforts of pastors to acquaint their churches with the design and operations of this Relief Fund. Such cases of fidelity are worthy of commendation and imitation.

Will not each pastor and stated supply throughout the Church preach a special sermon on this subject at least once a year, and give it a place often in the prayers of the sanctuary and social meetings? Will not the Presbyteries take order in the matter, and, moreover, adopt some definite plan by which the vacant churches may be visited and duly instructed so that they may enjoy the privilege of giving. Persistent, thorough work in every section of the Church will yield abundant fruit.

THE PRESBYTERIAL STANDING COMMITTEES.

The fidelity of these Committees on Relief deserves particular notice. This has been shown not only in the care, discretion and tenderness exercised in the investigation of cases of application for aid, but in the pains taken to stimulate the delinquent churches to take part in this service, and to encourage the contributing churches to bestow larger gifts. These committees are an important part of the machinery of this branch of Church work. Without zealous and vigilant coöperation with the Board in cultivating the several portions of this extended field. the interests of Ministerial Relief would languish and suffering would ensue.

THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS' HOUSE.

Since April 1st, 1883, the committee, consisting of Wm. G. Moorhead, Esq., Dr. James H. Mason Knox, and A. C. Barclay, Esq., appointed to put in order and furnish the building for occupancy, have performed that duty to entire satisfaction at a cost of a little over twelve thousand dollars. Miss M. L. Bower was appointed superintendent, and the house opened for guests on the first day of September, 1883, and a more formal opening with appropriate exercises was held on the ninth day of October following.

The undertaking has been successful. It has been shown that the building and grounds are adapted to the purpose for which they were given, and to which they have been dedicated by the Board.

Special funds are still needed to improve the premises, to put the furniture into all the rooms and to provide a library. It is the intention of the Board to neglect no improvement necessary to the health and convenience of the occupants. It is hoped that all needed facilities will be provided for nursing and medical attendance in order to restoration to health, and for giving such care as they should have who seek for rest in their declining years. A grateful Church cannot and will not decline to supply the means necessary to minister to the wants of the deserving men who have consecrated their lives to the Christian ministry.

Most of those under the care of the Board are assisted where they are. There are large families which should not be broken up while the children are in their minority. It is also not to be forgotten that this building cannot accommodate more than five per cent of the two thousand persons who look for support in whole or in part to this Board. There are, however, cases of such as have no home, who have outlived those who knew them in their youth and riper years, who have no friends to be responsible for their care or maintenance, and who could not be made comfortable among strangers. For the extremely aged, helpless, and homeless such a house as this is desirable and almost indispensable. It is also well to have always ready a place of retreat thoroughly equipped, to which a minister, suddenly breaking down in his work, can betake himself for rest and recuperation—where, free from care and expense, he may attend to the work of repairing his wasted strength until he may be able to resume the work of the ministry. It is believed that, when the merits of this new feature of the Board's operations are known, the Presbyterian Church will endorse it, and will hail with gladness and thanksgivings this providential opening to make more comfortable the men who have served her well; and, as years pass away, she will doubtless cherish an ever growing interest in its prosperity, evinced by ample donations to ensure its permanence.

By order of the Board,

ABSTRACT OF THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

There has been an increase of 372 to the list of new contributing churches, and the entire receipts for the year, including the amount received and expended on the field, have been $121,521.06, against $102,789.59 last year. The year was commenced with a debt of $539.92 against the Board, and though the work has been greatly enlarged, the contributions from the churches have enabled the Board to make all the payments promptly, with a balance in the Treasury of $3,708.75. There have been expended for missions during the year $90,016.11, against $83,267.18, an increase of $6,748.93. The number of sabbath-school and missionary societies contributing last year was 167, this year 218, an increase of 51.

It will be noticed, also, that the colored churches and schools under the care of the Board have advanced over last year's contributions more than seven thousand dollars, having contributed $20,335.07 against $12,881.52 last year, an increase of $7,453.55. To this may be added $182.34, raised for the Boards of Foreign and Home Missions, and Ministerial Relief, and considerable other sums for building school-houses and repairing their churches not reported to this office. Their contributions for the other Boards are included in the amounts received and expended on the field. From these facts it is very clear that our colored brethren are gradually advancing toward the point of self-support, which is especially gratifying when it is remembered that their contributions are made out of deep poverty.

BIDDLE UNIVERSITY, Rev. S. MATTOON, D.D., President.—This University is located at Charlotte, N. C., and receives its name in memory of the late Major Henry J. Biddle, of Philadelphia, whose widow, Mrs Mary D. Biddle, has been one of the first and most liberal supporters. It is chartered by the Legislature of the State, and under the auspices of the Presbyterian Board of Missions for Freedmen.

The object of the institution is the education of colored teachers and preachers.

Buildings.—These comprise the homes of the President and of the three Senior Professors, a large boarding home, and the new University building. This structure, just completed at a cost of $40,000, is 98 x 67 feet, three stories high, with an annex for chapel 66 x 45 feet. The whole is of substantial brick, of pleasing appearance, furnishing twelve recitation rooms, each 34 x 24 feet, two society halls, an audience chamber capable of seating 600, and roomy and well-ventilated halls, with an abundance of light throughout.

A Boarding House, modeled on the idea of a Christian home, has been established for the accommodation of students from abroad. This is under the care of Prof. Geo. L. White and his efficient wife, assisted by the three Junior Professors.

Wants.—1st. "Permanent Endowment Funds for the adequate support "of the Professors, is an imperative necessity." Five thousand dollars have been secured for the endowment of the President's chair. 2d. We shall be compelled during the present year to make certain improvements. It will be necessary to purchase twenty-five acres or more of land, in addition to the present campus, in order to prevent encroachment upon our premises. The two old dormitories, to which reference has been made, must be repaired and refurnished. We are also desirous of organizing a Labor Department, where the young men may be taught the elements of industry and the use of tools. In the accomplishment of these and other necessary improvements, $10,000 could be judiciously expended. 3d. Scholarships. The establishment of $100 Scholarships to enable needy and promising students in the higher departments to pursue their studies, continuously, through the College year. In addition to this, a few hundred dollars to be placed in the hands of the Faculty, to be used at its discretion, in aiding needy and worthy students, is a great desideratum. 4th. Donations of Clothing, for distribution among needy students, are earnestly solicited. 5th. Useful Books for the library are much needed. Works of reference, biography, history and science are particularly desired. A Library Fund is much needed, that there may be purchases made from time to time of new and valuable books. For a "working" library, such a fund in the hands of the Librarian is an imperative want.

SCOTIA SEMINARY, Rev. LUKE DORLAND, President.—Scotia Seminary is located at Concord, Cabarrus County, N. C. Its design, as expressed in its charter, is "to educate colored girls in religion, and in the arts and sciences usually taught in seminaries of a high order; and in those domestic duties which belong to the highest type of wife, mother, and teacher."

Buildings.—These consist of a large brick building, in the form of a T, three stories above the basement, together with the old Seminary building, the Home, the Library and Store-room, which are small but useful buildings. The entire property of the Seminary, including the grounds and about $1500 endowment fund, is estimated at $26,000.

Wants.—1st. Scholarships at $45 each, and partial scholarships. The demand for these is constantly increasing with the increase of the number of pupils. As a rule, orphans and pupils from large families must be aided, or an education must be denied to some of the most promising and enterprising of their race. Tuition is free, and $45 will furnish boarding, fuel, and light for one pupil for the entire term (year) of eight months. "Patrons," says the superintendent, "have been a double blessing to their wards by their correspondence. Some of the most promising girls have been thus led to the Saviour." 2d. Clothing.—Boxes of good second-hand wearing apparel are always in demand, to be worn as sent, or cut and fitted by the pupils themselves. Also remnants of calico, muslin, and flannel, etc., for the Sewing Department. 3d. Endowment.—This Institution should be permanently endowed. At present it has but $1500 for this purpose. Would not the completion, furnishing, and endowing of this Institution—established for the special purpose of lifting the daughters of this lowly people to their proper place and influence among their own race, by means of a good Christian education—be an appropriate undertaking for the ladies of our Church, to be accomplished both by individual gifts and organized effort?

WALLINGFORD ACADEMY, Rev. THOS. GROVE, Principal.—This Institution is located in Charleston, South Carolina. It reports as enrolled, during the past year, 651 pupils—9 more than were reported for the preceding year. Paid by pupils for tuition, $526.34.

BRAINERD INSTITUTE, Rev. S. LOOMIS, Principal.—Brainerd Institute is located in Chester, an important and growing railroad centre in upper South Carolina, a town of about two thousand inhabitants, the whole county embracing twenty-five thousand, of whom sixteen thousand are colored. In this and the three adjacent counties—York, Lancaster and Union—their numbers reach nearly forty thousand, and this is the only school within these boundaries above the grade of primary. Around the Institute are clustered the nine churches that have constituted Brainerd Mission, and on every hand public and sabbath-schools, instructed by Brainerd scholars.

Departments.—Since the public school authorities of Chester united with the Board in sustaining some branches of the work, the Institute has been reorganized, and a graded course of study adopted in three departments—Primary, Grammar and High School—all so arranged as to give a very thorough, symmetrical and complete English and scientific education.

Normal Department.—This department of the Institute continued in different forms now for a number of years, which has supplied this region of country with day and sabbath-school teachers, and done much to raise the standard of education in the county, will be continued with still better facilities, and receive greater attention in the years to come. The prosperity of the people—material, social, moral and religious—is so largely an outgrowth of what the public school teachers are and do, we can scarcely give too great prominence to this branch of our work.

Industrial and Agricultural Department.—But the most important measure of the past year, making progress in the right direction, has been the inauguration of an Industrial Department of the Institute, and to some extent the formation of plans for its successful operation. The design is to enable students to aid themselves in obtaining an education; to develop the strength and hardihood that come from self-help; to maintain and promote habits of industry; to counteract the danger of sickness and disease so often the result of sedentary occupation; to provide more wholesome living from orchard, farm and garden; and to impart a practical acquaintance with improved systems of agriculture, now the all-important need of this Southern country. As a beginning of the Industrial Department, one hundred acres of land have been obtained by the Institute, at a convenient distance from the town, with about thirty acres woodland, well situated for cultivation, improvement and instruction.

FAIRFIELD INSTITUTE, WINNSBORO, S. C., Rev. WILLARD RICHARDSON, Principal.—This school reports 350 pupils enrolled, 84 professors of religion, 25 studying for the Gospel ministry, and over 100 fitting themselves for teaching in this country and in Africa. It is strictly a religious school, and pupils are training to religious activity and Christian work. There are five weekly prayer meetings—a general prayer meeting, and one for young men, one for young ladies, one for boys, and one for girls, and they all learn to pray with scarcely an exception before they leave the school. The great need is scholarships of from twenty to fifty dollars, which commends itself to the benevolence of those who believe in the rapidly opening possibilities of the Negro in Africa. Winnsboro' is a growing village of nearly 2000 inhabitants, and all the buildings erected during the year have been built by colored mechanics educated at this school. All the mechanical trades are represented here, and agriculture receives its due attention. The students are educated towards, and not from these vocations.

STATISTICS.

Whole number of students enrolled,	1,770
Number of these professors of religion,	485
Number of these in the Presbyterian Church,	295
Whole number studying for the Gospel ministry,	91
Whole number of these that are Presbyterians,	77
Number who have acted as catechists,	20
Taught school part of the year,	153
Whole number of months taught by all, this year, over,	450
Whole number of pupils in all their schools, about,	9,120
Amount of pay received, in cash and board, by all about,	$8,788
Number who superintended sabbath-schools while teaching,	76
Whole number of scholars in these sabbath-schools,	4,313

In considering the figures of these tables, it should be remembered that those pertaining to students for the Gospel ministry, catechists, and superintendents of sabbath-schools came from but four of the five institutions named, as Scotia Seminary is for girls only.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE WORK.

Thirteen new missions have been opened, and eleven new churches organized during the year. Six of the new missions are in the Indian Territory, among the Freedmen once owned as slaves by the Indians, five in the Choctaw, and one in the Creek nation. This is an entirely new field, and heretofore unoccupied, but it is one of peculiar promise. The Freedmen in the Territory are, in some regards, in a better condition than those in many parts of the South, having, as members of the nation to which they belong, the privilege of cultivating as much land as they choose, and need find no difficulty in supporting themselves and their families. They manifest, also, a willingness to aid in the support of churches and schools, of which they have been sadly destitute heretofore. In all their applications for schools, they have offered to build the school home if we would send them the teachers. Those in the Creek nation, to whom the Board has sent two lady missionaries, have built a school-house, and also a house for the missionaries. From these indications we have good reason to expect that these missions will become self-sustaining in a very few years. Two young men have been sent to Biddle University, and five girls to Scotia Seminary from our missions in the Territory, to be educated as teachers for their people.

We have new work also at Baxter Springs, Kansas, among some 1200 Freedmen, who came from the South and have settled at this point. This mission was opened some few years ago, by Miss Julia A. Wilson, an earnest Christian woman, who has devoted her life to the work of elevating the Freedmen. In October last the mission was turned over to our Board, and Miss Wilson, and Miss Johnston, her assistant, taken under its care. We have here a good sized double house with three lots of ground. The house, however, is not entirely finished, but we hope to enlarge and finish it during the year. Into this house Miss Wilson has taken twenty-four little girls, mostly orphans, who live with her and are constantly under her control. The care and teaching of these girls in books and house-work is only a part of her work. She does constant and laborious missionary work among the families of the Freedmen. She has a large sabbath-school in the morning, and a Bible meeting for adults in the afternoon, together with a week-night school for adults, and a semi-weekly sewing school for women.

In addition to the new missions and churches above referred to, the Board has greatly enlarged the work at Scotia Female Seminary and Biddle University.

An Industrial Department has been added to Scotia, in which the girls are taught to cut and make dresses, to mend, darn, and to do all kinds of plain sewing. Two Christian ladies, who are professional dress-makers, have been placed over this department, their support being assured from the Slater fund through Rev. Dr. Haygood.

This enlargement of the work, undertaken at the suggestion of the last Assembly, has of course greatly increased the liabilities and responsibilities of the Board, and we must look to the churches to sustain us in this, and still further enlargement for the present year.

THE NEEDS OF THE BOARD.

1st. The work of the Board, though considerably enlarged, is still confined to really only four of the Southern States, with a few missions in four others. The great States of Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Missouri, with a colored population of 2,460,381, have not been touched yet. Many urgent and touching appeals are made to us from these States, not only by the colored people, but by brethren of the Southern Church, who express a cordial willingness to coöperate with us in the work. In the Indian Territory there are five small churches, remnants of organizations which existed before the war, that are reaching out their hands to us and asking for preachers and teachers. For years they have been served by an old, pious, but uneducated colored man, with preaching now and then from white brethren. The States above mentioned, and this part of the Indian Territory should be occupied at once. There are devoted men and women who are ready and anxious to go to these fields, but the Board has not the means to send them. The harvest is ripe and plenteous, and the Lord's reapers are ready to enter the field and gather it, if the churches are ready to send them. Should the Board determine to occupy only the most promising and needy of the fields now open to us and begging for Church and school privileges, the sources of income for the present year must be largely increased.

2d. The Board needs additional funds for building chapels and school houses. The Board of Church Erection has generously helped us in this direction as far as it could; but its rules require those applying for aid to raise two-thirds of the amount necessary to build a chapel, and this the Freedmen, in most cases, are too poor to do; so that aid from this quarter is practically beyond their reach. Our colored brethren, therefore, are continually making application to our Board for aid directly from us, or to allow them to appeal to our churches in the North. To the former we are compelled to say no, for we have not the funds; and to the latter we cannot consent, for, in that case, we should soon have the churches flooded with appeals from them, and pastors would complain, as some have already done, when we have permitted special needy cases to be brought before them. The consequence is that these poor brethren are practically shut out from the avenues of help, and their work seriously hindered for want of houses for Church and school purposes. They are ready and willing to help themselves, as they have done in many cases, but in their deep poverty they are not able unaided to put up the necessary buildings. They do not ask that we build their chapels and school-houses, only to help them to do it. And this we must do, for they are an imperative necessity to the successful prosecution of the work. Some of the most important points which we have occupied are at this time suffering most seriously from the want of suitable buildings. In many localities a very neat chapel, which could be used for Church and school purposes, can be built for $600. Many of our larger Presbyteries could do a most important work for the blessed Lord and His lowly poor, if, in addition to their regular contributions to the Board, each of them would build a chapel for the Negroes in the South, where the preaching of the Word would be continually shedding its gracious influence on the race, and leading them from darkness into light.

The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies entered upon its duties with natural solicitude. It was a new agency for a work that was new, at least in form. For its means it was to depend chiefly upon the gifts of the churches; and since these were not aware that such a Board was to be created, many of them had prepared their schedules of the year's collections in such way as to leave no room for this new cause. Even those pastors and elders who had watched with most interest the steps by which recent Assemblies had been approaching the result now reached, could not be aware beforehand of the form in which their coöperation was to be asked; so that, however warm their sympathy with the object of the Board, they might not be prepared to render it immediate support. In addition to all this, the year was half gone before the organization of the Board for work became complete. A general statement of its aim was early issued, accompanied with an earnest call for help. But it was not till in December that with its room in order, and its newly appointed secretary somewhat acquainted with his task, it was prepared to make formal appeal to the churches. Accordingly by the first of January it had received into its treasury only $278.24.

There was, however, one definite encouragement; a few friends of the cause within the Board, or in the neighborhood of Chicago, had taken it in hand to provide for the first year's expenses of administration outside of the gifts of the churches. This purpose has been to a good degree fulfilled, as will appear from the treasurer's statement of the special gifts so made.

For rent nothing has been paid. The very commodious room which the Board occupies on Wabash avenue, Chicago, is generously furnished to it by Mr. C. H. Whiting, who represents in that city the sales department of the Board of Publication.

In January the Board, by means of a circular letter very extensively sent out among the pastors, made request for February collections. The same request was made in the denominational papers; and to the very kind assistance which the editors have rendered the Board, is largely due the measure of success which has attended this first year's work. This form of assistance has been the more valuable by the fact that the officers of the Board did not feel at liberty to diminish the uncertain income of their first year by sharing in the space and the cost of the Monthly Record.

In February it began to appear that the request for collections had been heeded; and the stream of gifts from churches and individuals has from that time flowed very steadily down to the first of May. At that last date the total of receipts into the treasury of the Board was $14,912.11. To these, however, is to be added the total of gifts which the donors have sent direct to institutions, but which they have regarded as falling within the scope of the Board's work, and have wished to have presented in this report to the General Assembly. Their amount is $14,074.89. The aggregate of contributions reported in these two classes is $28,987.

Nearly 400 churches had contributed when the books closed—a large proportion under the circumstances above recited. Only about an eighth of these had received any special knowledge of the new Board by means of the presence of their pastors in the last Assembly.

The Board further notices, with pleasure, that sympathy with its work has not been limited to any part of the Church. Nor does the statement of gifts by any means indicate the measure of that sympathy. Very many letters have been sent, especially from the older parts of the Church, pledging for the next year the contributions which could not be arranged for in this.

The means received have been distributed among nine Institutions, the greater part, by far, having been divided among four of them. The reason for this is as follows: The Board soon after it came into being a year ago, was met with some applications of the most pressing nature, which, if postponed, would have been in effect rejected. These were taken up, one by one, as they were presented, and were passed upon in the terms which the Board thought necessary for securing the interests at stake. In this way definite promises of help were carried as far as a prudent estimate of the first year's receipts appeared to warrant. The latest of these appropriations was made in September. In October other applications came in, which were acted upon at the first subsequent meeting, in December. In its responses to these, the Board made statement that the positive appropriations already made would first be paid, and that upon this second list there should be distribution pro rata out of such means as should remain for that purpose.

Of the institutions first applying, and receiving definite promise of help, one had been established for some years; the other three were new.

1. Salt Lake Collegiate Institute is located in the heart of Salt Lake City, where it has a very desirable property, worth from $16,000 to $18,000. The school was begun in 1875. It owes its existence to the zeal and self-sacrifice of the local Presbyterian church, which, out of its small resources, has contributed and collected $5,300, nearly one-half of the money that has been put into the property, besides bearing a constant and heavy burden of interest. The Church at the East has contributed to the property $5700. The Institute is successfully doing the most hopeful kind of work that is done upon the Mormon population. Only about one-third of the pupils are so-called "gentiles." In the school so made up fifty-seven scholars have since its commencement, nine years ago, made profession of their faith. Four young women are already teaching in the Utah schools of the Home Board. Six more are now in training in the Institute for that work. Four young men are studying for the ministry; and of all these a large proportion are of Mormon origin. The whole school now numbers two hundred and forty-two pupils; the academy about fifty. The Board was early informed in detail of the history, work and needs of the Institute. It was asked to meet a deficit of $2,500 that must occur in the expense account of the current year. It promised, and has paid $2,000.

The new Institutions which the Board has thus far helped are all colleges. A new Presbyterian academy, indeed, has been brought into being, in Geneseo, Ill., by liberal gifts, which would never have been directed toward the educational work of our Church but for the Board's engagement to pay the salary of a principal. This engagement has since been limited to the amount of $1500, which has not yet become payable.

The three colleges which the Board has helped to found may serve together as a striking illustration of the scope and need of the work which our Church has now undertaken. They are so far apart, that if they were similarly related in Europe they might serve the needs of three great nations. The College of Emporia is near the middle of eastern Kansas. The Presbyterian University of Southern Dakota, at Pierre, is in the middle of the region from which it takes its name, and, in a straight line north-north-west, is distant from Emporia about four hundred miles. The College of Montana is at Deer Lodge City, in the middle of western Montana, a little north of west from Pierre, and, in a straight line, about five hundred miles farther west.

A notice of these institutions one by one will show that the first requisite in any claim to the Board's attention has been the vigorous efforts of the applying community to found its own school.

2. The College of Emporia grows out of the action of the Synod of Kansas. After deliberation and negotiation it was arranged between the Synod and the citizens of Emporia, that the city should furnish for the institution a suitable site and $35,000 for the erection of buildings; the Synod engaging to raise, within five years, an endowment of $50,000. The land so secured has been visited by the secretary. It is a beautiful eminence of thirty-eight acres, its graceful slope and sweeping view meeting the very ideal of a college site. The College was opened in temporary rooms on the first of last November. That lateness of opening naturally diminished the number of pupils, which, for this year, has been but seventeen. The next year is expected to bring not less than seventy-five students, some of them in college classes. The synodical work of endowment has made a vigorous beginning, and meets such favor that its completion is hoped for far within the specified period. Both the plans and the means are ready for an imposing building, the erection of which will begin this summer. In the small number of students already gathered, one is in purpose committed to the ministry. The whole outlook of the institution is exceedingly hopeful. Down to this time—that is, within one year of the Assembly's establishment of this Board, $52,000 has been secured in Kansas, in land, cash and trustworthy notes or subscriptions, under a movement which would never have been made but for the inspiration of this denominational action. The current expenses of the first year have not required the whole sum named in the Board's vote, which set a limit of $3,500. The College has received $2,892.

3. The Presbyterian University of Southern Dakota was located and named by the Presbytery of Southern Dakota, at its spring session of 1883. The City of Pierre, on the Missouri River, has the promise of future consequence beyond any other city in all that region. There are two Methodist schools about one hundred and fifty miles away. There is no other similar institution within two hundred miles, the other denominational and territorial colleges being located in the eastern portion of the Territory. When the aid of the Board was asked, the Presbytery had pledged $20,000; the City of Pierre had given a site, and had subscribed $30,000 more toward buildings; one building had been erected. The institution was to open in September; and the Board was asked to help in the current expenses of the first year by the amount of $1,700. The appropriation was made, and has been paid. Thirty-six students have been in attendance, the dormitory accommodating but twenty. There are clear indications of more than twice the number for the ensuing year, and effort is making to put up a building, at the cost of $30,000, that shall meet the present needs of the institution. Six of the first year's students have the ministry in view, three of them being already candidates under care of their Presbyteries.

4. To the establishment of the College of Montana several distinct agencies have contributed. First of all, the building and its site were the property of a number of gentlemen, who, being desirous of furnishing their community the means of higher education than the school system of their Territory would supply, were scarcely less intent upon keeping their institution quite separate from all religious influence. After some years of discouraging experience in various forms, the owners made offer of their property, by that time burdened with some debt, to our Presbytery of Montana, on condition that the debt, with accrued interest, be paid, the premises be put in order, and the institution be opened in the fall of 1883, and thereafter be maintained for its purpose of higher education. This offer had attracted the attention of Mr. Alanson Trask, a member of the Reformed Church on the Heights, Brooklyn, who, as residuary legatee of Mr. F. Marquand, had at his disposal means for such Christian uses. It resulted that about the end of June, 1883, while this Board, then newly formed, was considering the application made from Deer Lodge for help, Mr. Trask solved the greatest difficulty in the problem, by offering, on certain practicable conditions, to pay the debt accrued of $6,395. The Board thereafter voted the institution $3,000 for the year beginning September, 1883, and thus enabled the trustees to provide instructors and to receive classes at that time. Mr. Trask added to his former benefaction the offer to pay for three years the salary of Rev. D. J. McMillan, D.D., as President of the Institution, now become the College of Montana. To these great kindnesses he afterward added a contribution of $1,500 toward the current needs of the College. By the choice of all the parties, receipts for all these benefactions have been given by our Board, and they are entered in its account. Very liberal contribution to the same Institution was also made by Mr. W. H. Murray, of the Second Church, of Chicago, whose gift of $2,300 was made to our treasury for the purpose of meeting in full, not only the pledge that our Board had already made, but some further deficiencies of which we had been made aware. It thus appears that the general fund that has come into our treasury from the Church's collections for the Board has paid toward the establishment of this outpost of Presbyterian learning only $1000. The present enrollment is forty-seven. All these are expected the next year, and twenty more applications have been made. Already one student has committed himself to study for the ministry. An effort is making, with very hearty local encouragement, to erect a dormitory, which here, as at the other two new colleges, seems to be indispensable to the accommodation of students from the surrounding country.

The appropriations described as conditional, were made as follows:

To Park College, at Parkville, Missouri, which applied for $500, to be used in payment of salaries, the Board voted that amount, under the conditions that have been named.

To Princeton Collegiate Institute, at Princeton, Kentucky, which similarly asked for $1000, that sum was voted.

Parsons College, at Fairfield, Iowa, having asked for $4,000, was voted $2,000.

Lenox Collegiate Institute, at Lenox, Iowa, having asked for $2,000, was voted $1000.

The Academic and Collegiate Departments of the German Theological School, at Dubuque, Iowa, having asked for $2,000, were voted $500.

The Board regrets its inability to pay to each of these Institutions the full amount which it conditionally promised. It believes the Church will share in that regret.

To these last-named Institutions the Board has kept its promise by paying out to them the entire residue of this year's income. Its Treasury, therefore, but for gifts coming in in May will be absolutely empty. It is hoped that some of those churches and individuals who have interest in this work will show their approval of the complete distribution thus made, by sending early contributions to our Treasurer. The amount so distributed is $1,392.36.

The Board, in not a few instances, has been the channel through which churches and individuals have made their gifts to objects selected by themselves. And reference has been made to gifts which their donors have sent directly to the Institutions. Chief among these latter are the large benefactions of Mr. Trask to the College of Montana, $8,395; and of Hon. Cyrus H. McCormick to the College of Hastings, Nebraska, $5,000. But a considerable part of this special giving, it will be seen, has been done by the churches in the application of their Sabbath collections. In regard to this matter, the Assembly and the churches will see how important it is to the Board's success that contributions should be made to its general Treasury. Local interests will always exist, and in every part of the Church; so that the whole Church will always have local motive for giving special direction to every gift made to this cause. No doubt such motive ought often to be decisive, as has been true of gifts thus directed this year. But there can be no doubt of the importance of increasing to the largest measure the means that may avail for the general work of the Church through the Board.

One of the very important duties committed by the Assembly to the Board is "to assign to those Institutions seeking endowment the special fields open to their appeals, that clashing between them may be avoided; and to discourage all independent appeals to the Church at large."

It will not be claimed that this delicate part of the Board's duty has been discharged, or ever will be, with faultless wisdom. But one year's experience is enough to show that a scrutiny just like this ought to be intrusted to some candid judgment. If the day shall ever come in which this Board shall be wise and trusty enough to give no papers that ought not to be given, and the Church shall be wise enough to deny all applications that are not made with the Board's approval, the Church's work of extending her Christian education can be done with a confidence, an economy and a power as yet scarcely dreamed of.

Some colleges, intended exclusively for the education of women, have asked assistance from the Board. No expression of the Assembly having been made in regard to the province of the Board in this direction, such expression is now requested, the Board's belief being that it is desirable to make appropriations to such institutions, so far as may be consistent with the general necessities of the work.

The experience which the Board has had of its new work has greatly deepened its sense of its incalculable importance. What God through the piety, foresight and self-sacrifice of the Christian fathers of this people has done for all our seaboard soil, in making Christian learning its common growth, we must be doing, with God's help and with our might, for all our soil, or a growth will possess it that will forestall faith and piety. The Christian College, in whose presence and under whose universal influence this generation was born, was no more a natural or national thing than the Church itself. It was a product of grace; and it is propagated by grace. The learning that has another parentage has another quality. Such a learning is attracting the attention and applause of our people. On our newer soil it is spreading fast, and it shows its parentage in its own offspring. If the fathers had left the nation to create the schools of highest power, no good thing in all the nation, sacred, social, or civil would have been what it now is. They were fathers to the America of 50,000,000. To the America of 100,000,000, soon to be, both men and God will count us fathers, with responsibilities no less, but, by our experience of American things and by our immense increase of means, immensely larger than those of the founders of Yale, Princeton, Williams, and the rest. It is a simple sum in proportion. As was their duty in regard to what they saw and could do, so is our duty in regard to what we see and can do. But these are proportions which no man can measure. They belong to things infinite, and they run into eternity. It is a good sign for our country and for the coming generations of mankind that the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, has put her conscience and her hand to such a task.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The members of your Committee, have, during the last year, held frequent meetings for the furtherance of the trust committed to their charge. As the members of your Committee reside at points all the way from New York to Chicago, it is not expected that they all will be present at each meeting held in Cleveland; and it therefore has become necessary that the local members act in the character of an Executive Committee.

At the meeting of the general Committee, held one year ago at Saratoga Springs, it was "Resolved, that for the coming year this Committee will not request from the churches separate statistical reports, but will rely on those made to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries and to the Boards of the Church." The efforts of your Committee during the year have been directed rather to the purpose of stimulating the churches to activity in matters of beneficence, than to prescribing particular modes of action and forms of reporting. At a meeting held in Cleveland in December, it was directed that the reports of the Committees on Systematic Beneficence of the Synod of Illinois and the Presbytery of Morris and Orange, N. J., be printed, and a copy of the same sent to each minister of our Church; and that a sub-committee of three be appointed to procure and send these reports, accompanying them with an address to all the ministers. The brethren resident in Chicago, Messrs. Ray, Kane and Lord, were appointed said Committee, and promptly performed the duties of their appointment, and how well these duties were executed need not be particularly stated in this Report, for the record thereof has already been read by thousands throughout the Church.

It was proposed by your Committee last year, through the liberal offer of one of its members, to print and circulate gratuitously, at the call of pastors and sessions, copies of the statistics of each Presbytery as found in the Assembly's Minutes. It was thought that the distribution of these figures in the pews of our churches would greatly aid the cause. The arrangement failed, however, through the fear of the late Stated Clerk, that the stereotyping of the minutes would involve the Assembly in additional expense.

We cannot, in this Report, go into particulars in regard to the progress made, and the necessities for renewed and increased exertion; nor need we, for the reports of the several Boards of the Church abound in information upon these points. We take great pleasure in calling attention to a few illustrative examples.

The Chairman of the Committee for the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids, says: "The ministers of this Presbytery are very generally adopting the plan of giving one tenth of their income, and many of the people are following their example. One lady who had adopted this plan while her income was small, having received this last year a gift of a few thousand dollars, immediately gave $300 to Home Missions." If her giving to the other Boards of the Church was proportionate, it would not require a large number of such mothers in Israel to equal the amount now received by all our Boards.

A letter a few days since received from the Chairman of the Committee on Beneficence for the Presbytery of Westchester, N. Y., illustrates the value of fixed purposes as to the amounts which shall be raised within the year for the Boards of the Church. Last autumn they resolved to make earnest efforts to raise for the several Boards, during the year ending April 1st, 1884, the following sums: For Home Missions, $6,000. They actually raised $12,508, outdoing their purpose by more than one hundred per cent. For Foreign Missions the mark at which they aimed was $7000, but the mark which they reached was $9,704. They would give the education cause $1000. They did give it $1,171.

While nearly every Presbytery from which we have heard has made satisfactory advances upon its contributions in former years, we are pained to find one marked exception to this fact. A large and wealthy Eastern Presbytery, which contributed to the Boards of the Church in 1883, $29,606, in 1884 gave but $23,314, a net decrease of $6,202. Of this amount $4,598 was the falling off in contributions to Foreign Missions. More than two-thirds of this decrease is chargeable to a single church, which in 1883 gave $7,677, and in 1884 but $2,949. The average in the whole Presbytery per member to the Boards was in 1883, $4.28, in 1884, $3.32.

The Chairman of the Presbyterial Committee, who makes this Report, and who is very faithful in his work, says: "The large decrease is partly attributable to the special gifts and legacies of last year. But the regular contributions are not much in advance of those of 1881, and less than those of 1880. Fifteen churches show a decrease." This case shows us the importance of adopting such principles as will insure constancy in giving.

Of the thirty churches in the Presbytery of Peoria, twenty-one report large increase of funds given over previous years.

It is a most encouraging fact that in many of our western Presbyteries there has been a noticeable increase in contributions to our Boards. In 1882 the total contributions of Dubuque amounted to $3,876, in 1883, $4,940, and in the year just closed, $5,193. If the contributions of our western brethren are not large, we must remember that many of their churches are weak in numbers and in pecuniary ability. In many cases it requires their best endeavors to sustain the preaching of the Gospel within their own bounds. In illustration of this fact we call attention to the Presbytery of Palmyra, in the Synod of Missouri. The Chairman of the Standing Committee on Beneficence writes us as follows: "Our Presbytery is a peculiarly difficult field, and the task of bringing up our people to an intelligent apprehension of the claims of systematic and proportionate beneficence, requires constant care and effort. We have, in this Presbytery, 34 churches and 13 ministers. Of all the churches, mine is the only one in the Presbytery that is able to support a pastor unaided. Many of our churches are so isolated as to render it impossible to group them, or to supply them separately, and hence we usually have from 12 to 17 vacant churches. Still we are working away and improving our methods, and are awaking to the conviction that loyalty to Christ demands that we adopt some definite plan in regard to giving. We urge the plan of weekly giving, proportionate and systematic, and the distribution of funds to each of our Boards as each has need." Who shall say that the mites contributed by these poor churches, are not, in the sight of God, greater expressions of consecration than are the thousands contributed by other churches of their abundance.

Your Committee regard it as a sign of great promise that an increasing number of Presbyteries are printing and distributing tabulated annual statements of their practical benevolence, showing what each Church has, during the year, contributed to our Boards, and to miscellaneous and congregational purposes. Some of them exhibit the increase of the last year over previous years, and the amount given per member, and in this way they provoke one another to good works.

The particulars respecting the receipts of each Board are furnished in their respective Reports. We present certain facts, simply tabulated, as furnished us by the Secretaries of the Boards.

This surpasses the gain of 1883 over 1882 by $82,341. There has been a constant and beautiful ascent in the amount given to the Boards in the last four years. In 1881 the increase was $85,662; in 1882, $125,775; in 1883, $171,167; in 1884, $253,508.

The above table shows what the Boards have received during the year from all sources, including gifts in permanent funds, income from invested funds and legacies.

The gain under this head is $210,150. Last year it was only $128,203. Each Board shows a considerable increase, while last year three showed a loss. Every Board reports an income from Church collections exceeding that of the preceding year.

This liberality has enabled the Boards of Relief, Church Erection, Publication, Freedmen, to close with balances in their treasuries from $3000 to $11,000. Most of these will simply be sufficient for a fair start on a new year. But in spite of the great advance made, Home Missions reports a debt of $12,089; Foreign Missions, of $10,728; Education, $10,912, The debts of the Home and Foreign Boards are less than at the close of last year.

Each one of these objects should receive a larger amount during this coming year. The Temperance Committee has not been included among them. This worthy cause received only $619 from Churches and individuals last year, while it could use ten times that sum.

This table shows us where increased contributions might come from. It reminds us that our fields are not half cultivated; 1622 churches failing to give to Home Missions; 2451 (388 more than last year) giving nothing to Foreign Missions; 24,026 opportunities to give neglected—surely we should be ashamed of such a record.

It is worthy of note that two Presbyteries in the Minutes of 1883 report every column filled—New Brunswick and Butler. More correctly they report no blanks. We would remind them and all, that it is one thing to put a few drops in a vessel and quite another to fill it. The Foreign Missionary Presbytery of Corisco, in Africa, has no blanks, except in the case of two recently organized churches. If each of our non-contributing churches had given $5 to every object omitted, the total gifts would have been increased by over $120,000. The power of littles was illustrated recently in the Christmas dime offerings of our sabbath-schools for Foreign Missions, which amounted to $8503.

While our gifts seem large in the aggregate, they amounted last year to less than $3.06 a member to all the Boards, including permanent funds, and legacies, and not allowing for increased membership during the year. This is less than a cent a day.

But we would be ungrateful to God to complain or murmur concerning the record of the year. To have raised nearly two millions of dollars for our own benevolent work in a year not especially prosperous; to have seen the large desires of our two great Boards, expressed to the last assembly, realized; to have received over $600,000 for the Home, and nearly $700,000 for the Foreign work; to have made an increase in collections for every cause; to record that the Women's societies gave to the Foreign Board last year $203,754, and the year before $192,729; to have found that these societies gave the Home Board $97,167, as against $78,520; to have seen a new Board collecting $28,000 from the churches without decreasing the gifts to others; these are strong reasons for praise. "Who are we that we should be able to offer after this sort? Of Thine own have we given Thee. We are not our own." May we show our gratitude to our Redeemer by abounding more and more in this and every grace!

We would emphasize again these principles:

1. The need and the value of instructing the people on this subject. We have abundant evidence that great good has been done by sermons, by addresses at meetings of Presbytery, and especially by the circulation of tracts prepared by Elder Thomas Kane, of Chicago, a member of this Committee. These may still be had for gratuitous distribution in our churches by application to him. The lectures of Dr. John Hall, of New York, on "The Proper Use of Wealth," have been stereotyped by your Committee, and may also be had on application to Mr. Thomas Kane, at the bare cost of printing ($2 per 100).

2. As giving is a grace, it ought to be brought into close connection with the worship of God. "Bring an offering and come into His courts," was the Lord's command to His ancient people. There is very little recognition of this in our Directory for Worship; and on this account an Overture, suggested by a member of this Committee, has been sent to this Assembly by the Presbytery of Cleveland.

3. We believe that proportionate giving is the essence of this whole matter. We believe that every Christian should obey the Apostolic rule and "lay by him in store as the Lord has prospered him," before he uses anything for himself. We may differ as to whether we have Divine warrant for any fixed proportion, but the principle of proportionate giving is revealed, enjoined and illustrated in God's Word.

We ask that the small bill for printing and clerk hire for the Committee be paid. All other expenses have been borne by the members themselves.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Third Annual Report, together with the minutes of its meetings; and records with devout thanksgiving the evident tokens of the Divine favor upon the work.

At its meeting on the 13th of June, 1883, it distributed the work among its members by the appointment of committees on the following subjects: On Publications, on Correspondence with other Religious Bodies, and on Synods and Presbyteries. It also appointed an Executive Committee, consisting of the officers of the Permanent Committee, and Mr. Walter Carter, who should have the immediate oversight of the details of the work, with power to employ whatever clerical assistance might be found necessary. And, in this connection, it gratefully acknowledges its obligations to the Rev. Wm. E. Honeyman for the valuable assistance which he has rendered to the Committee for a nominal consideration.

PUBLICATIONS. Tract No. 6 is a Summary of the Deliverances of the General Assembly on the subject of Temperance, from A.D. 1812 to 1883 inclusive. Of this tract eleven thousand copies have been printed during the year, and distributed among the churches. There is ample testimony that this tract has been of invaluable service in communities in which it has been freely circulated.

No. 7 is a Circular Letter to the Synods and Presbyteries. It was prepared by Rev. Robert Aikman, D.D., the Chairman of the Committee to which this subject was assigned. Five thousand copies of this circular were distributed among the pastors and churches. It is believed that it has greatly aided in perfecting the organization of the Temperance work in the Synods and Presbyteries.

No. 8 is a plan for organizing the Temperance work in sabbath-schools. This plan gives satisfaction in the churches.

No. 9 is a circular to the Presbyteries concerning the Temperance Narrative. Five thousand copies of this circular were printed and distributed.

OTHER ECCLESIASTICAL BODIES. The correspondence with other ecclesiastical bodies has been conducted by Rev. Francis H. Marling, and he has collected much valuable information on the subject. In 1883 we were able to report the utterances and proceedings on the subject of Temperance of several churches in Britain—Presbyterian, Episcopal, Methodist, Congregational, and Baptist.

We now present further reports of this cause in the American Churches, of which, last year, we could speak only of the Protestant Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, and Baptist bodies.

This year we report the favorable action of seven prominent American Churches, viz.: The Southern Presbyterian, Reformed Dutch, Reformed Episcopal, Cumberland Presbyterian, Reformed Presbyterian, Congregational, and German Reformed Churches. It is evident that the subject forces itself upon the attention of all, and is becoming more and more prominent from year to year. Even those bodies that have hitherto scarcely touched it are constrained to utter themselves; and such as have always been outspoken advance to stronger positions. In fact, the Church of Christ in this land, as all over the world, is the stronghold of the Temperance Reform. The deliverances show how far the way is open for coöperative effort among the various Churches. This Committee is ready for such a joint movement, when it promises practical results. And it specially recommends that local coöperation already practiced in so many communities.

STATISTICS. It is made the duty of your Committee "to gather and report such statistics as may be of value and interest to the Church."

Out of a great mass of statistics that might be given, it ventures to make the following selections. The United States Internal Revenue Receipts from Taxes on Distilled and Fermented Liquors for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1883, showed that the liquor interest pays $81,260,390.01 to the United States Government. This enormous amount is, of course, repaid to them by the consumers, and is a direct loss to the latter.

The destruction of bread-food is also a matter worthy of serious thought. It amounts to 18,644,787 bushels; and 2,373,106 gallons of molasses, in the production of distilled spirits alone, exclusive of malt liquors.

The consumption of liquors and wines, annually, is simply appalling. During the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1883, it was as follows: Distilled spirits, 76,762,063 proof gallons; malt liquors, 552,375,654 gallons; wines, estimated, 25,885,492 gallons. These frightful figures need no comment.

COST.—The question is often asked, What does the beverage in distilled and malt liquors and wines cost the consumers, annually, in the United States? Your Committee has carefully weighed this question, and it has come to the deliberate conclusion, that in the matter of dollars and cents, the consumption of distilled, malt, and various liquors, as a beverage, costs the consumers, annually, in the United States, not less than eight hundred and thirteen millions of dollars.

PAUPERISM AND CRIME.—The relation of the liquor traffic to pauperism and crime, is that of cause and effect. Hon. Judge Noah Davis said recently in New York, "that twenty years' experience as a judge had taught him that of all the causes of misery, destitution, crime, and death, intoxicating liquor stood forth the unapproachable chief." The statistics on the general subject of criminals and paupers are not very reliable.

But if the State of Pennsylvania is a fair average for the United States, it will appear that the well-to-do people of the country pay, in taxes, upward of $13,000,000 on account of county prisons and State penitentiaries, and more than fifteen millions of dollars for the support of the poor, a very large percentage of whom are made paupers by rum. The liquor traffic, therefore, forces upon the people the consideration of questions of political economy, as well as moral accountability.

Surely these are matters which demand the attention of the political economist and statesman, as well as of the philanthropist and the Christian. It is a question of protection. Disentangled from all other matters, the issue is—the American Home vs. the Saloon.

Happily there is nothing in the Federal Constitution to prevent the people, in the exercise of their sovereign right, to give the Home whatever protection they may see fit to decree. The Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of the Beer Co. vs. Mass. (7 Otto, 92 U. S. 25), a decision since the adoption of the Fourteenth Amendment and reaffirming the decision in Bartemyer vs. Iowa (18 Wall, 129), decides that a State law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors is not repugnant to any clause of the United States Constitution.

EXISTING LAWS AND THEIR ENFORCEMENT.—Your Committee has felt called upon, to make some inqury in relation to "the strong arm of the civil law." And it gladly reports that correspondence with persons in every State in the Union, and an examination of the existing laws in many of the States, afford ample evidence that "the utter extermination of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage," is within the power of the people in a large part of the country under existing laws. What is wanted is the "Christian conscience" that will enforce the laws. There is ample room for Law-and-Order Leagues, and an imperative demand for their existence and work.

TEMPERANCE EDUCATION.—The State of New York has come grandly into line with Vermont, New Hampshire and Michigan, on the Temperance educational scheme, by the passage of the following bill, which is now the law of the State:

"The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

"SECTION 1. Provision shall be made by the proper local school authorities for instructing all pupils in all schools supported by public money, or under State control, in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks, stimulants and narcotics upon the human system.

"SECTION 2. No certificate shall be granted any person to teach in the public schools of the State of New York, after the first day of January, 1885, who has not passed a satisfactory examination in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks, stimulants and narcotics upon the human system."

SUGGESTIONS.—It is made the duty of your Committee "to mature and report action on the subject to the General Assembly."

1. It has occurred to it that the consolidated Synods, especially those whose boundaries are conterminous with State lines, are admirably adapted for organizing the Temperance work within their bounds. The Permanent Committees of the Synods understand better than most others the local issue in their several States, and by their impact upon the Presbyteries through the Presbyterial Committees, and through them upon the churches —are in a position to crystallize the temperance sentiments of the State into the best possible agencies for promoting the cause, both in its spiritual and civil aspects.

2. It seems to your Committee that Christian people through the regular Church channels, or by combining together in Law-and-Order Leagues, or other associations for the purpose of enforcing existing laws against the liquor traffic, might create a strong "public opinion" in this direction, which would be of invaluable service to the cause. Laws are useless unless backed by the power of "public opinion" which will compel their enforcement.

3. The Temperance educational scheme, by which the pupils in all schools supported by public money shall receive instruction in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks, stimulants and narcotics upon the human system, is a matter on which all phases of temperance sentiment can unite; and it is of such magnitude and importance as to demand united and concentrated effort in all our churches to secure its ingrafting into the laws of all the States in the Union, and its enforcement when enacted.

4. The Temperance issues are now so prominent in all parts of the country, and the work of the Permanent Committee has become so extended and important, that it will need at least six thousand dollars the coming year to do its work properly, and it ventures to suggest action in this direction in so far, that it be cordially commended to the churches, by the Assembly, for this amount.

SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES.—The Chairman of your Committee has been in correspondence with the Stated Clerks of all the Synods, and most of the Presbyteries, with a view to the appointment of Permanent or Standing Committees on the subject of Temperance, and the systematic organization of the work within their respective bounds. He also visited the Synods of New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, during their sessions in October last, and presented the claims of the Committee to each of these bodies, in all of which, both the cause and the representative of the Committee, received the most respectful hearing.

And it is gratifying to report that the Synods gave the subject of Temperance serious and prayerful consideration at their last sessions, and most of them adopted well digested and elaborate papers on the subject, and appointed Permanent Committees who should have the immediate oversight of the work within their bounds.

THE TEMPERANCE NARRATIVES.—The last General Assembly directed, "That the Presbyteries prepare a distinct Temperance Narrative at their spring meetings, and forward the same to the Permanent Committee; and that the Committee consider and report on the same to the next Assembly."

The happiest results are anticipated from this action of the Assembly, because it brings the subject authoritatively before every Presbytery, creates discussion, and leads to comparison of methods and results which must be of lasting benefit to the cause. Whilst your Committee has been somewhat disappointed in the number of the Temperance Narratives which have been received, it has been greatly cheered by the high character, comprehensiveness, and devotion to the cause, of those which have been received. The salient features of the Narratives may be grouped under the following heads:

Organization.—There is a cordial response on the part of many to the recommendation of the General Assembly to appoint Standing Committees on Temperance, and to bring the work under Presbyterial and ecclesiastical supervision and control.

Others again, acting on the principle that the Church is jure divino, a Temperance society, carry on the work directly, by the officers of the Church, without any additional machinery or organization. "The Church," says the Presbytery of Lackawanna, "is God's organization. As such, her ministers and members are expressly qualified and equipped for the front rank in the Temperance reform."

Preach the Word.—Your Committee reports with unfeigned pleasure that, judging from the Narratives received, the practice of preaching frequently upon the subject of Temperance is well-nigh universal throughout the Church. This is a hopeful sign.

Local Work.—Whilst in some Presbyteries there is just cause for complaint on account of the apathy of the churches, yet, in the main, the Narratives are very encouraging, showing a degree of activity, earnestness and success which is very inspiring. "We never have had as many members in both houses of Congress, who are ready to stand up as the stalwart friends of Temperance and boldly face the foe, as to-day." It is cheering to learn that in the National Capital there is a "Committee of One Hundred, composed of the prominent members of the different Churches and Temperance societies," to watch the liquor legislation in Congress, and whose influence was sensibly felt in defeating the Bonded Whisky Bill.

The Presbytery of Elizabeth reports a very remarkable Temperance revival within its bounds, the most extensive of which has been in Plainfield, N. J., where 3200 have signed the pledge—and a reform club has been organized with a membership of 750.

The Presbytery of Chester reports a Presbyterial Temperance Convention, or "Institute," at Kennett's Square, held under the direction of the Standing Committee on Temperance, at which "practical topics pertaining to this vital issue were discussed."

There has been a genuine Temperance revival at several points within the Presbytery of Lackawanna. "At Carbondale 1613 have signed the pledge, and over 700 more have agreed in writing to stand by the Mayor in his efforts to suppress intemperance."

Chicago sends a ringing and cheerful report, being responses from thirty-one churches, two of which have distinctive Church Temperance organizations.

Among the ministers and Church members both sentiment and practice are overwhelmingly in favor of total abstinence in the individual. Four-fifths of the Presbyteries express themselves distinctly on this point. Long Island reports that "Every minister on our roll is a total abstainer." Three words indicate the line of Temperance work within its bounds: "Education, prevention, prohibition." These words voice the prevailing sentiment of all the Narratives.

Reformation of Inebriates.—One-fourth of the Presbyteries speak of some success in this direction.

Women's Christian Temperance Union.—Two-fifths of the Presbyteries speak in the highest terms of the thorough organization and efficient work of the Women's Christian Temperance Unions, with which the women of the churches are largely identified, and who constitute, often, the controlling minds.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875 and 1877. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full Delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly,—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant Church contributing to this Fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country.

"The Committee further recommend, that the General Assembly enjoin upon the Committee of Arrangements for the respective meetings of the Assembly, the importance of making early announcements (not later, if practicable, than the first week of May) in respect to commutation of railroad and steamboat fares."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to four cents for Mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this Fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per Church member, and to forward it with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee.

☞ See, also, Minutes of 1883, pp. 652–653.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1884 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery, and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage Fund of the Assembly) to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing Vacant Church, whose address is known; also to every ordained Missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next Annual Meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 243 of the present Appendix; of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, sabbath-schools and Bible-classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers. Also, the various arrangements of the Presbytery for Church extension; stating the number of their ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of their churches, and how they are supplied; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the Gospel; what and how much agency has been employed; together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 243, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record Ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞ Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. ☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e.g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S. for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M. for a Synodical

Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a College or Theological Seminary; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary, and D. Sec., for District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other Ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; and V., for one that is Vacant.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874 and 1883, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Mission Schools, carried on in connection with the Presbyteries. 2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands. 3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; for Theological Seminaries, Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Parochial Schools. 4. Publication Missionary Fund. To include all moneys contributed to the Board for their Missionary work, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositaries. 5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise. 6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and to aid the families of deceased Ministers. 7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise. 8. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges and Academies, whether established for the education of males or females. 9. Sustentation. Contributions to the Board of Home Missions for Pastoral Sustentation. 10. General Assembly. To include all given for Ecclesiastical expenses. 11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Parish Sunday-school, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses. 12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9). The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(10) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11) Annex a Statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastoral relations, organizations, reception and dissolution of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

* Report of 1883.  Report of 1882. Wherever Membership only is given the statistics are from the General Assembly Minutes of 1884, the totals being distributed between "Officers," "Teachers" and "Scholars" in the usual proportion. "Average attendance" and "Attendance at Church" often contain estimated numbers, owing to deficiencies of reports. All other numbers are as accurate as the reports of the several schools.
